

Athens Services Buys CalMet, Takes Over in Cerritos, Downey, Commerce & Two Other Cities

By Brian Hews

Long-time Cerritos trash hauler CalMet has assigned its contract to Athens Services, which was approved, after Cerritos' due diligence, by the Cerritos City Council at their March meeting.

Athens Services acquired CalMet Services and its affiliate business Paramount Resource Recycling, uniting three locally owned and family-operated companies with more than 100 years of experience in Southern California's waste collection and recycling industry.

CalMet is the exclusive waste hauler in five municipalities in Los Angeles County – Cerritos, Downey, Paramount, Lomita and Commerce, and other communities and associations. Paramount Resource Recycling is a leader in self-hauling, with a convenient public facility in Paramount meeting a range of disposal and recycling needs.

Founded in 1957, the family-owned waste collection and recycling company holds more than 30 solid waste management contracts with municipalities in Los Angeles County. Athens previously provided street-sweeping services in Cerritos from 2013 to 2017, when CalMet assumed the service. Under the current transfer in service, Athens will re-assume responsibility for street-sweeping services for the city.

"We are so proud of our family's legacy, and know that Athens shares our culture that

Pico Rivera Approves Process to Refinance CalPERS Obligations

By Brian Hews

An S&P Global issue credit rating (S&P) is a forward-looking opinion about a city's creditworthiness related to a specific financial obligation.

The opinion reflects S&P's analysis and considers the city's capacity to meet its financial commitments as they come due.

In 2021, the Pico Rivera City Council authorized the City Manager to issue pension obligation bonds (POBs) to refund a portion of the city's currently unamortized, unfunded accrued liability to the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS), saving the city millions.

And the City's overall financial position for issuing POBs was well received by financial rating companies.

Yesterday, S&P assigned its 'AA' long-term rating to Pico Rivera's $19.325 million POBs.

An obligation rated 'AAA' has the highest rating assigned by S&P; the city's capacity to meet its financial commitment on the debt is extremely strong.

An obligation rated 'AA' differs from the highest-rated obligations only to a small degree. The city's capacity to meet its financial commitment to the debt is very strong.

The high ratings did not stop there. At the same time, S&P affirmed its 'AA-' long-term rating and underlying rating called SPUR on the city's existing lease revenue bonds, writing, "the outlook is stable."

A SPUR rating is an opinion about the capacity of a city to pay debt service on a credit-enhanced debt issue, in this case, the city's existing lease revenue bonds. The ratings are published at the request of the city with the designation SPUR to distinguish them from the credit-enhanced rating that applies to the debt issue.

The POBs of the city can be paid from any available funds. Citing Pico Rivera's "strong management team," S&P rated the city's POBs "on par with its general creditworthiness due to our view that the city's ability to pay the obligation is closely tied to its operations."

The recent AA rating presents an opportunity for the City Council to consider a resolution approving final steps and documents needed to refinance a new round of POBs.

If approved, the city will refinance approximately 62% of the city's unfunded actuarial liability (UAL), reduce the current UAL payments by roughly $7.5 million, and achieve a 90% funded ratio after the POBs are issued.

S&P wrote, "The city continued to produce operating surpluses during the pandemic through conservative revenue forecasting and expenditure restraint.

HAZZAHH! THE RENAISSANCE PLEASURE FAIRE IS BACK!

By Tammye McDuff

The term 'renaissance' literally means to be reborn. It was a time when people celebrated the awakening of new ideas and light was let into darkness. The Renaissance Pleasure Faire in Irwindale celebrates the spirit of this rediscovery of philosophy, literature and art from the 14th century to the 17th century.

It all started in Agoura in 1963 to create a living history for school children and their families. Since then, the Original Renaissance Pleasure Faire has grown into an annual interactive playground and gallery for over 200,000 participants and guests each year. It has given birth to an industry nationwide, and this year's re-opening has much more to offer.

This Southern California tradition has traveled a bit since Agoura. The Glen Helen Pavilion provided two different set-

MWD: SoCal Cut Watering to Once per Week

By Brian Hews

MWD called on all Southern California residents and businesses to slash water use by 30% to combat drought conditions "unlike anything we've experienced before."

The water wholesaler took the action this past Tuesday in response to the regional drought, imposing unprecedented restrictions that will limit outdoor watering to one day per week for roughly 6 million people in Los Angeles, Ventura and San Bernardino counties.

MWD officials said the restriction will apply to its member agencies that are heavily dependent on supplies from the State Water Project.

The district's board said it is scheduled to take effect June 1.

MWD member water agencies that fail to enforce the requirement among its customers will face fines of up to $2,000 per acre-foot of water supplied by MWD that exceeds monthly allocation limits.

The state has already severely restricted supplies from the State Water Project, cutting deliveries to 5% of requested allocations.

"We don't have enough water supplies right now to meet normal demand. The water is not there," Metropolitan Water District spokesperson Rebecca Kimitch said. "This is unprecedented territory. We've never

PFAS 'Forever Chemicals' in Water Could Cause Liver Damage

Edited by HMG-CN

Scientists have identified a link between exposure to "forever chemicals" and liver damage, as well as a potential connection to non-alcoholic fatty liver disease, in a study published on Wednesday.

Exposure to such compounds — also known as per- and poly-fluoroalkyl substances or PFAS — was associated with elevated levels of a liver enzyme called ALT, which serves as a biomarker for liver damage, the scientists concluded in an Environmental Health Perspectives article.

The authors synthesized the results of more than 100 peer-reviewed studies in both humans and rodents, ultimately finding that three of the most common types of PFAS detected in humans — PFOA, PFOS and PFNA — are all connected to elevated levels of ALT in human blood.

"PFAS are ubiquitous, and we know that all adults in the United States have detectable levels of PFAS in their bodies," Leda Chatzi, a professor of population and public health sciences at the University of Southern California's Keck School of Medicine, said in a statement.

"There is growing interest in the long-term health effects of PFAS exposure, and this study supports that there is evidence that PFAS are associated with liver injury," Chatzi added.

Known for their presence in jet-fuel firefighting foam and industrial discharge, PFAS are also key components in a variety of household products, such as nonstick pans, waterproof apparel and cosmetics.

Thus far, scientists have determined a "probable link" between PFAS and diagnosed high cholesterol, ulcerative colitis, thyroid disease, testicular cancer, kidney cancer and pregnan-

Whitney Ranked Top Public High School in CA.

From ABCUSD News

U.S. News and World Report announced its annual ranking of high schools, and Whitney High School was ranked Number One in California, with a 99% graduation rate and college readiness score of 98.4. The publication uses a scorecard that includes advanced placement, or AP, courses and passing rates, graduation rates, and math, reading, and science proficiency to rank schools. The school was ranked as the 14th best high school in the nation with a nearly perfect scorecard.

"To be ranked as the best high school in California is a tremendous accomplishment," said Whitney High School Principal John Briquelet. "Without question, this ranking is the result of the collective efforts of our dedicated and talented staff, brilliant and hardworking students, and

Norwalk Amends Vacant Properties Ordinance

Norwalk, CA – On Tuesday, April 19, 2022, the Norwalk City Council was presented with an ordinance that amends the Norwalk municipal code to include standards for boarding, fencing, and maintaining vacant properties. The ordinance would also amend standards for foreclosed and abandoned properties.

Back in 2013, the City Council adopted an ordinance to establish registration, maintenance, and security requirements for vacant property that is abandoned and subject to foreclosure proceedings.

The amendment did not provide standards for the city to monitor, maintain and manage undeveloped or vacant sites that are not in default or foreclosure. It also does not specify any standards for boarding, screening, or enforcing on-site security on such properties. The new ordinance would help mitigate enforcement issues for city staff.

“This is a big step in holding property owners accountable for not properly maintaining vacant properties,” stated Mayor Rick Ramirez, “Several residents have voiced their concerns about this topic and the City Council wants to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of residents and the community.”

Vacant properties, buildings, and structures that are not yet distressed create similar public nuisance conditions that lower property values, create aesthetic decay, loss of character, and/or discourages potential buyers from purchasing adjacent properties.

The proposed ordinance will now move to a second reading at a future City Council meeting.

L.A. City Starts to Phase Out Single-Use Plastics

The L.A. City Council unanimously voted Wednesday to begin the process to phase out single-use plastics at city facilities and city-sponsored events, as well as to take steps toward a potential citywide ban on polystyrene products such as Styrofoam.

And it requested to expand the Single-Use Carryout Bag Ordinance to stores that give out such bags at the point of sale. “Our future in Los Angeles is plastics-free,” said Councilman Mitch O’Farrell, one of the leaders of the motion.

The Bureau of Sanitation will also develop an online zero waste training course that would be implemented for all city employees annually starting January 2023, and each city department would be instructed to develop zero waste plans by Sept. 30.

L. A. Sanitation GM Barbara Romero said 85% of single-use plastic is not recycled, and single-use plastics make up half of all plastic waste.

According to the Californians Against Waste website, there are now 128 other California cities who have in place ordinances restricting polystyrene. Also, the entire state of New York has banned polystyrene containers and loose packaging materials,” Councilman Paul Koretz said after the vote Wednesday.

Environmental organizations joined O’Farrell, Krekorian and Koretz outside City Hall on Wednesday to celebrate the vote. Currently no cities in HMG-CN’s circulation and coverage area ban single-use plastics or polystyrenes.

SHINE Event by Cerritos Chamber Honors Local Heroes

SHINING: The Award winners with Cerritos City and Chamber officials.

By Tammye McDuff

The first annual SHINE Awards luncheon was held April 21 at the Sheraton Cerritos Hotel to 'shine a light' on Cerritos' first responders and local heroes.

The past two years have been difficult for first responders, as life as they knew changed completely. "Everyone in this room was impacted somehow by the civil unrest of the Floyd riots and the pandemic," said Master of Ceremonies Kent Galante, "the Chamber met with City Council and wanted to honor and recognize those individuals who have gone above and beyond the call of duty."

The SHINE Hero Awards were broken down into six categories. SHINE Sheriff Hero was awarded to Lt. Gerardo Guerrero of the Cerritos Sheriff's Station, who was instrumental in taking down a mentally disturbed individual armed with a knife at the Sheriff's Station.

Guerrero was able to disarm the suspect and take him into custody.

The SHINE Local Hero was awarded to 19-year-old Jasmine Morales, who noticed a man violently attack and rob two females who were waiting for a bus. Morales distracted the suspect and allowed the victims to get into her car and escape, driving the victims to a safe place until deputies arrived.

SHINE Firefighter Hero Roger Todd has faced many challenges, responding to numerous life-threatening emergency calls. Prior to serving the citizens of Cerritos, FFS Todd worked at fire station 106, located in Rolling Hills Estates where he carried an elderly woman out of a burning house by tossing the victim over his shoulder. He has received a Unit Citation for assisting the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department by using their bullet-proof shield, entering the fire, and securing a suspect hiding in a house.

SHINE Healthcare Hero Maria Nunez is a PIH Health Nurse Practitioner who has a deep commitment to patients and the community. PIH Health clinics were inundated at the height of the most recent COVID-19 pandemic surge. To compound an already difficult situation, physicians and nurses were getting ill, limiting the number of medical professionals. On Christmas Eve, due to multiple physicians and staff calling out sick with COVID-19, the Bloomfield Urgent Care Center was down to a single healthcare provider. Nurse Practitioner Nunez volunteered to work extra hours that day, giving up holiday time with her family for patients who needed care.

The local Falcons Nest at Cerritos College received SHINE Community Hero award for feeding students. In 2017, the College established a partnership with L.A. Regional Food Bank to host monthly food drives on campus. During the pandemic, the College distributed more than one million pounds of food to 23,000 families in the region and has fed over 33,000 students and families.

The Cerritos Lifetime Hero Award was given to Dorothy Owen, a resident of Cerritos since 1969. Owen was self-employed for 20 years, marketing her husband's patented invention Cyberchess.

She has served as a Board member for Cerritos Chamber of Commerce and the Optimist Club. Owens' husband served in the United States Marine Corps for 30 years and was instrumental in the City adopting the 1st CEB. On the 235th birthday of the Corp in 2010, the first care package was shipped to Iraq. Owen has been an Ambassador at the Cerritos Chamber of Commerce, representing the 1st CEB Adoption Committee until 2018.

Four SHINE awards were also given to Leslie Gutierrez, Sheriff's Community Affairs; Elaine Reynolds, Sheriff's community Affairs, Deputy Jason Schmoker, Sheriff's Field Training Office and Carl Linzner, Los Angeles County Fire Department.

Asm. Sharon Quirk-Silva Visits Artesia

ASM. SHARON QUIRK-SILVA with local leaders, including Artesia Councilman Ali Taj, at Jay Bharat in Artesia.

By Tammye McDuff

Sharon Quirk-Silva continued her Assembly District 65 campaign stopping at Jay Bharat restaurant in Artesia with the conversations focused on homelessness and home ownership.

The state has done many things to address the issue of homelessness including working with the OC judge who ruled cities do not have the right to just remove an individual without offering the person a place to stay or another solution.

“The judge has said if you have the shelter beds and reached out to these areas several times and the person still refuses help, then the city has the right to remove the encampment. But we don’t want to just arrest these individuals, but we also can’t have the camps continue to grow.”

Silva has spearheaded seven different assembly bills addressing homelessness.

The camps are growing because there is not enough affordable housing. “We build less housing now, than we did in the 1960’s” said Silva. “We have a lot of renters, who want to move but can’t because of the housing prices.”

The issue of poverty was brought up and the increasing wage gap. “We need to keep people from falling behind on their mortgage or rent, much of that is due to businesses affected by the pandemic.”

One solution is rent control and also a bill that prohibits a landlord from removing a renter, then quickly re-renting the house or apartment for a higher rate of rent. “But these types of bills don’t always pass and they are difficult to do so” she said, “The balance between a property owner and renter is not an easy thing to obtain.”

La Mirada Native Serves as a Member of U.S. Navy's Submarine Force

BANGOR, Wash. – La Mirada native Lt. Cmdr. Juan Lansang is stationed at Naval Base Kitsap (NBK), homeport to west coast ballistic-missile and guided-missile submarines.

Lansang joined the Navy to explore different areas of travel. Today, Lansang serves as an operations officer.

Lansang attended La Mirada High and graduated in 2002. Today, Lansang uses skills and values similar to those found in La Mirada to succeed in the Navy.

These lessons have helped Lansang serving with Submarine Squadron 17.

Known as America's "Apex Predators!," the submarine force operates a fleet of technically-advanced vessels.

There are three basic types of submarines: fast-attack submarines (SSN); ballistic-missile submarines (SSBN); and guided-missile submarines (SSGN).

SSNs are designed to hunt down and destroy enemy submarines and surface ships; strike targets ashore with cruise missiles; carry and deliver Navy SEALs; conduct intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance missions; and engage in mine warfare. The Virginia-class SSN is the most advanced submarine in the world today.

The Navy's ballistic-missile submarines (SSBN), often referred to as "boomers," serve as a strategic deterrent by providing an undetectable platform for submarine-launched ballistic missiles. SSBNs are designed specifically for stealth, extended patrols and the precise delivery of missiles. The Columbia-class SSBN will be the largest, most capable and most advanced submarine produced by the U.S.

Guided-missile submarines (SSGN) provide the Navy with unprecedented strike and special operation mission capabilities from a stealthy, clandestine platform. Each SSGN is capable of carrying 154 Tomahawk cruise missiles, plus a complement of heavyweight torpedoes to be fired through four torpedo tubes.

As a member of the submarine force, Lansang is part of a 122-year history of the U.S. Navy's most versatile weapons.

"Being able to reach 70 percent of the world to provide humanitarian aid or strategic defense to our allies is important to our national defense," said Lansang.

A major component of that maritime security is homeported at Naval Submarine Base Bangor.

As Lansang and other sailors continue to train and perform the missions they are tasked with, they take pride in serving their country in the United States Navy.

"Serving in the Navy means that I can contribute to our national defense," added Lansang.

Award-Winning Cerritos Filmmaker Completes Her Sixth Film

By Tammy McDuff

Over the past five years, Cerritos resident Nidheya Suresh has written, directed and produced five award-winning short films.

Most recently, her film MAA won 'Best of Out & Loud' at the Pune International Queer Film Festival, Best Indie Filmmaker at the prestigious International Film Festival; Indian Cine Film Festival, and received an Honorable Mention at the Los Angeles Film Awards.

Suresh is known for creating films in the thriller and horror genres, dramas based on social commentaries and issues like LGBT rights and immigration issues.

A short thriller 'Tabitha' was awarded Best Horror Film at the FilmCon Awards and Oniros Film Awards. Suresh has also won Best First Time Director for her LGBTQ film along with Best Original Screenplay.

Now Suresh has finished The Rose Garden, a ScreenCraft Film Fund Finalist. The film is a short story about two sisters, Lisa Maria Thomas and Damini Isha Thomas, who have been estranged for years but are unexpectedly thrust together by their parents' sudden and tragic death. The loss of their mother and father forces the two sisters to confront long unresolved issues.

The Rose Garden is the sixth film by Suresh, "For a long time, I wanted to create a film about the impact of mental health issues on both the person who has it and its impact on the family. It is a delicate issue that is often brushed under the rug in the South Asian community, and this film brings attention to how it can divide families."

She developed her love for storytelling through the years huddled up with books in India. At the tender age of 11, she found herself typing away on a non-fiction novel, "I didn't know what I was doing was called fanfiction based on my favorite childhood mystery series, but my love for writing only blossomed as I grew older."

Suresh graduated with a Masters Degree in Screenwriting from the New York Film Academy. "I always wanted to write; my undergraduate degree is in journalism. I never thought of any other path for me other than writing. I thought journalism was the way to go when I discovered creative writing and found I had a real natural talent. I fell deeply in love with American television. A friend suggested scriptwriting and realized I really like it," added Suresh.

During this period, she also discovered a love for filmmaking, sending her across the globe to the prestigious Los Angeles / New York Film Academy for a Masters in Fine Arts [MFA] in Screenwriting. During the sixteen-month program, Suresh wrote and produced multiple projects.

Her short film Idée Fixe [2018], which she directed with Ahlan Williams, was nominated for multiple awards.

Having spent her life in various parts of India, Los Angeles, and even Australia, Suresh aims to lend her voice to create diverse and authentic stories, believing that a multi-cultural world is better. In the future, she hopes to continue expressing herself through film and television, and be the director of her own TV show one day.

Revolve Clothing Leases Muliken Building

By Brian Hews

Remodeling of the Muliken building has been completed and the building is now being leased to Revolve Clothing.

Approximately $6.3 million in one-time revenues from the sale of the city's pipe dream museum of Carol Chen and Bruce Barrows' was used to offset the construction costs.

Art Astor struck a deal with Cerritos in June of 2016, donating his cars and other collectibles to Cerritos in exchange for an upgrade of the building to "museum status" and use of the building.

The city never did anything to the building, while housing Astor's collection on Moore St. in Cerritos. According to sources, Astor was so stressed that nothing was being done that it contributed to his passing just two months later.

The collections was subsequently sold.

FROM THE ASSESSOR'S OFFICE

ADUs Gaining Regional Attention

The County has seen an increase of over 180% in permitted ADU's from 2017-2019, but with under a 20% completion rate for those who began the application process.

By Jeff Prang
Los Angeles County Assessor

This month I'm going to be focusing on a type of new construction that's capturing the attention of regional homeowners. It's called the Accessory Dwelling Unit or ADU.

As a most recent Los Angeles Times article entitled "So you want to build an ADU in California? Here's what you need to know" stated, "For whatever reason, thousands of California homeowners are adding accessory dwelling units to their property. These homes can be built for a fraction of the cost of a new house, mainly because they're small and can be installed inside an existing house or garage."

Commonly referred to as a "Granny Flat" or a "Guest House", the ADU is an independent living space that must provide the basic needs for an individual such as sleeping, eating, cooking and even sanitation.

It's also important to remember that adding an ADU to a property is a reassessable event and therefore will affect the value of the property.

I will address that later in the column.

Legislation was approved and signed into law last year that paved the way for ADUs. SB 9, the California Housing Opportunity and More Efficiency (HOME) Act, facilitates the process for homeowners to build a duplex or split their current residential lot, expanding housing options for people of all incomes that can now add units on their existing properties.

Possibly as a result of the new legislation, my office has witnessed a major increase in the interest of ADUs.

As an example of this growing interest, the County has seen an increase of over 180% in permitted ADU's from 2017-2019, but with under a 20% completion rate for those who began the application process.

To put that in perspective, there are roughly a little over 10,000 permitted ADU's in the County, with over 1.8 million residential parcels.

However, the large increase in interest in ADU construction and conversion has not kept pace with the outreach or the information needed to plan for these additions effectively and wisely.

There are plenty of hurdles to overcome when planning for the construction of an ADU.

The projects are expensive, the rules can be opaque and complex, and the bureaucratic hurdles can seem overwhelming.

A recently passed Board of Supervisor motion calls for the County to analyze the current process and provide recommendations for streamlining and making the process smoother.

However, those plans are still in their infancy of the development and proposal stage.

Here's where the Assessor gets involved.

The building of, and sometimes the alteration of an existing structure to be an ADU is considered new construction for property assessment purposes.

When new construction, like the addition of new residential units, occurs, the property will be reassessed.

That reassessment will change the overall value of the property and impact the resulting property taxes.

GRANNY FLAT: Legislation was approved and signed into law last year that paved the way for ADUs. The Act, facilitates the process for homeowners to build a duplex or split their current residential lot, expanding housing options for people of all incomes that can now add units on their existing properties.

Generally, new construction is assessed using the cost approach. The costs used by the Assessor's Office may not necessarily be your costs, but rather those typical of materials used for that quality of construction.

In general, replacing what is already there is not considered new construction.

However, if you're altering a garage by adding the features necessary to convert it into an ADU, such as a kitchen or bathroom, there will be an upward reassessment.

A reassessment due to new construction does not mean your whole property will be reassessed.

Instead, the cost to construct the ADU is used to establish its value.

That value is then added to the existing assessed value of the land and other structures on the property.

The result is a new base year value for the entire property, upon which future taxes will be based.

The increased property taxes obviously come after the whole permitting process, but it does catch many people by surprise and can cause a lot of hardship and anguish.

That's why proper planning with full foresight is needed.

Commerce Council Candidate Threatens HMG-CN Publisher After Report Outlining Donations

Leonard Mendoza also sent out fraudulent mailers calling himself Mayor when he was removed two weeks ago.

Staff Report

Last week, HMG-CN exposed thousands in dark money attempting to influence the Commerce City Council race.

Commerce's Leonard Mendoza threatened HMG-CN. The emails are on right.

Candidate Leonard Mendoza, who famously got punched out at a Contract Cities Conference and was just removed for abusing his Mayoral office and sending out campaign promotions on city stationery, took in a total of $22,000 in donations over $1,000.

Now, along with the dark money, intimidation, harassment, threat of bodily harm, and fraud have tainted the race. After reporting his removal as mayor for abuse of office, Mendoza, against the advice of the Commerce City Clerk, has been sending out campaign material in the mail that says he is still the Mayor of Commerce.

The first letter was mailed to all Commerce residents hitting mailboxes one week after Mendoza was stripped of his title for abusing his office.

"He is a fraud," said one resident who did not want to be identified for fear of retribution, "he is not the mayor; everyone knows that here in the city."

The resident knew what he was talking about when he cited retribution.

After publishing the dark money article, HMG-CN emailed Mendoza asking about the letter, Mendoza erupted and immediately began a barrage of intimidation, harassment, and threat of bodily harm on HMG-CN Publisher Brian Hews.

Mendoza sent a thinly disguised threat writing to Hews, "you vetter [sic] stopp [sic] writing about me!"

A few emails later, Hews was compelled to ask about Mendoza's alleged

In an email obtained by HMG-CN via a FOIA request, Mendoza was told by the Commerce City Clerk on April 20 that he could not mail or publish anything labeling him mayor after the April 12 City Council meeting when he was removed.

Mendoza admitted guilt telling the city clerk, "I printed everything prior to April 12, I will cease using any material after everything that has been printed is distributed."

Mendoza has not responded to questions about the deceitful flyers but on social media, he has not ceased the fraud.

On Facebook, Mendoza created a page called Mendoza4Commerce. The front page, which was visible as of the time of publishing this article, declared, "Re-Elect Mayor Leonard Mendoza Commerce City Council 2022."

Emails into Mendoza asking him to explain his Facebook page were not returned.

La Mirada Recognized Teen CERT Graduates

At the April 26 City Council meeting, the La Mirada City Council recognized 18 La Mirada High School students that recently graduated from the new Teen Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) program.

The Teen CERT program is a national preparedness program that teaches students leadership skills and ways to serve an active role in keeping the community safe. The City of La Mirada and La Mirada High School recently partnered to coordinate this new program and offered it to students enrolled in the biomedical science pathway at the high school.

“From January to April, the students took valuable courses and on-site training to re-ceive this certification,” says La Mirada Public Safety Education Officer Mary Cipres. “Thank you to La Mirada High School and the volunteers from the City’s advanced CERT program for making this program successful.”

The students completed nearly 40 hours of online coursework administered by the University of Utah and in person drills to receive this certification. Students learned disaster response skills such as how to organize a team of volunteers, disaster medical operations, fire safety, and light search and rescue.

The program was coordinated by La Mirada High School Biomedical Science

places a premium on hard work, celebrates and supports employees, promotes great customer service, and leads the way on the environment,” said Art Kazarian, an owner of CalMet Services. “Our family built this business over four decades, and we are confident this legacy will live on and be honored by the team at Athens.”

Athens boasts more than 1,750 employees, many of whom live in the communities they serve. The workforce is among the most experienced in the industry, with drivers averaging 10 years or more in the field. The company maintains a first-rate safety record across all the areas where it operates.

“Coming together with CalMet Services and Paramount Resource Recycling is a natural fit,” said Ron Arakelian III, a co-owner of Athens Services and great-grandson of Athens Services’ founder. “We all believe firmly in the value of family ownership, environmental stewardship toward a zero-waste future, and superior customer service.”

Athens and CalMet are working together on a transition plan to ensure the seamless integration of the employees and overall operations. “By bringing together these unique local companies with tremendous family histories, we have significantly strengthened the foundation on which we will continue to grow,” said Gary Clifford, Executive Vice President of Athens Services.

According to the city staff report, Athens will provide every service that CalMet provides. The transition should be seamless, given they’re using the same administrative personnel servicing Cerritos.

The process started when Athens Executive Vice President Gary Clifford sent a letter to the City Manager Art Gallucci on December 9 of last year, informing Gallucci that Athens had purchased CalMet and the trash hauler contract was assigned.

Per the agreement, Athens paid $20,000 to cover the expenses of the transition.

Cerritos sent a letter back to Athens asking for several items, including audited financial statements and pro forma financial statements, to make certain the company had the ability to take over the services in Cerritos.

Athens quickly complied, and Cerritos’ law firm Rutan and Tucker gave the green light to the City Council to consider the assignment.

At the March meeting, the council approved the assignment; per the contract the city will receive a $150,000 transfer fee from Athens.

Cerritos' Memorial Day Ceremony Set for May 30

Missed Opportunities Plague La Mirada Against One of San Diego's Powerhouse teams

By Loren Kopff
@LorenKopff on Twitter

SANTA ANA-When talking about his team's 3-2 loss to St. Augustine High in the 10th anniversary of the prestigious Boras Baseball Classic last Thursday afternoon, La Mirada High head coach Jimmy Zurn started with the missed opportunities.

Not only did the Matadores strand 11 runners on base, including the bases loaded in the top of the second inning, but a couple of his better hitters were caught looking at a third strike, each with two runners on base.

The loss spoiled a stellar pitching performance from senior Ryan Coppock, who worked five innings, surrendered five hits and struck out five.

But it was an untimely error that led to the winning runs in the bottom of the fifth inning.

"I thought Coppock pitched really, really well, and we had one inning in which our defense let us down," said Zurn. "We really haven't had that type of inning all year."

Early on, Coppock and his counterpart, Chaz McRoberts were pitching gems with the former having a perfect first and third innings while the latter had yielded four singles during his four innings of work, striking out three but also walking three as part of his 61 pitches. La Mirada struck first in the second inning when freshman designated hitter Paul Dominguez and junior left fielder Aidan Haller singled with one out and McRoberts walked junior first baseman Pablo Hidalgo to load the bases.

The Saints, situated in Division 1 of the CIF-San Diego Section and ranked 29th in the state, tied the game in their half of the inning when Frankie Giacalone smashed a home run over the left field wall on a full count.

"Obviously playing in this tournament, it tells you how deep we both are that you're on day three and you're throwing out those types of arms," said Zurn of the pitching early in the game. "Their kid was good. I thought he was a little bit wild at the beginning, which gave us some opportunities. We hit a couple of balls on the screws that just found gloves, which would have been runs."

Zurn was specifically talking about Russell's line drive to center with a runner on second that was caught to end the top of the fourth, and senior center fielder Rudy Gonzales' sharp line out to second with a runner at second in the next inning that resulted in the second out.

Had those two not been caught, La Mirada would have been up at least 3-1 heading into the bottom of the fifth.

Luke Rhee led off the bottom of the fifth with an infield single and moved to second on a wild pitch.

After Coppock struck out Shane Miranda, looking, and leadoff hitter Franklin Carney, M.J. Sweeney singled before Domenic Carini reached on an error, which allowed Rhee and Sweeney to touch home plate.

The Matadores crept back to within a run in the sixth when Grayson Boles walked Dominguez.

Senior pinch runner Noah Villanueva then stole second and scored with two outs on a base hit from Rodriguez. In the last inning, senior catcher Andrew Pyle struck out but advanced to first when the ball got past Miranda. Junior third baseman Eric Jeon then went the opposite direction with a single, but senior center fielder Rudy Gonzales would ground into a double play.

After a walk to freshman second baseman Aiden Aguayo put runners at the corners, the seventh groundout ended the contest.

"It had the feel like today not many breaks went our way today," said Zurn.

La Mirada, unranked in the CIF-Southern Section Division 1, began the tournament on Apr. 19 by giving Sierra Canyon High its first loss of the season in a 7-0 decision.

Jeon pitched a two-hitter through six innings with five strikeouts and two walks.

The Trailblazers, ranked first in Division 2, had not allowed more than three runs in any of its first 22 games before facing La Mirada.

The next day, the Matadores were doubled up by the top-ranked team in Division 1, Orange Lutheran High, in a 4-2 affair but bounced back last Friday by blanking Point Loma High 2-0 as freshman pitcher Donald Murray scattered five hits in five innings before giving way to junior Alejandro Diaz, who notched his second save.

"Not many people outside of La Mirada expected us to win [the Sierra Canyon] game, and I'll say that on record," said Zurn. "We held [Orange Lutheran] to four hits yesterday, and that's as good of a lineup as you're going to find in high school baseball. My starter had four walks in the third inning, and they ended up getting four [runs] on a couple of hits.

"Then my freshman [Dominguez] came in and struck out nine," he continued. "We fight and cut it to two and had the tying run at the plate. That's something you can take away with such a young team. Today I just felt like we were a little bit...didn't have the same energy, which is tough; it's hard to do."

After La Mirada (19-6-1 overall) lost to West Ranch High 11-0 on Feb. 19 in the second game of the season, the Matadores have allowed 11 runs in their other five losses combined.

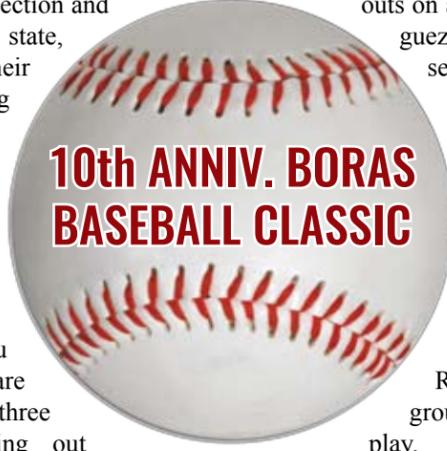

The team, which has now won all seven of its Suburban League contests by a combined score of 63-6, crushed last place Firebaugh High 11-0 this past Tuesday and after facing the Falcons again on Apr. 28, will travel to Gahr High today to wrap up the regular season.

The playoff brackets will be released on Monday morning with first round action slated for Thursday or May 6.

"It will be good to have a practice Monday just to kind of go over some stuff," said Zurn.

"Not taking anything away from Firebaugh, but we've got to get some innings for some guys that could be needed in the playoffs; some at-bats. And then the Gahr game, [head coach] Gerardo [Perez] and I have known each other a long time. We scheduled that game mainly so we play a high caliber playoff team going into the playoffs."

"We hit a lot of balls squared up," said Zurn. "It's just that today was not our day from that regard. That's why I love the challenge...this is the only time in your season where you're playing four straight days against four incredible teams."

done anything like this before."

Although the MWD's definition of State Water Project-dependent areas is still in flux, the outdoor-watering restriction is primarily expected to impact northwestern areas of Los Angeles County and parts of the San Gabriel Valley.

Gov. Gavin Newsom last month directed MWD and other water suppliers statewide to ramp up conservation efforts by advancing water-shortage contingency plans.

MWD offers a rebate of $2 per square foot for people who replace their grass with water-efficient landscaping. Rebates are also available from other local water agencies.

The rebate program has helped remove 200 million square feet of grass, which has saved enough water to provide about 62,000 homes with water each year, officials said.

605 LEAGUE SOFTBALLJohn Glenn Doubles Up Artesia in Regular Season Finale to Force Play-In Game

By Loren Kopff
@LorenKopff on Twitter

When John Glenn High visited Artesia High in last season's regular season finale, third place was on the line as the two had identical 5-4 league marks. They played an epic 12-inning contest that featured 29 combined hits and 16 errors in a 9-8 Artesia win.

While Glenn still advanced to the CIF-Southern Section Division 7 playoffs as an at-large team and made it to the quarterfinals, the Eagles found themselves in a similar position this past Tuesday evening in the last game of the regular season. The Pioneers were sitting in second place at 6-3 in the circuit while Glenn was a game behind. To spice things up, Pioneer High had knocked off Oxford Academy and Whitney High earlier in the week to surge into the playoff mix at 6-4.

On Glenn's senior night, it was one of the three the program was celebrating that helped guide the Eagles to a much-needed 4-2 victory that forced a three-way tie for second place. A coin flip was already conducted with Pioneer claiming second place and Artesia and Glenn having to play again on Apr. 28 to see who gets in as the league's third place representative. Those three teams split the season series with each other.

"Early on, we thought we had to fight for third place," said Glenn head coach Larry Leal. "So, we talked to the kids and told them what was going on. If we won, we would have to play again on Thursday. The kids all got together and talked and really motivated each other. They held together at the end. I'm really proud of them."

"It's so frustrating because I reflect back to the Cerritos game where one ESPN catch...we could have been co-champs," said Artesia head coach Ed Blanck. "That's the way I see it. And with all the things that are going on with my team, all the difficulties that we had to go through...it really hurts to look back."

He was referring to a highlight reel catch from Cerritos High junior center fielder Camille Lara that snuffed out what would have been the game-winning runs in the bottom of the seventh back on Mar. 24 in a 7-6 setback.

Glenn senior pitcher Gabriela Ortega had one of her best pitching performances of the season, scattering six hits, five of them being singles, to six different players, struck out five, walked one, had two perfect innings and induced five batters to fly out to sophomore center fielder Diana Bravo six times.

Glenn (15-12 overall) quickly gained a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning when freshman shortstop Carissa Galvan tripled to the right field gap and came home on a base hit from sophomore catcher Julia Cole. But Artesia (9-12 overall) would tie the game in the top of the third inning when senior left fielder Miriam Estrada reached on an infield single, stole second and scored when sophomore pitcher Maya Torres reached on an error.

In the bottom half of the frame, and with one out, Galvan and Bravo laid down back to back bunts ahead of a single to center from Cole, making it 3-1.

Artesia was looking to get back in the game in the next inning when sophomore catcher Arianna Franco singled.

But with one out, sophomore shortstop Irma Gonzalez sharply lined out to Galvan, who then doubled up Franco at first to end the inning.

"I could see that the first baseman wasn't coming in and the third baseman wasn't coming in," said Leal. "So, I knew our top batters [in the lineup] could bunt and get on base, especially Carissa. We just tried to move them over and everything fell in place."

The Pioneers would get a run back in the fifth inning when freshman center fielder Alea Medina singled and senior second baseman Alexis Duenas doubled with two outs. But after that, the next four outs would be sent Bravo's way. Meanwhile, the Eagles iced the game in their half of the inning when Torres walked Galvan who would later come home on a wild pitch.

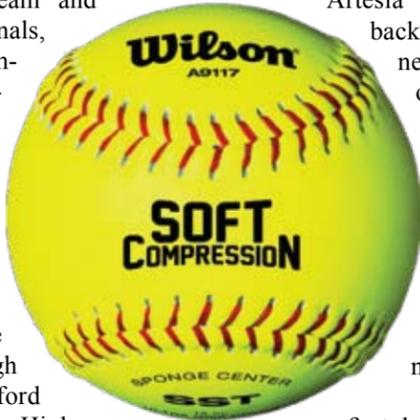

"Diana was outstanding out there in centerfield," said Leal. "She didn't let anything get by; she caught everything. Anything that fell in front of her, she went and got it in. My daughter at second base, [sophomore] Janessa [Leal] did really good. Carissa at shortstop... she doesn't really play there, but she did excellent. [Junior] Beatriz [Galvez] at third...she doesn't play there, but we put her there today and she did good. And [sophomore] Anais [Perez] at first base...she did great."

When the teams met on Apr. 5 at Artesia, the Pioneers came away with a 13-0 win as the Eagles committed seven errors. This past Tuesday, Glenn had one miscue and while Artesia did not have any, there were too many mental mistakes that Blanck attributed the loss to. In addition, he was without the services of one of his top hitting starts, sophomore catcher Vanessa Soto.

"Errors, infield errors," said Blanck. "We couldn't cover the bunt. That was the big thing. And then, we had some good, solid hits but they went right to their center fielder and shortstop. They made the timely plays."

A Glenn win in the play-in game would knock the Pioneers out of the playoff chase since they don't have at least a .500 record and would also be a season-ending three-game losing streak. However, a Glenn loss would be a second straight season of wondering if the Eagles get in as an at-large team. The brackets will be released Saturday morning.

"We just have to continue [on] Thursday what we did today," said Larry Leal. "Everybody has to stay focused and come to play. This is John Glenn's first back to back winning seasons and the kids really did that. I just want the best for the kids and I think they're going to pull it off."

NEWS AND NOTES*Baseball, Softball Seasons to Conclude While Boys Volleyball Playoffs Begin

Today marks the final day of the regular season for baseball and softball as the CIF-Southern Section playoffs get under way on Tuesday with wild card action. Anywhere from four to six of the area's seven baseball teams will advance to the playoffs while as many as seven of the eight area softball teams will compete for a divisional championship.

BASEBALL

In 605 League action, Cerritos High had already wrapped up another league title and began the week by getting past John Glenn High 6-2 this past Tuesday, then defeated Mayfair High 7-2 this past Wednesday to improve to 21-5 overall, 7-0 in league play. The Dons hosted Glenn on Apr. 28 as they get set to host a Division 3 first round game next week. Cerritos, ranked eighth in the division, has matched the number of wins from 2019 and need one more to have the most in school history in at least 25 years.

Artesia High, which seemed to be in good shale for a second place finish, has gone into a slump and following a 12-8 loss to Pioneer High this past Tuesday, dropped to 12-11, 3-4. The two teams met at Artesia on Apr. 28 with the winner tying Oxford Academy for second place. The Pioneers have won twice in their last six games.

In San Gabriel Valley League action, Gahr High is on a roll, having won seven of its last eight games including a 17-1 thrashing of Paramount High this past Monday and a 5-1 home win against Martin Luther King High the next day. The Gladiators (12-14, 6-1) were tied with Warren High for the league lead as Gahr hosted Paramount on Apr. 28 while Warren faced third place Downey High on the same day. Today, Gahr hosts La Mirada High in a preview of soon to be league rivals.

The Matadores are Suburban League champions and had a 19-6-1 overall mark after its 11-0 win against Firebaugh High this past Tuesday. The SGVL and Suburban League will merge into one league beginning next school year.

Norwalk High, ranked fourth in Division 6, defeated Bellflower High 7-3 on the road this past Tuesday to improve to 14-11 overall and 4-3 in the Suburban League. The win officially clinched the program's first playoff trip since 2013 and the winner of rematch on Apr. 28 will take second place while the loser gets third place.

Valley Christian High was clinging to its slim playoff hopes as it hosted Whittier Christian High last Friday. But the Defenders struggled in the six-inning game, falling to the Heralds 13-0. The loss sent V.C. to 11-13 overall, 3-7 in the Olympic League and in the process, clinched fourth place. Head coach Matt Dahlenburg was at a loss for words after the contest, knowing that the Defenders needed to win its final three games to have a chance of the postseason.

Whittier Christian scored three in the top of the first inning, four in the second, one in the third and five in the sixth and pounded out 15 hits. The big blows were a pair of two-run home runs from Connor Green. He also pitched a two-hitter, did not allow a runner to get to third and struck out five. He also retired the final 10 batters he faced.

The Defenders defeated last place Heritage Christian High 12-3 this past Tuesday and hosted the Warriors on Apr. 28. A win against Heritage Christian would make the Defenders, who would move to 13-13, eligible for an at-large spot if there is one to be had in Division 5. Following the game with Whittier Christian, the school honored the 1992 CIF Division 1A championship team, which went 20-4-1 and the 2001 Division V championship team. Coaches and players from both teams were on hand to partake in the festivities.

SOFTBALL

Cerritos crushed Oxford Academy 21-0 this past Tuesday to move to 14-2, 10-0 as the Dons visited Mayfair on Apr. 28 while Gahr edged Warren 6-4 this past Tuesday in a battle for first place. The Gladiators (18-8, 7-1) split the season series with the Bears, having outscored them 10-9. Gahr ended the regular season at Paramount on Apr. 28.

La Mirada, champions of the Suburban League, had no problems with Mayfair this past Tuesday in a 9-1 victory. The Matadores (20-6, 7-0) visited Firebaugh High on Apr. 28 while league rival Norwalk can tie Mayfair for second place with a win against Bellflower on Apr. 28. The Lancers, ranked 10th in Division 5, improved to 17-7, 4-3 after a 16-0 win against Firebaugh this past Tuesday.

V.C. has five wins on the entire season but will finish in third place in the Olympic League because three of those wins came in league play. The Defenders, who were blanked by league champion Whittier Christian this past Tuesday, visited Village Christian High, who was at 1-5 in league action and Heritage Christian to conclude the season. The worst the Defenders can do is tie Village Christian for third place.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL

The CIF-SS brackets were released this past Monday morning and four area schools will be vying for a divisional championship. In Division 2 action, 605 League co-champion Cerritos, which went 20-9 overall, hosted Tesoro High on Apr. 28 while Olympic League champion V.C. (20-2) entertained South Torrance High on Apr. 28. The Defenders were swept by Marina High last season in the Division 4 finals and have won 20 straight league matches while going 61-8 over the past three full seasons. The two unranked teams could meet in the quarterfinals.

In Division 4 action, Whitney High, the third place representative from the 605 League, hosted Katella High this past Tuesday in a wild card match and was swept by the Knights. Whitney ends its season at 11-12.

In Division 5 action, Norwalk, which finished in second place in the Suburban League, welcomed Paramount this past Tuesday in a wild card match and defeated the Pirates 23-25, 25-19, 25-23, 25-18. Norwalk improved to 10-9 and visited Hawthorne High on Apr. 28.

The boys tennis brackets will be released on Monday with Cerritos, Gahr, La Mirada, Norwalk, V.C. and Whitney advancing while in track and field, the 605 League and Olympic League finals took place on Apr. 28 while the San Gabriel Valley League and Suburban League finals are today.

cy-induced hypertension.

The Environmental Health Perspectives study, however, is the first to establish such a link between PFAS and liver damage.

These so-called forever chemicals earned this epithet due to their propensity to break down slowly and accumulate in the environment and in human tissue, including in the liver, according to the authors.

In addition to making the connection between PFAS exposure and liver damage, the authors also identified a possible link to non-alcoholic fatty liver disease.

The liver enzyme ALT is likewise elevated in humans who have this disease — a condition in which excess fat accumulates in the liver — suggesting a potential connection between PFAS and what the authors described as a “dramatic and unexplained rise” in the disease in recent years.

Non-alcoholic fatty liver disease has become a serious public health threat that impacts 25 percent of adults worldwide, while U.S. cases are expected to grow by about one-third by 2030, according to the study.

Evidence from animal studies have shown that PFAS, which are endocrine-disrupting compounds, could cause metabolic shifts that lead to fatty liver disease, the authors noted.

Epidemiological studies, they continued, have demonstrated connections between PFAS exposure and cholesterol, triglycerides and uric acid — all of which are biomarkers of fatty liver disease.

Acknowledging that the human research connecting PFAS to liver disease is still limited, study lead author Sarah Rock stressed that ample evidence from animal research demonstrates the toxic nature of PFAS to the liver.

“A challenge for PFAS researchers is that humans are exposed to mixtures of hundreds if not thousands of these chemicals,” Rock, a PhD student at the Keck School of Medicine, said in a statement. “Mixture analyses is one potential tool for addressing this complexity in the future.”

Although some U.S. manufacturers have stopped using PFOA and PFOS, the researchers warned that the risk of exposure remains, due to the long-lasting nature of these compounds.

“This research clearly shows that PFAS need to be taken seriously as a human health concern because even after they are phased out, they persist in the environment,” PhD student Elizabeth Costello, also a lead author on the study, said in a statement.

“There is enough evidence, we believe, to demonstrate a need to clean up sources of exposure to PFAS and to prevent future exposures,” Costello added.

RennCon will be held on April 30th to celebrate cosplay in all forms, drawing inspiration from sci-fi, anime, comics, and fairy tale creatures mingling with 16th-century villagers. There will be a time Traveler costume contest each day in the food court.

Play the best beer game this side of 1599 at the Faire's legendary Pub Crawl. Join the loud and lusty pub crawl crew; skip long lines as they amuse you along the village streets to several fine taverns and public houses. Try not to spill as you jiggle with merriment at the most bodacious songs, jests, jokes, stories, and riddles the shire has to offer.

The Faire is 20 acres of fun with 13 stages that offer a variety of entertainment from magic to puppetry to plays. The Queen and her court can be found strolling the streets amid arts and crafts, fine spirits, parades, fencing, archery and hatchet throwing.

of the reserve policy, the city strengthened its reserve policy target in 2020 to 50% of revenues to adjust for the risk characteristics of the general fund revenues, and this provides an additional cushion against downside risk.

"The stable outlook reflects our view of the city's very strong budgetary flexibility and its positive trend in sales tax and property tax revenues, which have strengthened the city's financial position. We do not expect to change the ratings during the next two years."

Pico Rivera City Manager Steve Carmona told HMG-CN, "I am very proud of the fine work staff did to maintain our good standing with the investment community. Together we worked to strengthen our General Fund Reserves to adjust for the risk characteristics of general fund revenues, maintained a very strong budgetary flexibility and oversaw a positive trend in sales tax and property tax revenues, which contributed to strengthening our overall financial position now and into the future."

Pico Rivera Mayor Dr. Monica Sanchez commented, "I'd like to commend city staff for doing a stellar job leading to the excellent rating with Standard and Poor's. Their focus on continuing to produce operating surpluses during the recent pandemic through conservative revenue forecasting combined with an emphasis on expenditure restraint contributed greatly to maintaining our good standing in the financial community."

Cerritos Named a 2021 Tree City USA

For the 24th consecutive year, the City of Cerritos has been named a Tree City USA by the Arbor Day Foundation.

The honor is given to select cities throughout the country for their outstanding community forestry programs and commitment to their urban forest. Among the program requirements are the existence of a tree board or department, a tree care ordinance, a comprehensive forestry program and an Arbor Day observance.

Since the City's incorporation in 1956, the Public Works Department has planted more than 30,000 trees along City sidewalks and medians, next to freeway ramps and throughout the City's many parks and recreation facilities. In Cerritos, nearly every home has a City tree planted in its parkway.

Residents are encouraged to properly care for the trees in their front and back yards.

For more information on street-tree care or the City's tree ordinance, call the Public Works Department at (562) 916-1220.

139 Townhomes to be Built in Placentia

(OCR) Landsea Homes has begun construction on the "Hudson" community at 443 S. Van Buren Street, an old auto yard between the Santa Fe railroad tracks and Atwood Channel, just south of Orangethorpe Avenue.

Sales will begin later this year but no pricing has been announced.

The project called "Hudson" will be gated with 63 traditional townhomes and 76 back-to-back townhomes from 775 to 1,638 square feet of space with one to three bedrooms and three bathrooms.

Elsewhere in Placentia, the 54-home Camila project by Shea Homes — a little more than a mile away — sold out in the past year.

Landsea recently began selling the 65-townhome Nolin community and began construction on the 489-home Narra Hills community in Fontana.

OC builders have been slow to catch up with the demand for homes.

In the 12 months ended in February, 2,735 new homes were sold in the county, according to DQNews. That was down 8% from the previous year and 37% below the 2015-2019 annual pace.

In the past seven years, the median selling price of an Orange County residence is up 70% to $985,000.

Local Filipino-American Keeps Family Navy Tradition Going

Abbygaille Panlaqui

The daughter of local residents is participating in Marine Exercise (MAREX) Philippines aboard USS Essex, a U.S. Navy Wasp class amphibious assault ship.

Petty Officer 2nd Class Abbygaille Panlaqui joined the Navy to carry on a family tradition. Today, Panlaqui serves as a U.S. Navy culinary specialist. "My dad was in the Navy for 14 years," said Panlaqui. "He always talked about it and after high school, I decided to join as well."

On January 27, 2022, the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps began training with the Armed Forces of the Philippines as part of MAREX 2022 to further the maritime security capabilities of the U.S. and the Philippines. Panlaqui is proud to participate.

"As a Filipino-American sailor, participating in MAREX Philippines brings me pride," said Panlaqui. "When I left the Philippines, I didn't think that the next time I went back is participating in a maritime exercise here. Supporting our allied forces and their causes means a great deal to me."

Homeported in San Diego, California, USS Essex is the second ship in the Wasp-class of multipurpose amphibious assault ships and the fifth ship named for Essex County, Massachusetts. Essex was a 1000-ton ironclad river gunboat of the U.S. Army and later U.S. Navy during the American Civil War.

According to Navy officials, amphibious assault ships are designed to deliver U.S. Marines and their equipment where they are needed to support a variety of missions ranging from amphibious assaults to humanitarian relief efforts. Designed to be versatile, the ship has the option of simultaneously using helicopters, Harrier jets, and Landing Craft Air Cushioned, as well as conventional landing craft and assault vehicles in various combinations.

There are many opportunities for sailors to earn recognition in their command, community and careers while serving in the Navy.

"My favorite accomplishment would be being named Supply Department Junior Sailor of the Year and advancing to Petty Officer 2nd Class in the same month," said Panlaqui. "It proves hard work pays off. I'm glad to be at a point where I can mentor my junior sailors to get to where I am today."

As a member of the U.S. Navy, Panlaqui, as well as other sailors, know they are a part of a service tradition providing unforgettable experiences through leadership development, world affairs and humanitarian assistance. Their efforts will have a lasting effect around the globe and for generations of sailors who will follow.

"Constantly being away from my family is hard but knowing that I do what I do to protect them brings peace of mind."
