EXCLUSIVE: Civilian Grand Jury Investigating Metro Execs and Board of Directors' Actions

Metro CEO, L.A. County and City Elected Officials and Supervisors are implicated in the complaint.

BY BRIAN HEWS

Hews Media Group-Cerritos News has received a redacted complaint dated June 26, 2020 by a whistleblower accusing Los Angeles County elected officials, L.A. City elected officials, LA Metro Board Members and Executive Leadership of fraud, waste, abuse, and corruption.

The person or persons who filled out the complaint form received a letter two months later in August from a representative of Los Angeles County's Civil Grand Jury acknowledging the receipt of the complaint and stating a grand jury will investigate the claims.

In February of this year HMG-CN first reported that the L.A. D.A.'s Office of Integrity was investigating Metro CEO Phil Washington and search warrants were served on the Los Angeles offices of Metro and Peace Over Violence.

The wide-ranging investigation also included a who's who of high profile government officials in Los Angeles.

Both the D.A.'s office and Metro's Communication Department did not deny the existence of an August email from Alan Yochelson, head of the D.A.'s Office of Public Integrity.

The next day, HMG-CN

Supreme Court Upholds Obamacare for 3rd Time, Preserving Coverage for Millions

Alito and Trump appointee Gorsuch dissent, while Kavanaugh and Barrett join the majority.

BY BRIAN HEWS

For the third time, SCOTUS has dismissed a challenge to the Obama era health care law, preserving insurance coverage for millions of Americans.

The justices, by a 7-2 vote, left the entire law intact yesterday.

They rightly ruled that Texas and other Republican-led states had no right to bring their lawsuit in federal court.

The law's major provisions include protections for people with pre-existing health conditions, a range of no-cost preventive services and the expansion of the Medicaid program that insures lower-income people, including those who work in jobs that don't pay much or provide health insurance.

Also left in place is the law's requirement that people have health insurance or pay a penalty.

Filipino Attacked at Knabe Community Regional Park

BY BRIAN HEWS

70-year-old retired Filipino health worker and Cerritos resident Cesar Echano and his wife were about to enjoy their weekly Saturday morning walk in Don Knabe Community Regional Park, when something all too familiar occurred.

As they emerged from their car, the two were verbally-assaulted by a man in his 20s who yelled at them to "go back to their country."

"I don't know why but he confronted us," Echano said. "He was laughing and asking me what he was looking at. I kept my head down and walked away. Then he started yelling a lot of profanity."

Fearing that he may be armed, the couple returned back to their car while the abuser continued with his profanity. As he got into his car, the assailant yanked open the door where Echano was sitting and began beating him.

"I just saw fists," he said. "It happened so quickly. I tried reaching for my phone to take a picture of him, but I couldn't get to it."

The suspect fled, and the wife drove off.

A few blocks away, the couple called the Sheriff's department did not want to be identified, "it really helps me and my family, giving out food and other items every month to people like us."

The Food Bank also provides healthy snacks and fresh fruit to several after school programs such as the Migrant Program and the Red Cross Club, while also holding a "Toys and Turkey's" event for the holidays.

Knowing that low income families need other items, the Food Bank partners with Macy's and other stores to obtain clothing and essential items to distribute.

"To not have to spend money on clothing every month is a real help," said the resident, "I can use the money elsewhere, like for my rent."

In addition, the Food Bank, in collaboration with the ABC School District, holds citizenship classes for community members who are seeking U.S. Citizenship.

The program was first proposed by current ABCUSD Trustee Chris Apodaca, who represents Hawaiian Gardens, with the classes conducted at the ABC Adult School in Cerritos.

Management even partnered with the American Red Cross to distribute smoke alarms to the community.

Running the Food Bank is Manager Leticia Macias and Purchasing Agent Melisa Halloran, they are the face of the Food Bank and provide crucial experience in operating the organization.

Macias told HMG, "Funding for the Hawaiian Gardens Food should fall, too.

And with Trump's crony SCOTUS majority, opponents of Obamacare hoped they would finally kill off the law.

But the third time was not the charm, with a majority of the court rebuffing the effort.

Trump's three illegitimate appointees to the Supreme Court - Justices Amy Coney Barrett, Neil Gorsuch and Brett Kavanaugh - split their votes... and Moscow Mitch was angry.

Beer-boy Kavanaugh and Stepford Wife Amy Barrett joined the majority. Gorsuch was in dissent, signing on to an opinion from Justice Samuel Alito.

Justice Stephen Breyer wrote for the court that the states and people who filed a federal lawsuit "have failed to show that they have standing to attack as unconstitutional the Act's minimum essential coverage provision."

In dissent, Alito wrote, "Today's decision is the third installment in our epic Affordable Care Act trilogy, and it follows the same pattern as installments one and two. In all three episodes, with the Affordable Care Act facing a serious threat, the Court has pulled off an improbable rescue." Alito was a dissenter in the two earlier cases, as well.

Somewhere deceased former Arizona Sen. John McCain is smiling.

The court's decision preserves benefits that became part of the fabric of the nation's health care system even as Republicans repeatedly tried to rip out Obamacare - in McConnell's words - "root and branch."

The health law is now undergoing an expansion under President Joe Biden, who sees it as the foundation for moving the U.S. to coverage for all. His giant COVID-19 relief bill significantly increased subsidies for private health plans offered through the ACA's insurance markets, while also dangling higher federal payments before the dozen states that have declined the law's Medicaid expansion. About 1 million people have signed up with HealthCare.gov since Biden reopened enrollment amid high levels of COVID cases earlier this year.

The administration says an estimated 31 million people are covered because of the law, most through its combination of Medicaid expansion and marketplace plans. But its most popular benefit is protection for people with pre-existing medical conditions. They cannot be turned down for coverage on account of health problems, or charged a higher premium. While those covered under employer plans already had such protections, "Obamacare" guaranteed them for people buying individual policies.

Another hugely popular benefit allowed young adults to remain on their parents' insurance until they turn 26.

For Medicare recipients, "Obamacare" also improved preventive care, and more importantly, closed a prescription drug coverage gap of several thousand dollars that was known as the "doughnut hole."

Whitney Student Wins Rep. Linda Sanchez' Art Contest

CONGRESSWOMAN Linda T. Sánchez recognized five ABCUSD high school students for their artwork through her annual Congressional Art Competition. The annual competition recognizes student artists from across the 38th Congressional District. Whitney High School student Madison Plotkin took home first place for her mixed media artwork called "Fish Food." She will receive a $500 scholarship, and her artwork will be displayed in the Capitol Building for one year.

Sheila Kuehl, Hilda Solis, Kathryn Barger, former Supervisor Mark Ridley Thomas, L.A. Mayor Eric Garcetti, L.A. City Councilman Gil Cedillo, Inglewood Mayor James Butts, and former DA Jackie Lacey.

Those at Metro include other high ranking officials that reported to Washington.

The explosive allegations include bribery, conspiracy, pay to play, fraud, and waste on the part of LA Metro CEO Philip Washington, Metro Board, LA County Council Mary Wickham and the district attorney Jackie Lacey.

The letter from the grand jury representative stated, "Your letter to the Los Angeles County Civil Grand Jury has been received. The grand jury's review of the issues raised in your letter may or may not result in an investigation."

The whistleblower alleges that they complained to former L.A. District Attorney Jackie Lacey who ignored the complaint and the whistleblower's "21,000 pages of evidence."

The Civil Grand Jury consists of 23 members and a designated number of alternates. Each July these citizens are sworn in as grand jurors for a 12-month period ending June of the following year.

The responsibilities of the Civil Grand Jury include the examination of all aspects of county government, all municipalities, and special districts, to ensure that the County is being governed honestly and efficiently and that county monies are being handled appropriately. The Civil Grand Jury is further charged with investigating individual complaints from citizens.

The jury's findings could be coming soon, "No later than the end of its term (July 2021) the Grand Jury is required by law to submit a final report of its findings and recommendation to the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court."

UFO Believer Gathering in South Gate

BY TAMMYE McDUFF

This past Sunday, HMG attended a very interesting event, one that they have never been invited to before, ever.

Enthusiasts from all around the Southland gathered at Hollydale Park in South Gate to summon unidentified aerial phenomenon. That's correct; approximately 40 sky watchers loaded with cameras, computers and video equipment joined LA UFO to summon an experience.

Hollydale Park was specifically chosen because it is directly in the flight path of LAX, which helps with the perspective of what you may, or may not be seeing.

Hans Boyson is the founder of LA UFO Channel, formerly known as Astro-Paparazzi. Some photos are his personal photos, others have been shared by the Pentagon and 'personal sources' that Boyson would rather not expose. He has been watching the skies in Southern California for years. Dedicated to real UFO sightings, LA UFO Channel has evolved into showing the most common UFOs in our skies as they happen, exploring quantum communication with UFOs and capturing the event on video.

Boyson is no 'fly by night' observer; he has numerous photo albums with pictures of things that just don't make sense. He was also trained in UFO Summoning by Robert Bingham.

The New York Times reported that Bingham has 'seen things'. When he was 39, he looked skyward and noticed a worm-shaped ship about 20 feet tall zipping through the clouds. Unusual things kept occurring around him. He has seen a saucer and flying objects shaped like beans, so he snapped a picture. For over ten years, Bingham kept his sightings to himself. That changed in 2010, when his neighbor came over to do some plumbing work. Mr. Bingham showed him his photos. The neighbor asked if he could invite his brother, who was very interested in unidentified flying objects, or UFO's.

Both Bingham and Boyson are distinguished looking gentleman in their early 60's with a lifetime of experience in the community of UFO hunters in Los Angeles. He joins fervent believers who come together to share their stories and persuade skeptics that extraterrestrial communications aren't just a conceit for television shows.

Whether or not you believe in the existence of extra terrestrials and their visitation and interaction with we mere mortals here on Earth, HMG did witness something. As we stood about chatting a very faint white blinking dot was spotted in broad daylight on that Sunday afternoon. Then another one was spotted and a third. All we can say is that it was not a plane, and it was far too high to have been a balloon. We will have to wait until LA UFO releases their footage to know for certain.

The Sheriff and paramedics came, Echano said. The EMT treated him at the scene. Along with the Sheriff's deputy, they went back to the park to identify and apprehend the suspect.

Echano was admitted to the hospital for a day and is now recovering from his injuries from the attack.

A few days after the attack, throbbing pain still lingers, and he's afraid to go outside.

Pot on Fire in Cerritos - A Single Pot Experience

BY TAMMYE MCDUFF

Pot on Fire, located at Lincoln Station in Cerritos, serves flavorful dishes in a single-pot experience. The hot pot is less of a dish than it is an experience.

Owner Kevin Hsu and his family came to America when he was just a baby. The first city his family moved to was Cerritos, "I grew up here, and it has always been my wish to come back home. That is why our second restaurant was opened in the city of Cerritos this past October; he opened his first eatery in Chino. Opening during a pandemic created a challenge, but we were able to maintain a to-go environment." The restaurant officially re-opened their doors Wednesday, June 16, 2021.

"Pot on Fire is a diversified culture experience," stated Hsu, "it combines Japanese seafood, Korean hot pot and Taiwanese spices all together to create a truly unique flavor. We try to bring the most authentic food to America in order to experience true Asian culture." The restaurant has received such a huge following that there are two more restaurants being negotiated in the cities of Arcadia and Brea.

Each spice and sauce is imported from Asian countries, for authenticity. With a variety of spices and fresh vegetables in their original soup base recipe, the broth is flavorful, and can be ordered spicy, mild or less than mild, sure to satisfy every customer's taste buds.

The meats range from beef, pork, or lamb which is cooked within seconds of touching the simmering broth; fans call it 'one of the best hot-pots in California'. Each dish is served piping hot atop its' own hot pot [with flame]. Any dish can be custom tailored to a vegetarian or vegan recipe; they even offer a special 'mac and cheese' version for kids.

The pandemic did stall the import of several sauces and ingredients, however Hsu announced that their full menu would be available, beginning the last week of June. Hsu also proudly announced the addition of Asian beers and alcoholic beverages being introduced this summer.

CIF-SS DIV. 3 SOFTBALL SEMIFINALS

Cerritos Wastes Numerous Opportunities to Keep Season Going, Falls Late to Sultana

BY LOREN KOPFF
@LORENKOPFF ON TWITTER

The prospects of the Cerritos High softball team playing in the program's fifth CIF-Southern Section divisional championship game was looking better and better throughout last Thursday's semifinal contest against Sultana High. The Lady Dons, ranked eighth in Division 3, had runners on base in every inning and had the winning run on base in the bottom of the seventh inning.

But when Cerritos needed to get that timely hit, it never came and the 605 League champions who had entered the game on a 19-game winning streak, fell to the unranked Sultans 4-3. Cerritos lost for just the second time in 24 games this season and the first time since a 7-6 setback to St. Joseph High on Apr. 13. Cerritos stranded 11 runners on base and had a runner on third base in the bottom of the second and fifth innings, the latter with less than two outs.

"The other day [against Whittier Christian High], we didn't leave anybody on base," said Cerritos first-year head coach Todd Denhart. "We got the hit when we needed it. Today, they made a couple more plays than we did, and in the semifinals of the playoffs, that's the way it goes."

The Lady Dons, who had not been to the semifinals since 2000, but had gone to the quarterfinals in 2004, 2015 and 2017, won Division II titles in 1999 and 2000. Cerritos had also lost the 1996 Division IV championship game to Centennial High of Corona and the 1998 Division II championship game to Quartz Hill High. And, since 2009, Cerritos had been bounced out in the first round seven times. In contrast, this will be the first time in school history that a Sultana softball team will be playing for a divisional championship.

Through the first three innings, it was a battle between junior pitcher Erin Gibbs, who had faced one above the minimum without allowing a hit and her counterpart, Zada Day-Adams, who got out of three consecutive sticky situations as the Lady Dons stranded a pair of runners in each of those frames.

"I didn't know anything about them, but [Gibbs] is a great pitcher", said Sultana head coach Obie Galindo. "I give her all the props. Actually, this was the first left-hander we've seen all year. She's got something there. Good luck to her wherever she goes.

"My pitcher has been pitching light's out this year," he continued. "She's had one bad game, but it wasn't even [her fault]. We made a couple of errors and didn't back her up and we ended up losing that game."

But the Sultans got to Gibbs in the top of the fourth inning, loading the bases with one out before a single from Madelyn Torrenueva plated Hailey Elgan. Following a strikeout of Kamille Badibanga, a two-run single to left center from Kaiden Kerns made it 3-0.

Cerritos would respond in its half of the inning when senior designated player Leiloni Pina doubled to the right field gap, advanced on a wild pitch and came home on a one-out single from senior left fielder Azalea Herrera.

"The kid is a professional hitter; she hits and that's why she's in the lineup," Denhart said of Pina. "She goes in there with the right attitude, she's got the right mindset and nine times out of 10, you're going to get a good at-bat."

In the next inning, sophomore right fielder Camille Lara, junior second baseman Katelyn Caneda, senior first baseman Samiya Jones and Gibbs all had singles on a combined seven pitches thrown by Day-Adams. A sacrifice from senior center fielder Lauren Lejano advanced freshmen courtesy runners Natalie Gardea and Presley Hendrix. But a pop-up and a fly-out ended further damage.

Sultana, which entered the game on an eight-game winning streak and had two losses all season, both coming to Oak Hills High in Mojave River League games, scored the game-winner with two outs in the top of the seventh inning. Gibbs walked Ella Niles, who would steal second on the first pitch thrown to Kelsey Kerns. Two pitches later, Kerns hit a sharp single that deflected off Gibbs, allowing Niles to come home.

In the bottom of the seventh inning, with two outs, Day-Adams walked Lejano and Pina but got junior third baseman Makayla Sur to fly out to end the game. Caneda, Lara and Pina all had two hits as this was the second straight game Cerritos was held without a run through the first three innings. The only other time this season the Lady Dons failed to score within the first three innings came in a 1-0, walk-off win against Cajon High on Apr. 1.

The rush is coming, prepare for faux fish. Brands like New Wave Foods and Prime Roots are looking to the hot market.

But what exactly is in it? Faux fish, can be divided into two distinct types: plant and fungi-based substitutes primarily made from plant proteins, vegetables, sea plants, or koji, and cell-cultured or lab-grown seafood.

Though not as prolific as their counterparts, the market for alternative seafood is growing.

Taste and flavoring are the two main reasons why there are fewer alt-seafood options when compared to alt-meats.

The aim of alternative seafood is to provide a product that closely resembles the texture and taste of seafood, while saving the planet.

Kimberlie Le's fish-free salmon burger not only won UC Berkeley's Alt. Meat Lab competition but garnered a $4.5 million investment that led to the formation of Prime Roots, a direct-to-consumer brand that makes a variety of plant-based seafood and meats using koji.

A mold starter, koji has been used to ferment miso, soy sauce, and sake. It is used because of its ability to mimic the naturally distinct taste of meat.

Koji is the building block, the fibrous fungus that makes up the base of Prime Roots' products.

By adding flavors and color to koji, Prime Roots can make different meats and seafood.

Faux Fish- The Next Big Thing

Their plant-based lobster ravioli, which debuted earlier this year, was a big hit.

Imagine, tuna and salmon without mercury consumption , boom, Prime Foods

The Other Alternative: Cell-Cultured Seafood and Shellfish

Plant-based seafood is made well- from plants. The alternative is cell-cultured seafood composed of actual fish meat made in a lab.

Muscle and fat cells are grown in a controlled environment similar to a fermenter that's used to brew beer and presto - meat.

It's an authentic meat steak or filet, minus the process of raising and culling the animal.

Growing crops to feed cells for cultivated seafood uses much less land needed for farm-raised fish and shrimp, a significant potential environmental impact

Another benefit is reducing the water pollution as a result of the use of fertilizer run-off.

Salmon, bluefin tuna, shrimp, lobster, crawfish, and crab are just some of the seafood currently being developed by cultivated meat companies such as Wildtype, Finless Foods, and BlueNalu.

The problem is, the companies don't quite know how to make it efficiently or affordably just yet.

Plant-Based Seafood

Nutrition Vs. The Real Thing

While fresh shrimp contains 120 mg of cholesterol, New Wave's shrimp is both cholesterol- and trans-fat-free.

Thanks to the use of legumes and algae, it's also rich in the omega-3 fats, DHA and EPA, which aid brain health and help reduce inflammation.

Plant-based seafood may offer nutritionally better products than some real seafood, advice, read the label.

A can of Sophie's Kitchen Black Pepper Toona, made with TVP, is plant-based, gluten, soy, and GMO-free.

FAUX TUNA:

Plant-based chicken, burgers, and beef have become nothing short of ubiquitous. And now, alternative seafood is poised to join them.

But one can of 240 calories, 49 calories higher than regular tuna. Another alt-seafood consideration for is the sodium content.

A 100 gram serving of faux tuna has 375 mg of sodium. Canned tuna, has 50 mg.

The Future of Alternative Seafood

A $1.4 billion industry, the US market for plant-based meats is growing three times as fast as its animal-based counterpart, signaling a change in habits as consumers opt for more sustainable food options.

When it comes to environmental impact, alternative seafood will prevent new fish farms and shrimp farms.

As climate change worsens, experts say we have to shift to a preventative mindset.

Developing plant-based and cell-cultured seafood is not necessarily about replacing seafood, but creating sustainable alternatives that help expand the global food supply chain and provide consumers with adequate plant-based protein choices.

Let's get more people to try plant-based seafood and make more plant-based options available.
