At last months Cerritos City Council meeting, the council approved the city's overall budget and included items that some Cerritos residents were not happy about, even though the $6.6 million deficit left by Carol Chen and company was turned into a $1.1 million surplus.

DIRTY ELECTION: LA MIRADA COUNCILMAN ANDREW SAREGA HAS ADDITIONAL CONNECTIONS TO INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURE COMMITTEE

Hews Media Group-Community News has obtained documents that strongly indicate La Mirada City Councilman Andrew Sarega has a long-term relationship with the Imbre family, the La Mirada family that distributed money for Residents for a Better La Mirada (RBLM).

RBLM was an "independent expenditure" committee that received $6,500 in questionable donations to influence the normally tranquil March 7, 2017 La Mirada City Council election.

The $6,500 was subsequently used to send several direct mail campaign flyers slamming Sarega's opponent, Pauline Deal and Sarega ally Tony Aiello's opponent, eventual winner John Lewis.

La Mirada had never before seen this type of dirty electioneering.

Weeks before the vote, HMG-CN published a series of articles outlining the campaign financing between Sarega, Aiello and RBLM, a series that resulted

CAR SHOW AT ROSEWOOD'S RESTAURANT IN CERRITOS DRAWS MANY CLASSICS

By Tammye McDuff

The first Saturday of every month over a hundred beautifully kept and restored vehicles can be found in the parking lot at Rosewood Family Restaurant, showing pre '78 American Street Rods and traditional classic cars.

The car show has been going for the past four years. Hosted by Bill and Anna Pearson and their friend Roger Gardner, they requested permission from the restaurant, partly due to the location and they liked the food and shade trees. "We have been hosting car shows for about seven years," notes Bill Pearson, "We had to transfer to the Rosewood as our previous location had a change in management and we were displaced."

"My husband and I, with the help of our friend Roger enjoy hosting the car show," adds Anna, "We meet so many friendly people with interesting and beautiful cars."

LONG-TIME LAKEWOOD City Manager Howard Chambers Retires

By Tammye McDuff

ong time Lakewood City Manager, Howard Chambers will be retiring from his post at the end of July 2017.

"I grew up in Lakewood, I've had a great career here, and I continue to love this community," said Chambers.

"But I'm ready at this point in my life to relax and uncouple a bit from the stresses and strains of government service."

Appointed as Lakewood's Chief Executive Officer in June 1976, Chambers is the longest serving City Manager for a single city in California.

At 72 years young, he has given 41 years of service in the top staff position for the city, "I had a two-week vacation recently that really drove home the point that it is time to hang up my hat, so to speak."

"I've been blessed," said Chambers, "Lakewood's city councils have governed our community with stability for many years.

They continually act in the best interest of the community and stay focused on what's most important."

Chambers adds that he is confident that his successor will be equally blessed, adding "I'll do everything in my power to assist in the recruitment and mentoring of a new city manager to make this a seamless transition."

With the foundation of being a wellrun city that is in good financial shape, Chambers does not anticipate any difficulty recruiting a replacement.

"Howard's impact on Lakewood over four decades has been enormous," said Mayor Diane DuBois, "He is one of Lakewood's original 'kids' who grew up here during the 1950's and the founding of Lakewood," said DuBois.

The Mayor also adds that it has been a comfort to the Council and residents to have Chambers as a bridge from the city's past, present and future.

"His experience all these years as a connection from the humble beginnings of Lakewood to has ensured that our city will continue to be a great place to call home."

One of Chambers best attributes has been putting together a strong team of city staff, including top managers and supervisors.

Even though Chambers is leaving, he has built a well trained team with strong ethics, fiscal responsibility and customer service.

The city council is currently interviewing candidates.

A dinner will be held July 31st to bid farewell to Chambers.

The event is opened to the public and for those interested in purchasing a ticket can contact city staff member Barbara Di Iorio at 562-866-9771, extension 2401, or RSVP@lakewoodcity.org or use the online order form at www.lakewoodcity.org/ howardretirement.

"After 41 years at the top, and a total of 50 years of full-time work, Howard definitely deserves some relaxing retirement years," said DuBois.

Stop the GOP faux health care bill it is tax cut for the wealthy.

My Husband and I have benefited from ACA with help for pay for health care. If this bill is pass we will not be able to pay for health care because of preexisting problems.

Dear Editor:

Senate Majority Leader Mitch Mc-Connell announced that last Thursday's scheduled vote on the awful GOP health care bill would be postponed until after Independence Day.

That is because the GOP doesn't have enough "yes" vote commitments from members of the party to bring this horrible bill to the Senate floor. The Senate plan is not a health care bill. It is a massive transfer of wealth from working people to Wall Street. Twentytwo million Americans would lose their insurance under the Senate bill. The Senate bill taxes working people's health benefits while cutting taxes for millionaires and insurance companies. That's just wrong. The Senate bill effectively destroys Medicaid-stripping health care from children, seniors and lowincome Americans. Health insurance is more than a policy, it's peace of mind. It's knowing your family will be cared for and not having to worry about going broke when you get sick. That's why I strongly oppose the Senate health care bill. The more I learn about it, the less I like. Robbing health care from millions of Americans to give yet another tax cut to the rich and powerful is just plain cruel. Our health care system needs to be improved-we all agree on that. But this bill would do exactly the opposite-for no other reason than greed. I urge Senator McConnell to vote no on the Senate health care bill. Please issue this letter on behalf of myself, union and labor federation. Furthermore, spread how devastating it would be to our society if this bill

Currently, all commercial cannabis is banned in the unincorporated areas of the county, and if it were up to me, I'd keep it that way until I felt confident that safeguards were in place to protect our communities."

It is crucial that the Board of Supervisors enacts responsible regulation and gather input from stakeholders, to ensure by creating a commercial market for marijuana does not lead to negative consequences. Thomas notes that, "We have a responsibility to serve all 10 million residents of the county, not just the voters who said yes to Proposition 64."

Proposition 64 proponents say it will generate tax revenue, business profit and jobs. It also claims that it will improve criminal justice by putting fewer people in jail for smoking a joint.

According to Market Watch the state of Colorado pulled in nearly $200 million in tax revenue last year from the $1.3 billion in marijuana revenue. Colorado legalized recreational marijuana in 2012, along with Washington State, and this was its third year of regulated sales.

Dear Editor:

Trumpcare Is A Hood Robin (Robs From The Poor To Give To The Rich)

This bill, currently in the Senate, takes vital healthcare money from those who need it most, and transfers it to the rich and big companies by lowering their tax at the same time as healthcare costs are terribly increased ! This is a many times over failed Republican policy called "trickle down". It's never worked before, and won't work this time either.

Roger Davis Whittier

juana doubled after the state legalized the drug. The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration has reported that Los Angeles County fatal crashes involving drivers who tested positive for marijuana began to go up after 1996, increased 360% from 2003 to 2004, maintained an upward trajectory until 2008 before decreasing in 2009, and steadily rose again by 60% from 2010 to 2014. The increases coincided with the passage of the Compassionate Use Act, which legalized medical marijuana.

"The significant increase in fatal crashes involving marijuana is alarming," said Peter Kissinger, President and CEO of the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety. "Washington serves as an eye-opening case study for what other states may experience with road safety after legalizing the drug."

Los Angeles County's Office of Cannabis Management is working closely with the Board of Supervisors, various departments and a broad array of stakeholders to develop comprehensive and reasonable ordinances and policies for both medical and recreational marijuana.

Thomas also commented, "One of the goals is to create an accountable and safe marketplace for the responsible use of marijuana rather than revel in overstated economic opportunity. Let's be clear that gangs and cartels operate outside regulation, and dismantling this illegal market operating within saturated communities will be daunting."

BELLFLOWER CANNABIS WORKSHOP JULY 26TH

By Tammye McDuff

The Bellflower City Council will hold their second scheduled Cannabis Workshop, July 26th. This meeting is a continued public workshop to consider various policy matters regarding cannabis operations.

California is a few months away from thousands of retailers acquiring a license to sell recreational marijuana to people ages 21 or older. Some have great concern about the impact the legalization will have on the safety of cities throughout Los Angeles County.

During the first scheduled workshop, city council directed staff to research the economic impact of conducting cannabis related business in Bellflower. As follow up the City has entered into an agreement with RSG group. Their community and economic development services provide social and fiscal information from economic development to project and program implementation. RSG is currently compiling a fiscal analysis using data received from the city, third party resources and will also include fiscal and economic studies prepared for other California cities for comparison.

SHOP AMAZON & HELP SHARE HOPE USA

Symond Boschetto receives the 2017 Spirit of Service Award.

By Tammye McDuff

Share Hope USA, the organization founded by 10 year old Symond Boschetto has just partnered with mega giant Amazon as part of their Amazon Smile give back program.

AmazonSmile is a simple and automatic way for you to support your favorite charitable organization every time you shop. When you shop at smile.amazon. com, you'll find the same low prices, selection and convenient shopping experience as Amazon.com, with the added bonus that Amazon will donate a portion of your purchase price to a favorite charitable organization of your choice. The Amazon Smile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price.

At the tender age of eight years old, Boschetto could not comprehend why someone should be homeless and hungry. So he decided to do something about it. As the founder of Share Hope USA, a non-profit organization, he tends to the needs of others by organizing outreach events to feed the homeless, cut their hair, and help the homeless with medical needs.

Share Hope USA is a recent awardee of the 2017 Spirit of Service Award. As Boschetto accepted his award, with a true and humble spirit he said," I accept this in honor of all the volunteers. You are the real inspiration; you are the real hero's. Thank you for taking the time to assist one kid to be able to feed over 6000 homeless and counting."

Based in Downey, California the sky is the limit for this young man and the organization he founded. Please support Share Hope USA through our partnership with Amazon Smiles. Photo courtesy of Share Hope USA.

NEW PUBLIC ART IN DOWNEY AT FIRESTONE & PARAMOUNT

'CRIMINAL MARKS'

By Tammye McDuff

My husband and I live in a modest three bedroom house with a six foot cinder block wall, front gate; the house sits on the back portion of the property.

Saturday afternoon, July 1st, I found an odd white 'X' on the walkway between the front gate and the front door. I called to my husband he said to remove it immediately. It had not been chalked onto the walkway; we believe it was made with a rock or small stone.

We contacted the local Sheriff's department to report the incident. Because there was nothing taken and no break in, the Special Investigator took note of our address, should anything occur in the future. We alerted our Neighborhood Watch and the Bellflower Watch organizations with the information and we have taken further action to protect our home.

While the 4th of July for most people, means gathering with friends, family and fireworks, for criminals it means something entirely different: the opportunity to cash in on homes. Last year, at this time, overall crime rose 6.3% across the county compared with the same period in 2015. Property crime was up 3.8% and violent offenses climbed by 15.9%.

Your home is particularly vulnerable to a break-in during a holiday and vacation time. Burglars

Vulnerable watch for female vacancy signs: accumulating = Too risky stacks of mail, piles of newspa-Nothing pers, and steadyworth burning or stealing always-off entry lights. You can ealth monitor your home remotely with network cameras. Pet-Immune Motion Detectors uses digital technology to prevent false alarms, as it ignores anything weighing less than 60 pounds and it can be integrated with an existing security system, or operate independently to alert you of any unwanted visitors.

There are numerous interactive phone apps that are some of the most versatile home security applications on the market.

For a one-time fee, you can download an app that lets you view live and archived video of your home, turn lights on and off, and control home security systems. There is a shatter resistant window film that you can apply; cross bar police locks, full service home security systems and motion sensor lighting.

New public art will be installed at the intersection of Firestone and Paramount boulevards.

The Downey City Council approved the art that will be installed on a block wall on the southwest side of Firestone.

"The centerpiece of the public art element of the design is a specialty metal fabric which is etched to create the artistic motif," assistant city manager John Oskoui wrote in a staff report. "The art piece would also incorporate LED light fittings, resulting in a lighting effect which provides for a stunning night time experience.

"The art motif also provides pleasant visuals during the daytime," Oskoui added. Drought tolerant landscaping will frame the art, and there will also be a garden between the block wall and sidewalk.

Total cost of the art piece and garden is estimated at $170,000; of that total, $70,000 will be paid from Downey's Art in Public Places Fund.

Residents Urged to Take Precautions as More WNV Activity is Detected

West Nile found in La Mirada, Artesia, and Whittier.

The Greater Los Angeles County Vector Control District (GLACVCD) received confirmation of West Nile virus (WNV) in four additional mosquito samples and two dead birds collected in multiple jurisdictions in Whittier (90603), La Mirada (90638), Artesia (90701), Winnetka (91306), West Hills (91307), and Toluca Lake (91602).

Residents planning to spend time outdoors are reminded of the importance of taking precautions against mosquito bites while doing so throughout Los Angeles County.

Infection with WNV is often mild, but the virus can cause significant cognitive and neurologic symptoms in some patients. Milder fever and body aches can progress to weakness, confusion, & paralysis which can take months to years of recovery. "It's not worth the risk," said Kelly Middleton, Director of Community Affairs at GLACVCD. "We talk to people every year who tell us about their experiences with WNV. Even in milder cases, recovery can be quite difficult." Preventing mosquito bites is key.

GLACVCD recommends residents:

• Wear loose-fitting long sleeves and long pants to reduce mosquito bites. Light colors and tighter weave fabrics are best.

· Apply mosquito repellents to exposed skin before going outdoors. Clothing can also be treated with some products to prevent bites (read and follow all labels).

• Take your repellent with you and reapply as recommended on the label. How long a repellent works depends on the active ingredient and the concentration you select.

• The Centers for Disease Control recommend products with the active ingredients DEET, Picaridin, IR3535, some oil of lemon eucalyptus and para-menthane-diol products as being safe and effective.

• Use infant seat/stroller screen covers on babies younger than 2 months, and only EPA registered repellents on older children. Oil of lemon eucalyptus should not be used on children younger than 3 years of age. Around the home, eliminating mosquitoes from properties is critical:

• Any water left standing for more than one week in containers such as flower pots, fountains and pet dishes provides the perfect breeding habitat for mosquitoes.

• Check water collected in rain barrels and buckets as these can breed hundreds of mosquitoes every week. If larvae are detected, dump the water onto lawns where the immature mosquitoes will die (do not pour into gutters or streets), and discard or seal these containers against future mosquito problems.

• Ensure swimming pools, spas, and ponds are properly maintained. Report inoperable pools to the GLACVCD at ReportMosquitoes.org or by calling 562-944-9656.

There is no cure for WNV. One in five persons infected with the virus will exhibit symptoms. Symptoms can include fever, headache, body aches, nausea, or a skin rash. These symptoms can last for several days to months. One in 150 people infected with the virus will require hospitalization. Severe symptoms include high fever, muscle weakness, neck stiffness, coma, paralysis, and possibly death.

Goodwill's new concept store – Edgar & James, A Curated Collection By Goodwill – is opening its doors in Bixby Knolls July 14.

Edgar & James, A Curated Collection By Goodwill – is opening in Bixby Knolls next week. The new store will be revealed at a grand opening ceremony taking place at 8:30 am on Friday, July 14 at the store's entrance located at 4121 Atlantic Boulevard in Long Beach.

The specialty store will offer urban, industrial and farmhouse chic all in one amazing store. To showcase its distinct retail concept, the Edgar & James storehouse and logo are branded differently than existing stores of Goodwill, Serving the People of Southern Los Angeles County (SOLAC). Edgar & James' store design will have an on-trend industrial and urban appeal. The Edgar & James logo is an elegantly designed mix of fonts that are followed by the phrase, "A Curated Collection By Goodwill." (See attached store photos.)

An Edgar & James branded donation center will be stationed adjacent to the store. The new store and donation center will be based in the same building space that was previously occupied by a Trader Joe's store, which relocated to a nearby shopping center last year.

Bixby Knolls will serve as the second site where an Edgar & James store operates. In March 2016, Goodwill SOLAC opened its very first Edgar & James store in Redondo Beach, which has been well received by local residents, community leaders and the media. The new Edgar & James site in Bixby Knolls has already generated widespread support among the local civic community.

To give local residents an idea of the store's offerings, Goodwill SOLAC will staff an Edgar & James booth in front of the store at the next First Fridays Long Beach event held from 6:30 pm to 9:30 pm this Friday, July 7.

Goodwill SOLAC is a nonprofit organization that transforms donated goods into job training, education and placement services for individuals with barriers to employment, visit www.ThinkGood.org.

ARTESIA PUNISHERS PRESIDENT, MANAGER LOOK BACK ON PROGRAM'S LONE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

By Loren Kopff @LorenKopff on Twitter

It has been a decade since the Artesia Punishers 18-Under travel softball team won the USA/Amateur Softball Association 18-Under 'A' National ChampionFL with a 16-1 record. That team would have eight players that stayed with the team for the 2007 season. But no one could see what was in store for the Punishers 10 years ago.

In five games played in the 2007 state tournament, the Punishers posted move forward'. Everyone just blocked the bugs out of their mind until after the game."

"I think my utmost memory is the game we had to play at 12:30 a.m.," said right fielder Lindsey Marquez. "I remember Bob putting us on room lockdown [in home the tying and winning runs. The Punishers had leads of 3-0 and 4-2 before the Breeze scored three runs in the bottom of the sixth.

"That was a game where, and if you remember back then, the girls could come back from college and play," Me-ship, the only one in the program's history. But the memories are still very vivid to the players, coaches and manager Bob Medina, who also serves as the president of the Punishers program.

On Aug. 5, 2007, in front of a huge crowd at the Texas A & M Aggie Softball Complex, the Punishers rallied for two runs in the top of the seventh inning and edged the (Sacramento) California Breeze 6-5. The win capped an unbelievable summer that saw the Punishers lose just one game in five major tournaments.

"It seems like it's been a long time," Medina said. "I remember every moment of everything that was happening when [we] were there. I relive it.

"I would say me, my coaches, people who I have seen talk about it probably, if it doesn't come up once every month, it comes up at least once every four months. So, it comes up quite often, that we go back and talk about the kids' performance, their focus, their vision. Just the karma that was around them...you knew that they were going to win." In fact, it was one of the parents, who kept stats, that told Medina on the bus ride home that the team had lost only one game that summer. That would come in a pool play game on Tuesday, July 31, a 4-2 setback to the (Concord, N.C.) Carolina Cobras. The writing was already on the wall the previous summer as one could see that the Punishers were building a dominant team that could win the highest title any travel ball team could win. In 2006, the Punishers won the State Tournament for the first time ever, held in front of its home crowd at Artesia Park, and entered the United States Specialty Sports Association Elite World Series in Kissimmee, three shutouts and allowed four runs. In four playoff games of the Summer Slam Tournament, the Punishers outscored their opponents 31-3 and in the Onslaught Tournament, they scored 29 runs and allowed only four.

"The team played for each other," Medina remembered. "They had the karma, the swagger; they knew that they could win. They knew it. Maybe it wasn't the greatest team, but we got everything done and everybody believed in what we were there for."

Through the help of one of Medina's friends, the team made the long trek to College Station, TX on a bus and left Artesia in the early afternoon hours on July 27 and arrived in the Lone Star state the next day. After playing a pool game each on July 30 and 31, the Punishers met the (San Juan Capistrano) Desperados in the first game of the double elimination por-the afternoon] to just rest for that game. It was such an experience, with lots of bugs, but a game I will never forget."

The win over the Buckaroos was the first against three state champions and following a relatively easy 7-1 win over the (San Diego) Breakers on Aug. 3, the Punishers were put to the test for the first time in the tournament when they faced the (Joplin) Missouri Firestix. The Punishers had a 2-0 lead after half an inning and were looking good when the lead expanded to 4-0 heading into the bottom of the fifth. But the Firestix rallied and sent the game to extra innings where the Punishers came away with a 10-5 win in nine innings. Designated player Sam Vaaulu went three for five in the contest.

That would be the first of three games on Aug. 4 with the next one being a 6-0 win over the (Birmingham) Alabama Pride, another state champion. In the semifinals against the Miami Stingrays, the Punishers had to rally for two runs in the top of the fifth to edge the Florida state champions 3-2. Pitcher Maritza Rocha, who was completely brilliant in Texas, allowed four hits, struck out nine and retired 13 straight batters in one stretch. The game is one that easily stands out for Medina of the 10 the Punishers played in the tournament. "I can remember," he said. "It was the [Miami] Stingrays and we beat them 3-2. One run that we got, I remember the shortstop got an error and we ran Katie Jordan from second [base] into home and the ball only went three feet away from her. They were probably one of the best teams there that we faced, other than the team we faced in the championship."

dina said. "So, if they were a freshman in college and as long as they were age eligible, they could come back and play. [The California Breeze] had 10 or 11 Pac-12 All-Americans. The coach called me and congratulated me after that and told me, 'you guys did play against good, solid players who were on Pac-12 teams'."

The 2007 team had everything-hitting, pitching and defense. Rocha threw 45.1 innings, allowed 33 hits and struck out 62 batters while Frazier batted .469, followed by center fielder Katie Jordan (.378) and third baseman Jodi Nakawatase (.351). Eight players were playing in the final game as a Punisher and of those, six were returning from the 2006 team.

"The offensive end of it was solid," Medina said. "They believed in each other. If one didn't do it, then the other tion and for the fourth time that summer, came away as the victors in a 6-1 decision.

That was followed by two straight shutouts on Aug. 2, the first being an uncontested 8-0 win against the Lake County (IL) Liberty in the morning, then a hard fought 2-0 win over the Fort Collins (CO) Buckaroos in a game that started at 11:57 p.m. The game was delayed nearly 30 minutes because a brief thunderstorm had rolled through the Brazos Valley earlier that afternoon.

"I remember the one biggest thing of that game was the girls came up to me and said, 'Coach Bobby, there are about a million bugs [around]'," Medina said. "And there were a million bugs. You look up in the light and there were a million, if not, then two million. I told the girls, 'look, we have to play. Everybody else is playing. Get over it and let's just

The back and forth battle against the Breeze wasn't decided until shortstop Jennifer Frazier hit a single to bring one would back her up. They played for each other; it was really nice. It's been a while since I've had a team like that. So, that's why the memories keep coming up. You try to achieve that same goal with these same kids nowadays and it's pretty tough.

"That was the family atmosphere that we created and we still try to create it today," Medina later said. "But they earned their right to be on that team. They earned their right for a national championship, they earned their right to play for the top team of the organization. And when it was their turn, they really accomplished that goal."

"I think that this team had an amazing bond," Marquez said. "We were a huge family and a good amount of us grew up with the Punishers. So, we had this dedication to the Punishers and pride, and we definitely had a great group of talent. Jenn, Alyssa (Morales), Jodi were some amazing athletes and I had always looked up to them. And to play with them at their level was just unbelievable. But every player brought something to the team we truly were such a strong lineup offensively and when we were on our game, we were unstoppable."

Marquez said that playing for the Punishers taught her dedication, pride, hard work, teamwork and consistency, among other things. It also had a huge impact on her collegiate playing days at Utah State University because she had already played with several girls who had one year of college already behind them when the 2007 season began.

Since the Punishers won that National Championship, a lot has changed for the program as well as the world of travel ball. The most significant change has been the emergence of the Premier Girls Fastpitch (PGF), an organization that has successfully seen many of the previous ASA powerhouse programs across the country join their organization. The PGF was formed in 2010, the last year Medina took an 18-Under team to the ASA Nationals, held in Hemet. And unlike going to various cities every year for Nationals, the PGF has held its National Championship tournament in Southern California at the Fountain Valley Sports Park, the Huntington Beach Sports Complex and Bill Barber Park in Irvine.

Another major change between the ASA and PGF is that no players who are already in college can play for a PGF team. Another organization, the American Fastpitch Association (AFA) is one where teams can play of a national title. In fact, the AFA Nationals will take place from July 24-30 in Fontana and five teams from the Punishers family will be a part of it.

"I think that's why we're getting [softball in] the Olympics back," Medina said. "But in 10 years, what I've seen is a lot of changes. There's a team that pops up every day. If two people are good on a team, they can start a new team. There are so many teams here and lot of the them are very competitive. They have some good coaches out there and they have a lot of energy.

"But what I've also seen in the softball community is once the kid graduates, they're done," he continued. "It's like we have a revolving door for the kids and we have a revolving door for the coaches. It's changing quite a bit."

Medina has already participated in several PGF National Championships and while he hasn't won one yet, his focus for most of the past decade has been getting scholarships for his players. But what about willing a second national championship? Medina will have another crack at it on July 22 when pool play action begins in the PGF National Championship with the title game to be played on July 28.

"Do I ever wish that I could have it," Medina questioned. "Yes, I really do. Do I think sometimes that I have the talent that is that good? Yes, I do. I believe we can get that. I've been focusing a lot on getting scholarships. But even on that, you have kids that come in, get the scholarships and then they'll leave and stuff like that. That takes a too too."

to be $400 per month, for each Councilperson and where the $1 million franchise fee paid by Cerritos' trash hauler was going.

After public comment was closed, discussion was opened for the City Council with Councilman Naresh Solanki immediately asking about the City paying for crossing guards for ABCUSD schools.

"That came out of nowhere," said one high-ranking City official.

Solanki stated, "we want to make sure the kids and parents are safe but I'm sure the school board has more of a budget then we do would it be possible to ask them to pay for it?"

City Manager Art Gallucci indicated that it would just take sending a letter to the school district to open a dialogue.

Mayor pro tem Mark Pulido said, "I'm not interested in that I am more interested in the city fully funding the crossing guards. How long have we been funding the crossing guards?"

Gallucci said, "since the beginning of the city."

Solanki subsequently insisted that City Council write a letter to the ABC about the crossing guards.

Councilman Edward's said, "If this will just open a dialogue with them then I agree with it."

The motion was made by Solanki and seconded by Edwards.

The vote was 3 to 2 in favor to send a letter to ABC with Solanki, Edwards, and Mayor Hu, who hesitated for a second during roll-call, voting yes. HMG-CN has learned that the letter was sent by Gallucci asking for ABC to share 50% of the crossing guard costs.

HMG-CN was also told the budget for 26 crossing guards is nearly $327,000.

Part of the package will include the funding from the state under the Safe Routes to School program.

California was the first state in the country to legislate a Safe Routes to School program with the enactment of AB 1475 in 1999.

Eight years later, in 2007, AB 57 extended the program indefinitely with funding provided from the State Highway Account.

According to the letter Gallucci was going to send the amount from SRTS at a later time so an equal amount for ABC and the City could be formulated.

The Council then tackled the City's massive tree trimming budget.

According to staff there is 15,400 trees in Cerritos, including median and commercial areas.

At their current contracted rate, each tree costs $100 each to trim for a total cost of $1,540,000.

The current budget was set at $450,000, so the budget would have to be increased by approximately $1,090,000 to complete the trimming.

Staff also indicated that the current contractor might be able to handle the increased load.

Mayor pro tem Pulido asked that the budget be increased by $500,000; his motion was seconded by Councilman Yokoyama.

With this increase all trees would be trimmed by the end of the fiscal year, and the trees will be back on a four-year healthy trimming schedule.

It is a violation of the Political Reform

Act for an independent expenditure committee such as RBLM to spend money "at the behest" of any candidate, violations of the Act carry heavy monetary penalties.

And now, the new evidence obtained by HMG-CN could bolster an already strong FPPC case against Sarega, which could result in additional fines over and

And it will put the Imbre family squarely in the sights of FPPC investigators.

There is no question that RBLM was operated by the Imbre's: the HMG-CN series found that RBLM listed its address on the 12800 block of Oakwood Lane in La Mirada, and its treasurer as Ionel Imbre; a search of public records show that Imbre owned the house; and Imbre's phone number was the contact number for RBLM listed on the Secretary of State's website.

The HMG-CN investigation also found that a man with a similar Eastern European name as Sarega – the yet to be located Stelian Onufrie - donated the $6,500 to RBLM; that money was used to send out mailers in support of Sarega and Aiello's campaigns.

Onufrie owns a small construction company called Diamond Construction based out of La Habra and listed a P.O. box located inside a UPS store as his business address when he donated the $6,500 to RBLM.

Such a listing is a common method of concealing a company from scrutiny during elections.

Although the connections were strong and warranted a FPPC investigation, no additional connections, other than the direct mail flyers from Texas, could be made between RBLM and Sarega and Aiello.

That is until HMG-CN acquired documentation from the La Mirada City Clerk's office indicating a long-term relationship between Sarega and the Imbre's, one that probably dictated how RBLM's money was spent.

Sarega first ran for Council in 2013, filing his nomination papers in December 2012.

His controversial father, who himself has a questionable past, and who is seen at every council meeting condemning council members at public comment, with the exception of his son, circulated the petition between Nov. 15 and Dec. 6, 2012.

The petition was signed by 27 La Mirada residents.

The first four signatures were Sarega family members who apparently all reside at the same address on San Bruno.

The next two, on lines five and six of the petition, were RBLM treasurer Ionel Imbre and his wife Adriana Imbre with the address on Oakwood Lane, the same address as RBLM.

The last signature on the petition was the daughter of Ionel and Adriana, Marinela Imbre, who resided at the same address on Oakwood.

Social media screenshots from Facebook show that Sarega, Aiello, and the Imbre's know each other, communicating through both Sarega's personal and La Mirada City Council Facebook page.

A La Mirada resident who did not want to be identified for fear of retribution by the Sarega's told the Lamplighter, "very smelly, Sarega and Imbre's friendship goes way back, Imbre is treasurer of Residents for a Better La Mirada, all their campaign literature is printed and mailed under the same permit from the same place in Texas. If it is not coordination it sure is an incredible coincidence." Emails into Sarega for comment went unanswered.

An Open Letter to Norwalk Residents:

We at NASA Services, a family owned, family operated small business, have continued to provide quality service to many communities since 1986. Our philosophy has always been to provide reasonable rates for unmatched performance and service. We have always treated our employees fairly, and our communities recognize our belief that humility is a true path to success.

Although our policy has long been to turn the other cheek at the profligacy of others against our reputation, we must address certain malicious allegations of recent weeks. Monies used for those inaccuracies could have been more useful in philanthropic ventures. The false statements are better meant for the trashcan.

We admonish the slanderous nature of what has been said of current and former elected officials. A reputation is very much at mercy of the orator and only requires a mention without proof, or a mere suggestion that damages a person's reputation. The character, however, of the persons who have been mentioned in an attempt to stifle our potential business, in our opinion is above the imagination of accusers and undeserving of such imputation. We regret that these individuals may see fit to refute legally what has been wrongfully insinuated, and we condemn the tarnishing a person's reputation for monetary gain.

The Sarkisian Family, who own and operate NASA Services, Inc., has been recognized by the County of Los Angeles, California State Senate, California State Assembly, several municipalities, and members of Congress for their philanthropy and financial support to charitable organizations throughout Los Angeles County.

We are humbled for the support and recognition offered by communities we serve. We also resolve that our business dealings have always been fair and worthy of consideration, which is why we have met our goals in growing our business. We will continue to work very hard to provide the communities we serve with the best quality services. We look forward to the opportunity to be considered and fairly evaluated as we compete to become Norwalk's next trash hauler.

Sincerely,

NASA Services Inc. www.nasaservices.com
