Bellflower Mayor pro tem Santa Ines Appointed to Council Seat

Mayo pro tem Ines was unopposed in District 3, the move will save the city $28,000 in fees.

By Brian Hews

At the close of the nomination period on Friday, August 12, no one had filed to run against current Mayor pro tem Sonny Santa Ines in the November 8 election for District 3 in Bellflower.

The estimated cost to conduct the elections for three City Council offices, Districts 1, 3, and 5, by the Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder's Office is nearly $89,000.

Bellflower City Clerk Mayra Ochiqui stated, "The qualified candidate nominated to that office is mayor pro tem Sonny Santa Ines. The California election code sets forth provisions to cancel an election and the city council appoint a candidate to an office when the number of nominees is equal to the number of offices."

Mayor pro tem Sonny Santa Ines.

Per government code, a public notice was published in every paper in the area except for this paper, even though HMG-CN is adjudicated with Bellflower City Manager Jeff Stewart opting for the Herald American, Press-Telegram, and La Opinion, none of which publish stories concerning Bellflower at the rate HMG-CN does every week.

The city will save nearly $28,000 if they cancel the election and appoint Santa Ines to the seat. The motion was made by Councilmember Ray Hamada and seconded by Dan Koops, with the motion unanimously carried to appoint Santa Ines to District 3.

Former Commerce Mayor Leonard Mendoza Sued for Filing a False Ballot Designation

By Brian Hews

The many corrupt actions of former Commerce Mayor Leonard Mendoza which HMG-CN has exclusively chronicled over the past few months, included an investigative article that proved Mendoza had ten people, not including him and his wife, registered to vote in Commerce using his 800-square-foot home as an address.

The article resulted in the Norwalk Registrar/Recorder referring Mendoza to authorities for an investigation into voter fraud.

Now Mendoza is in more trouble related to election fraud; this time, it could cost him thousands in attorney's fees.

After his humiliating loss in the Commerce City Council election, Mendoza decided to file and run against incumbent Central Basin District 3 Director Art Chacon in November 2022; Mendoza likely spurred on by

Leonard Mendoza

Chacon's longtime enemy on the board Leticia Vasquez-Wilson and her husband Ron Wilson.

All candidates must file a Ballot Designation Worksheet with the California Secretary of State when running for any elected office. After entering personal information, the candidate is asked to select a ballot designation.

A ballot designation is a description of the candidate's current vocation; the description could be their current profession, the title of their current elected office, whether they are an in-

New Housing Bills to be Signed By Newsom Will Spur Housing Development

By Brian Hews

Last week, two separate but equal housing bills were agreed to and will be signed into law.

Both bills open commercial land for residential housing, in many cases replacing run-down shopping malls, vacant office buildings, old motels, and open lots.

Local governments will cry foul, cities are often reluctant to rezone commercial land to residential because businesses generate more property taxes than homes.

Last week's legislative agreement broke the battle between the State Building and Construction Trades Council, "the trades," and the carpenters' union.

The trades of course, demanded that any housing projects use union members because "residential construction workers have been mistreated for generations by developers."

Carpenters have claimed there aren't nearly enough union members to fill all jobs under a mandate, the carpenters are fine with prevailing wages generally on the top tier.

Legislators have been pressing their leaders for housing action because they've heard from angry voters.

So both house leaders declared both bills should pass — and let everyone know they'd make sure it happens.

Whitney Student Receives Horatio Alger Award

By Tammye McDuff

The Horatio Alger Association honors the achievements of outstanding individuals in our society who have succeeded despite adversity and who are committed to supporting young people in pursuit of increased opportunities through higher education.

Whitney senior Kelly Nguyen received her award for perseverance and overcoming life challenges. Nguyen had two primary challenges in her young life. One was to find a career within the STEM academic world, and the other was gender challenges in those fields.

Nguyen took it upon herself to create an annual competition for girls in mathematics. Partnering with inteGIRLS, she formed the first LA/OC chapter. inteGIRLS is a teen-led organization behind the math competition held in Washington, D.C. and a virtual puzzle hunt for females with the goal of empowering girls in STEM and help them pursue their passion. Co-chapter heads Kelly Nguyen and Serah Park formed the LA/OC chapter with a diverse team of girls whose interests in STEM are brought together by their love of mathematics.

inteGIRLS staff understands how alienating it can feel to be the only girl in a physics classroom, math team or science club. The organization was founded to create a community for girls to interact with and support each other. They aim to foster and promote a passion for math and problem-solving. Ultimately, they want to spark a sense of belonging for this small yet driven group of individuals. Their math competitions and logic puzzle hunts are team-based, designed to encourage participants to work together to solve difficult questions.

Each competition comprises numerous mathematic problems with 30 minutes to solve individual questions. Team problems are set rounds of questions with only 10 minutes to solve.

An excerpt from Nguyen award winning essay:

"The American Dream to me is the opportunity for all U.S. immigrants and citizens—no matter their personal identity or parents' background—to achieve their own self-defined financial, moral, and personal aspirations through perseverance alone. Thanks to my parents sacrifices, I am able to take charge of my own narrative, pursue opportunities in medicine, and thrive in higher STEM education: freedoms my parents wouldn't have imagined having in their war-stricken homeland."

As an avid competitor in STEM Nguyen states that she is excited to have more that more underrepresented students can experience the excitement of mathematical problem-solving and create lasting memories within their teams. In her free time, she loves photography, editing, and design.

Litigation Threat: NLMUSD Moves to District Voting

By Tammye McDuff

The Norwalk-La Mirada Unified School District received a demand letter requesting the Board of Education transition to a 'by trustee' area system for Board elections. The school district is currently an 'at large' voting system. Threatened with a lawsuit by attorney Kevin Shenkman of Malibu, the board voted on Monday, August 29, to begin the process of dividing the district into seven areas. The map won't apply until the 2024 election.

The board held a special meeting Monday, August 29, to review whether the current election system should remain in place or transition to the new election process.

Ron Wenkart, Norwalk-La Mirada's attorney, told the board that almost every public agency which had an at-large voting system and was sued under the California Voter Rights Act [CVRA] has lost in court.

The law prohibits use of an election that impairs the ability of a protected class, such as African-Americans, Asians or Latinos, to elect candidates of its choice or its ability to influence the outcome of an election. Under the California Voting Rights Act, the transition is supposed to help ensure equal protection for all communities voting in District elections.

CVRA compliance can be forced by private litigation, encouraged by the award of substantial attorney's fees to successful plaintiffs even if the case settles. The city of Modesto paid $1.7 million to its attorneys and $3.0 million to plaintiffs' attorneys in a case that did not go to trial.

Upon discussion, Board vice president Jorge Tirado stated that the trustees were very diversified and asked what would happen in the future if the white population became the minority.

The threat of litigation has forced many local school boards to adopt by trustee elections. Board member Karen Morrison added she felt this was a strong-armed tactic, stating that she genuinely believed that every trustee had the good of the district at heart, but with the new system, each trustee would be advocating for just those schools in their district.

In an at-large election system, voters of the entire school district vote for all candidates. 'by-district elections divide the schools into geographic districts, with voters in each district choosing their trustee. Often these trustees reside within that area. Every Board member stated that they felt as if they were being forced into a decision and did not like this change. "We're being forced or pushed," board member Jose Rios said. "I know that we're being pressured."

In his letter to the district, Shenkman said voting in the district was racially polarized and that at-large elections dilute the ability of Latinos, which make up 59% of Norwalk-La Mirada, to elect candidates of their choice. Tirado expressed his unease saying, "People on the board reflect the population; what justification is there? We have a very diversified board."

In a 7-0 vote, board officials chose to adopt a by-trustee district voting, meaning that come 2024, voters in each of seven districts will vote for candidates solely to represent that district rather than the whole board. Now that the resolution has been approved, there will be a minimum of four public hearings. The first two hearings will address the criteria for drafting trustee area maps. In comparison, the last two hearings will address the proposed trustee area maps and adopt the maps for use in the November 2024 Board of Education election.

By Norma Williamson,
WED Committee Chair

Women's Equality Day (WED), August 26, 2022 was celebrated this year in Cerritos by an inaugural Women's Equality Youth Speech and Art Contest August 27 and sponsored by the Cerritos-based Hubert H. Humphrey Democratic Club.

WED marks the 102nd anniversary of the certification by Congress of the 19th amendment that granted women the right to vote and culminated 72 years, from 1848 to 1920, of intense struggles: when American women suffragists rallied, protested, wrote newspaper editorials and more to obtain their democratic right to the voting polls.

Elementary school contestants colored pages and wrote short paragraphs about famous female political leaders like Supreme Court Justices Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Sandra Day O'Connor, Sonia Sotomayor, Labor Activist Dolores Huerta, Civil Rights Activist Rosa Parks, Vice President Kamala Harris and Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm. The winners were 1st place Lydia Ahn, 2nd place Bruno Nowell, and 3rd place winner Ahyana Gheewala.

Middle school contestants drew their own interpretive art pieces, using mixed mediums of their choice and accompanied by a short descriptive paragraph. 1st place Maya Thompson drew a group collage depicting Eleanor Roosevelt, Malala Yousafzai, Kamala Harris, Rosa Parks, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, and Susan B. Anthony; 2nd place Simran Dandiwal sketched a portrait of Malala Yousafzai and 3rd place winner Brendan Li illustrated Michelle Obama's quote: "there is no limit to what we can accomplish".

High School students, all ABCUSD students, delivered speeches on famous female political leaders. 1st place Nishita Vaddella spoke about black abolitionist/suffragist Frances Parker, 2nd place Pranil Arsid on British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, 3rd place Sofia Nowell on suffragist Lucy Stone and honorary winner, Chidinma Olelewe on Ida B. Wells, African American journalist, civil rights activist and suffragist.

Guest speakers were Assembly Member Cristina Garcia, Assembly Member Sharon Quirk Silva, who is seeking re-election to AD 67, former Huntington Beach Mayor and Councilmember Kim Carr who is campaigning for CA Senate District 36 and Mt. Sac Trustee/Navy Reserves Lieutenant Commander Jay Chen running for a seat in Congress for the newly drawn District 45 and Brian Ferrer, Candidate for ABCUSD Board, Trustee Area 2.

All guest speakers talked about women's current struggles for equality: equal pay for equal work, the disparity between female elected officials vs. male elected officials, childcare financial support, equal health care services and women's continued advocacy to achieve parity with their male counterparts.

Program expenses, as well as the $1,000 in prize money awarded to student contestants, were donated from the following generous sponsors: Ali Taj, Artesia City Councilmember, Ernie Nishii and Dr. Olga Rios, ABCUSD Board Members, Diana Needham, 3x Cerritos Mayor, Dr. Tina Cho, former Cerritos College Trustee, Linda Hernández, WED Committee Member, Richard Hathaway, retired ABCUSD teacher, Lorelei Lachman, Special Assistant to Candidate Jay Chen, Emily Chen Darnell, Community Member, Catherine Pascual, ABCUSD school teacher, Leo Perez, Physician Assistant, Susan Philipsen Zabel, Community Member, Katherine George Chu, Community Member and Pam Crawley, Community Member.

In addition to the winners' cash prizes, each contestant in the audience received a one-hour free admission ticket to Sky-Zone Trampoline Park located in Cerritos, along with unique goody bags with dozens of fun items and $10 Starbucks cards.

Women's Equality Day Hubert H. Humphrey Democratic Club committee members consisted of: WED Committee Chair/Membership Chair Norma Williamson, Member Pamela Crawley, Board Member Linda Hernandez, Co-Vice President Paula Mejia, Member Karen Wilson, Member Katherine George Chu, Co-President Larry Caballero, Treasurer Chris Duvali, Board Member Ernie Nishii, Co-Vice President Leo Perez, Program Chair Mary Ann Tipton, Board Member Susan Philipsen Zabel and Member Danny Hom.

Alison Millette, representative of Athens Services, the new waste and recycling collection company for Cerritos and other local cities, attended the event and was so impressed by the program's commitment to issues of women's equality that she pledged to support next year's event.

Nishita Vaddella, first place speech winner, Whitney High School senior, who gave a stirring speech on abolitionist/suffragist Frances Harper, first African American woman to be a published author in 1845, exclaimed "next year I want to help put on this event".

In the words of Hilda Marlene Palacios Rivera, Whitney High School PTSA President, mother of three, whose oldest daughter, a junior at Whitney High won third place in the speech category and whose three children participated in all 3 categories: "The program is exemplary and brings a huge opportunity to the city. Thank you from the bottom of my heart".

Lawmakers Need to Step Up MORE LOCAL NEWSPAPERS GOING UNDER

"In the coming days we will ... be making necessary but painful reductions to staffing, eliminating some open positions and roles that will impact valued colleagues." On Aug. 4, Gannett delivered a bleak earnings report for its second quarter, which ended June 30: a loss of $53.7 million on revenue of $748.7 million. That came on top of losses totaling nearly $1 billion over the prior three calendar years, on revenues of nearly $7 billion.

Gannett was as good as its word. At least 70 layoffs occurred, the layoffs are a blow not only to the men and women who have lost their jobs but also to the readers who relied on them to keep them informed, to keep their elected officials and business leaders honest, and to provide the glue that brings neighbors together as a community.

Gannett stands as a telling illustration of the economics of local newspapers.

The trends include the evaporation of advertising as new media drain away sponsors and the incursion of other information sources, including social media platforms.

The causes are almost beside the point. What's important is their consequences.

The effects of the spread of "news deserts" on social and political cohesiveness in America, and the vacuum it has left has been filled by fringe ideologues, political mountebanks and corporate PR.

The decline was rapid before the pandemic but has picked up speed ever since. In the 15 years leading up to 2020, more than 25% of the country's newspapers disappeared, leaving residents in thousands of communities living in vast news deserts.

Between 2018 and 2020 alone, 300 newspapers closed, another 6,000 journalists jobs vanished, and print newspaper circulation declined by 5 million.

The loss of communal knowledge has been incalculable. The watchdogs of school boards, city councils and quorum courts are gone, the chroniclers of high school sports teams are gone.

And the disappearance of local news sources saps a sense of community leading to lower voter turnout, more pollution, and more corporate crime.

After the Denver Rocky Mountain News closed in 2009, municipal borrowing costs rose by an average of more than one-third of a percentage point.

The disappearance of a local newspaper can spur corporate misconduct, Jonas Heese of Harvard Business School reported last year.

"After a local newspaper closure, local facilities increase violations by 1.1% and penalties by 15.2%, indicating that the closures reduce firm monitoring by the press," Heese found. "Newspapers may be especially effective in discovering the misconduct of local firms because of their proximity to local sources such as employees and local suppliers."

What will stem the loss of local news is unclear, though there's no initiatives coming from legislators.

"There's no magic cure to the ailments of the local news industry," observed a recent study by Tim Franklin, an expert in local news at Northwestern University. "Aggressive cost cutting hasn't solved the problem and is likely making it worse. Policymakers in Washington and in statehouses have so far failed to advance solutions."

The search for answers will continue as long as the need for information exists. The Brookings' Institute Clara Hendrickson wrote in 2019, "Informed citizens are too essential to the health of America's democracy to let the local news industry - that has long been responsible for performing this important task - die off."

Cerritos Air Crash Marks Another Anniversary

FLOWERS AND WREATHS from family and friends mark the Cerritos Air Crash Memorial at the Cerritos Sculpture Garden. The disaster occurred on Aug. 31, 1986 when a passenger jet and a Cessna collided mid-air over Cerritos.

Staff Report

August 31 marked the 36 anniversary of the Cerritos air disaster when Aeroméxico Flight 498, a scheduled commercial flight from Mexico City to Los Angeles, collided with a Piper PA 181 Cherokee crashed, killing 64 on the DC-9 and all three on the Piper, with an additional 15 on the ground.

On Sunday, August 31, 1986, at approximately 11:46 a.m Flight 498 began its descent into Los Angeles with 58 passengers and six crew members on board. At 11:52 a.m. the Piper collided with the left horizontal stabilizer of the DC-9, shearing off the top of the Piper's cockpit and decapitating the pilot and both of his passengers. The heavily damaged Piper fell onto an empty playground at Cerritos Elementary School.

The DC-9, with its horizontal stabilizer separated, inverted and immediately entered a dive. It slammed into a residential neighborhood at Holmes Avenue and Reva Circle in Cerritos, crashing into the backyard of a house at 13426 Ashworth Place, where it exploded on impact. The explosion scattered the DC-9's wreckage across Holmes Avenue and onto Carmenita Road, destroying four other houses and damaging seven more.

All 64 passengers and crew on board the DC-9 and 15 people on the ground were killed. The city of Cerritos remembered this disaster with wreaths posted in the Cerritos Memorial Sculpture garden.

The Two Bills

AB 2011 by Assemblywoman Buffy Wicks (D-Oakland) does not include a union hiring mandate, not liked by the trades...but it does require prevailing wages....liked by the carpenters.

The Wicks' bill will produce more affordable housing for low-income people....not liked by the developers.

The Wicks bill will exempt projects from the California Environmental Quality Act, or CEQA, the law that requires a lengthy process of analyzing a project's environmental effects and reducing negative impacts....this is really liked by developers.

Score so far: Developers 2; Trades-1; Carpenters 1.

SB 6 by Sen. Anna Caballero (D-Merced) requires both union hiring and prevailing wages....liked by the trades and the carpenters.

The Caballero bill is targeted at middle-class housing. It doesn't require affordability. But local governments still could....liked by the developers.

Caballero's bill does not contain a CEQA exemption for projects. But it offers regulatory streamlining.

Score: Developers 3; Trades 2; Carpenters 2. Affordable housing the clear winner.

It is a certainty that cities will find some way to fight the legislation because it weakens their local control, Cerritos is famous for that.

But voters are tired of the housing situation as witnessed by these two bills in which the trades, the carpenters, the developers, and legislators finally got through.

The library will also offer its first ever discussion panel in the afternoon with local authors. The first panel will look at the art of writing from personal experience, and will feature writers Dorany Pineda, Erick Gallindo and Michael Jaime-Becerra.

The second panel will feature Mike

Sonksen, Marisa Urrutia Gedney and Jonathan Pacheco Bell who will explore the cultural history of Downey and Southern California suburbs.

Live music will be performed by Los Angeles-based jazz ensemble the Neighborhood Orchestra. Food vendors are Bawk Bawk Chicken, Cena Vegan, Sinful Indulgence, Kona Ice, with beverages from Helping Hands Coffee.

Downey Mayor's Column Back to School Safety

By Mayor Blanca Pacheco

School is back in session, and it is essential to remember all back-to-school safety precautions. While our schools continue to take preventive measures against COVID-19, we must also do our part to keep our kids safe. With more students returning to on-campus learning, children will be walking on our city streets. Keeping their safety in mind should be our top priority. Here are a few reminders:

- Yellow flashing lights on a school bus mean the bus is slowing down and preparing to pull over to the side. Children are waiting to get on and off the bus or parents are waiting to pick up their children.
- Red flashing lights mean Stop! at least 20 feet behind the bus because children are getting on or off the school bus.
- Parents should talk to their children about safety and remind them to be aware of their surroundings when traveling to school. Everyone should watch the road, not their phones.

While we all continue to get used to the new normal, our kids will be resilient and make strides in school. We are responsible for keeping them safe outside of school by being alert and driving responsibly.

Gangs Out Of Downey has once again demonstrated their undying support for our community. They generously donated to the city and the Downey Unified School District with a grant for $12,500 to provide funding for a school resource officer at Columbus High School. This generosity and commitment to our city's youth is an example of what makes Downey a great city.

The local shelter remains full of pets needing forever homes. SEACA has dogs and cats, but also rabbits and birds available for adoption. To view all animals and for information about adopting a new friend, please visit seaaca.org.

The highly anticipated International Food and Music Festival is coming to Downtown Downey September 10th. Join the city for great food from local restaurants and live music on two stages. There will also be face painting, balloon artists, and a photo booth.

The Downey City Library is hosting 'Beyond the Book' event on September 17th. This is the library's annual celebration of all the fantastic resources they offer and the artists, makers, crafters, and creative explorers that make and enliven our city.

Summer may be winding down, but high temperatures remain. Older adults, children, and sick or overweight individuals are at greater risk from extreme heat. To cool off, visit our newly remodeled Downey City Library to catch up on summer reading or check out a city laptop. The Barbara J. Riley Community and Senior Center also offer various programs and activities to participate in while getting to know your neighbors and making new friends, or you can visit the Columbia Memorial Space Center.

35MM: A Musical Exhibition by Phantom Projects

By Tammie McDuff

Ten years ago, 35mm: A Musical Exhibition premiered at the Galapagos Art Space in Brooklyn, New York. The electrifying experimental musical was a collaboration between composer Ryan Scott Oliver and photographer Matthew Murphy.

The concept was simple, a series of photos inspired by a self-contained song in 35mm. Within the collection of stories and songs, a series of stories and themes that explore ordinary topics, complex topics and everything in between.

The production begins September 9, 2022 and runs through September 18 at The Phantom Projects Theatre at La Habra Depot. The show, directed by Steve Cisneros and musically directed by Shana Sternin, stars James Beardsley, Amber Florin, Lauren Laass, Nick Morganela, and Amazing Oakes.

A Musical Exhibition is a departure from the usual plays of Phantom Projects Theatre Group. Since 1997 the Company has become known for its regional and national touring productions geared toward teen audiences.

For 22 years, they presented theater for teenage audiences at t La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts. This series will continue, but the troupe has grown and moved into its own space, at the historic 132-seat La Habra Depot Theatre, renamed The Phantom Projects Theatre at La Habra Depot.

After eight months of renovations, the venue re-opened this year with a series of family shows. 35MM marks the start of their series geared toward traditional theatergoers. Teen shows will remain in La Mirada.

Newer works for adults and mature audiences can now be found exclusively in La Habra. When asked how he creates a musical that operates as a collection of stand-alone tales, "I wanted to transport the audience to these wildly different stories and styles of music," commented writer Ryan Scott Oliver, "I think there's truly something for everyone in this. And it's different from most other contemporary song cycles. 35mm delves into the dark, the surprising, and the dangerous." Tickets for 35MM: A Musical Exhibition start at $10 and can be purchased online at www.LaHabraDepot.com.

The new season includes 26 Pebbles by Eric Ulloa (October 7-16, 2022). On December 14, 2012, a 20-year-old walked into Sandy Hook Elementary School and killed 26 innocent souls before taking his own life. These 26 innocent deaths, like pebbles thrown into a pond, created ripples and vibrations that were felt far beyond the initial rings. This is the story of those vibrations.

Amy and the Orphans by Lindsey Ferrentino (November 4-13, 2022). When their 85-year-old father dies, sparring siblings Maggie and Jake must face a question about breaking the news to a sister with Down syndrome. Along the way, the siblings discover just how much they don't know about their family or each other.

Christmas Bingo: It's a HO, HO, HOLY Night Written and performed by Vicki Quade (December 9-11, 2022): Did Santa babysit the baby Jesus? Why were the Three Wise Men so lost? Do you know what the holiday classic Silent Night first sounded like? The answers to these and other humorous questions are answered in the hit holiday comedy 'Christmas Bingo'. The show is an interactive comedy; audience members play actual bingo (for real prizes) while answering questions about Christmas traditions.

- U.S. Air Force Academy (USAFA), Colorado Springs, CO
- U.S. Merchant Marine Academy (USMMA), Kings Point, NY
- U.S. Coast Guard Academy (USCGA), New London, CT, does not require a congressional nomination for appointment.

Congresswoman Sánchez may nominate up to ten individuals for each vacant academy slot allotted to the district. In order to receive a nomination, interested participants must complete an application with their respective academy of choice and complete the U.S. Service Academy

More than 70 students from SEA and other local high schools attended accompanied by their families. Representatives were available to answer questions about how to best prepare for an appointment to one of the academies. The 2-hour event ended with a lot of excited students hopeful to earn an appointment to one of the prestigious Service Academies.

"The honor of attending a service academy comes with the obligation and commitment to serve in the military for a minimum of five years upon graduation," stated Sanchez, "The most important duty of the United States Congress is to protect the American people. The Charm of Kaeng Kari-Yellow Thai Curry

By AK Manivannan
Special to HMG-CN

Comfort presents itself in many forms, some apparent and some inconspicuous, sending sudden waves of love and warmth from unknown sources. This powerful aura exists in many things like a deep hug or a nostalgic cartoon, but it is always more elusive and hidden in foodstuffs.

Comfort foods—are they comfortable to eat? Does their flavor soften the edge? Or do they represent safe, familial, loving circumstances that they are often prepared in? Maybe all of the above?

If one were serious in finding answers they might just have to eat Thai Yellow Curry for days, for it supplies pure contentment and warmth in every morsel like no other, making it the perfect candidate for cracking the code of comfort foods.

One of three major curries from Thailand—Red, Green, and Yellow—Thai Yellow Curry hails from Southern Thailand and is the creamiest and most robust of them all. While Red and Green Curry have their streamlined tastes of spicy and fresh respectively, Yellow Curry falls somewhere amongst the two and effectively employs all four horsemen of Thai cooking: salty, spicy, sweet, and sour.

Salt, turmeric, curry powder originally from Anglo-Indian trade routes, garlic, meat, and potatoes work to enhance the savoriness in the dish. Red and/or yellow chilies whole with seeds, first arrived in Thai kitchens from South America brought by Portuguese traders, give the dish a nice fiery kick with a slow, satisfying afterburn. Shallots, onions, coriander seeds, fenugreek, carrots, and copious amounts of coconut milk provide the rich sweetness that combats and balances the strong salt and spice that would otherwise dominate.

Finally, cumin, lemongrass, ginger, bay leaves, cilantro roots, and galangal, the Southeast variant of ginger, round out the flavor, tying all the spicy saltiness and fragrant sweetness together with a fresh, tangy sourness that elevates the dish to new levels of taste.

Due to this balanced medley of flavors Thai Yellow Curry truly hits and lights up all corners of the tongue without giving way to any one flavor profile. However, from a surface perspective the immediate, dominant flavor is the curry; it bursts through in every bite unmistakably. Curry is one of the key performers in this dish and rightfully so, for the Thai name for this dish, Kaeng Kari, directly translates to “Curry Curry.”

Other variations of this dish found throughout Thailand include the extra sour Kaeng Som and the spicier Kaeng Leung. While Kaeng Kari seems to be the mildest of all its variants and other curries, when paired with only hints of spice and sourness, this Yellow Curry is a great quick fix for a straightforward, comfortable taste that'll assuage any shopping woes.

Thailicious, Artesia

Using a curry paste formulated in-house, Thailicious's chefs serve a creamy, flavorful Yellow Curry that has a satisfying afterburn, a strong sense of turmeric and onions/shallots, and pairs superbly with fresh Jasmine rice which bolsters the sweetness in the dish.

Sweetee Thai Cafe, Artesia

With a very interesting sweetness that felt more sugar than coconut, a deep herbal-lemongrass-ginger aroma, and a great spicy aftertaste, Sweetee Thai's curry is sharp with flavor and dense. It explodes with sweetness and tanginess in every bite and leaves a trail of savoriness suspended in the comforting burn of red chilies.

At Thai Cuisine, Cerritos

Where some sweetness might have been missing, a commanding blend of juicy, sweet veg-

THAILICIOUS

This was evident in almost all of the restaurants we visited. In no particular order, the following are distillations of the tastes of each Yellow Curry we tried, with the one from Original Thai Restaurant in Artesia, taking the crown as the definite highlight of the month.

Original Thai Restaurant, Artesia, Highlight of the Month

Arguably the most well-rounded and comforting taste, Original Thai's Yellow Curry hit all the spots in the tongue and the heart. Its slightly oily curry carries a flavor not only dominant with savory curry and chilies, but also, enriched with distinct notes of lemongrass, herbs, and ginger/galangal. This great mix of tanginess, spice, and savoriness makes this curry very robust and complex, and exudes a familiar heartening feeling as well

Ruby Thai, Los Cerritos Mall

Nestled tight in the bustling food courts of the Los Cerritos Mall, Ruby Thai offers a sweeter, gelatinous take on the Yellow Curry. With generous amounts of sweet carrots, zucchinis, and potatoes in a soft, sweet gravy etables and a creamy coconut milk base makes At Thai's Yellow Curry a pleasant experience. Although the curry leans more towards the salty/spicy side, the vegetables—soft and flavorful—enhance the overall taste and add some sweetness to offset the saltiness of the curry itself.

Monora Thai, Cerritos

The spiciest of all curries surveyed, Monora Thai's Yellow Curry has a bright kick of chilies that leaves a numb afterburn. The consistency is a bit watery, but the taste is concentrated and sensorially spicy. With a strong onion flavor and a salty spice, this curry can be comforting whilst clearing out sinuses at the same time.

Renu Nakorn, Norwalk

This establishment's Yellow Curry has an unparalleled smoothness and creaminess in its texture and therefore a very coconutty flavor as well. With a comforting warmth that tastes partly savory, partly coconut, and had hints of spice and herbs, Renu Nakorn serves a pleasantly mild curry that looks and feels great to eat.

CERRITOS SPECIAL TEAMS HAS NO ANSWERS FOR WOODBRIDGE'S FELIX AS DONS FALL TO WARRIORS

By Loren Kopff
@LorenKopff on Twitter

Give a defense a short field, and there's bound to be some problems for the opposing offense and/or special teams. Cerritos found that out the hard way in the first quarter against Woodbridge High last Thursday night at Atkins Stadium on the Artesia High campus.

Already down 7-0 past the midway point of the opening quarter, the Dons began their second drive of the game at their own 18-yard line. A four-yard loss on a sack and a reception for negative two yards forced the hosts to punt. But a bad snap sent the ball through the endzone for a safety. Then, on the ensuing kickoff, Zachary Felix went 60 yards to the house and for a 16-0 lead in a matter of 18 seconds.

While Cerritos would score the next 19 points of the game, Woodbridge rallied in the second half and left Southeast Los Angeles County with a 37-19 victory. The Dons dropped to 0-2 and have been outscored 43-7 in the second half.

"Offensively, we weren't really able to get the run game going," said Cerritos head coach Brad Carter. "And then our special teams all night was not good enough. We were blocking up front and giving up touchdowns on kickoffs and punt returns. That has to improve; we have to be better on special teams. We have to figure it out."

Woodbridge would have five offensive plays in the first quarter and had the ball for a little over three minutes. Ironically, it was special teams that enabled Cerritos to get on the board as senior lineman Lucas Panem recovered a fumble after Cerritos punted for the second time in the opening quarter. Four plays later, senior wide receiver Luis Sanchez hauled in an 18-yard touchdown reception from senior quarterback Dylan Burton with 17.3 seconds remaining.

The momentum carried into the second quarter as Woodbridge quarterback Edward Ma was incomplete on consecutive plays from the Cerritos 29-yard line and the Dons took advantage, going 71 yards on nine plays, chewing 4:04 off the clock for their second score. Here, it would be sophomore running back Kalib Moran going in from eight yards out.

A three and out put the Cerritos offense in business at the Warriors 28-yard line and the black and gold would march 72 yards on 10 plays, aided by a Woodbridge personal foul on fourth and three. The drive ended with Moran catching an eight-yard score from Burton with 6.9 seconds remaining in the half.

"That was good to see," said Carter. "I don't like how slow we started; I always like how fast we finish the first half. We have to get off to a better start. I'm not sure why we're getting out to a slow start, but that needs to improve quickly."

Both teams traded fumble recoveries to begin the second half and with 7:16 left in the third quarter, the Warriors regained the lead when Ma connected with Felix for 33 yards. Any chance the Dons had in potentially getting the lead back was dashed when Felix busted loose for another 60-yard punt return with 9:15 left in the game. In the first half, Cerritos had 34 plays of offense, but could only get 21 in the second half, eight going for positive yardage.

"We kind of went to spread personnel, started screening more," said Carter. "We had a big touchdown by Luis; that was a great catch. We just had the momentum. These last two games have been similar. We've been right there in the third quarter, then we lose momentum and we can't get it back."

In the season opener against Buena Park High on Aug. 19, the Dons trailed 12-7 after the first quarter, 26-14 at the half and 34-21 heading into the final stanza. Moran, who scored all three touchdowns against Buena Park, led the ground game with 47 yards on 14 carries while sophomore running backs Ruben Castro and Dikshanta Adhikari combined for another 32 yards on 10 carries. Moran also caught four passes for 24 yards.

"He's a big, strong football player," said Carter. "We rode him hard tonight and we're going to be riding him all year, for sure."

Burton missed four passes out of his 16 attempts and threw for 88 yards with three of those completions going for more than 10 yards. Half a dozen players caught at least a pass with junior wide receiver Jake Bautista getting a pair of them for 25 yards.

"We're trying to slow the game down for him," said Carter of his signal caller. "He's controlling the game; we have to find a way to get him more easy passes. Give [Woodbridge] credit; they took away a lot of the passing stuff that we had planned."

Defensively, the Dons were led by senior cornerback Sebastian Pasillas (four tackles) and sophomore linebacker Nathaniel Crawford (three and a half tackles). Cerritos will visit Portola High tonight in a battle of winless teams. The Bulldogs fell to Summit Academy 48-28 last Friday night and are led by quarterback Rocky Palacio, who has completed 36 of 75 for 476 yards, and three touchdowns with two interceptions along with 66 yards on 20 carries and wide receiver Kamran Jahromi (11 receptions, 218, three touchdowns). Last season, Portola shutout Cerritos 35-0 and in 2019, the 'Dogs got past the Dons 46-24.

"I told the kids our focus is on us right now," said Carter. "We need to keep fighting; stay the course. We're on the right track. We just have to finish games. If we just clean up a couple of things on special teams and find a way to get more explosive plays on offense, I think we're going to be alright."

VALLEY CHRISTIAN REBOUNDS TO PUT TOGETHER NEAR FLAWLESS WIN AGAINST GAHR

By Loren Kopff

Valley Christian High was looking for a better performance than the one it had in its 35-0 season-opening loss to El Dorado High in the debut of first-year head coach Nick Walker. Gahr High was looking to begin the new season on a high note, but longtime head coach Greg Marshall saw something he wasn't expecting.

The Gladiators sputtered on offense all night, leaving a frustrated Marshall to come to the conclusion his team was emotional, out of shape and tired after three plays. The Defenders took advantage and crushed its Artesia Blvd. neighbors 42-9 last Friday at V.C. After surrendering a safety compliments of a bad snap from center nearly five minutes into the contest, the hosts scored 42 unanswered points and received a balanced offensive attack.

"Obviously, we want to be aggressive," said Walker. "So, our philosophy is 'get to them first before they get to us'. If we get to them and put them in a position to have to punt or third and long, we're in a great position. We obviously think that we can win games if we get them in that position."

"We just weren't very sharp tonight, obviously," said Marshall. "I think we did some good things [but] I don't think we did a very good job getting the kids ready. Some of the things are just hard to figure out who we are. We have some guys, but we'll see on the film where we just didn't execute some plays."

V.C. got on the board with 4:36 left in the first quarter when senior running back Major Brown scored from 10 yards out. Following Gahr's second punt of the stanza, senior quarterback Kaden Struiksma launched a 41-yard strike to senior wide receiver Nick Bozanic for a 14-2 lead.

The Gladiators had the ball for 6:15 of the quarter but could muster 22 yards on 13 plays and it would get worse in the second quarter as they were limited to 19 yards on a dozen plays thanks to V.C.'s stingy defense. Senior defensive back Casey Bouma returned an interception 60 yards for a score nearly midway through the quarter. Then another three-and-out resulted in sophomore running back Josiah Apisala scoring on a five-yard scamper late in the half.

"The resilience, the way we handled business," said Walker of the turnaround from the El Dorado game. "We came out and made a statement. We continued to trend on defense to zero points. Offense gave up those two points [and] we gave up those seven at the end. But for the most part, we were resilient in what we were doing."

The defense kept its foot on the pedal in the second half and after senior defensive end Micah Maurer partially blocked a punt from junior Calvin Thomas III, V.C. ran eight plays in 4:16, ending in a 12-yard score from Brown. The final points of the game for the Defenders came early in the fourth quarter when Maurer caught a 38-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Keiran Edmundson.

Brown gained 56 yards on 17 carries while Apisala added another 36 yards on seven touches. In addition, Brown caught three passes for 24 yards from Struiksma, who completed nine of 12 passes for 90 yards.

"It's a two-headed monster," said Walker of his running attack. "So, we just want to be able to get to it; make sure we are being consistent with the run. We have a two-headed monster. Let's pound, then hit outside. Let's go inside, go outside, go inside, go outside; try to figure it out and see where they're going to over pursue and see if we can get some cutback angles."

VALLEY CHRISTIAN HIGH senior running back Major Brown was a key factor in the 42-9 win against Gahr High last Friday night. Brown rushed 17 times for 56 yards and scored twice, and caught three passes for 24 yards.

GAHR HIGH senior Tyvon McGirt (#12) and junior cornerback Natt Flowers (#2) try to bring down Valley Christian senior wide receiver Micah Maurer in last Friday night's 42-9 V.C. win. Maurer caught a 38-yard touchdown pass from sophomore quarterback Keiran Edmundson late in the game.

"He's coming along," Walker later said of Struiksma. "Obviously, we would have liked that last week. But he's coming along; he's putting his best foot forward and he's learning. It's his first year, he's a senior, so we're coaching on the fly."

Freshman linebacker Cole Hefner had a great night on defense with six tackles while Apisala added five and a half tackles and Casey Bouma another two and a half tackles with a fumble recovery and that interception. V.C. will host Aliso Niguel High tonight with one team getting its second win while the other dropping to 1-2. The Wolverines blanked Rancho Mirage High 26-0 last week as quarterback Hunter Najm has thrown for nearly 400 yards this season. Luke Jones has rushed for 114 yards on 22 carries and scored once and Jack Gill has caught 10 passes for 187 and two of the four touchdowns thrown from Najm.

Walker says his team needs to work on turning everything in on defense in order to be successful against Aliso Niguel and the Defenders need to hit their stuff immediately on offense.

As for Gahr, junior running back Kalen Montgomery rushed 11 times for 61 yards and scored from 27 yards with 5:50 left in the game. Senior running back Tyvon McGirt added 43 yards on seven carries while junior Ethan Whiteman, making his varsity quarterback debut, completed five of 17 passes for 39 yards.

"We have enough guys because Tyvon and [junior wide receiver] Evan [Spurlin-Renfroe] are good, and so is [Kalen]," said Marshall. "That's three guys in a high school football game. We just have to figure out how can we get those guys the football and how to be more successful."

"It's a learning experience for him," Marshall later said of Whiteman. "He kind of got locked in on some things and I don't think we gave him too much. But he just has to try to get better. Evan would be open, and he was throwing to the wrong guy. He just didn't focus on what we needed him to do. It's his first time out, but he just didn't execute on offense."

One of the positives from the game, according to Marshall, was he thought the kids played hard, didn't give up and didn't chip with each other when a lot of times [in these] games, they start pointing fingers.

The Gladiators will face Heritage Christian High tonight, winners of its first two games. The Warriors edged Harvard-Westlake High 21-20 before trouncing Riverside Prep 42-8 last Friday. In order to pull off the upset, Marshall said there needs to be better work on the communication from the sideline to the offense.

Artesia girls volleyball tougher in the middle set, but swept by St. Joseph

By Loren Kopff

The Artesia girls volleyball team had won two of its first five matches ahead of hosting its own tournament last Saturday. This past Tuesday, the Pioneers welcomed St. Joseph High in the last scheduled non-league match of the season.

After being dominated in the opening set, Artesia made things interesting in the second set before succumbing to the Jesters 25-9, 25-22, 25-11.

"It's a totally new team," said Artesia head coach Tommy Dube. "We lost our senior setter, so that's really impacted us, and we've been trying to find a replacement for that position. Also, bringing in several freshmen into the mix right now...that's changed the energy and the chemistry amongst the team. We're really focusing on the basics of just control passing and our serving game."

Although the Pioneers didn't lead in the second set, they never trailed by more than three points and were able to tie the Jesters seven times, the last at 22-22. In the third set, St. Joseph jumped to a 5-1 lead on the strength of two aces from Sasha Luzina and one from Emma Faalogo, then 9-2 after Maya Gonsalves served three straight aces.

Again, the hosts tried to stay within reach and when sophomore Rylee Asumbrado had an ace, it was 9-5. A serve into the net gave the Pioneers the serve and ended the first rotation with the score 13-8. But kills from senior Andrea Arzate, junior Shynia West and a net violation would be the only points Artesia scored the remainder of the match.

"We were serving a little more consistently; a little tougher," said Dube of the second set. "They also subbed out their power hitter. I know that we had the advantage there without that big kill in there."

Unless Artesia adds a match, it will be off until opening 605 League play against Cerritos High on Sept. 9. In other girls volleyball action, Cerritos went the distance against Warren High last Thursday, posting a 14-25, 22-25, 25-19, 25-20, 16-14 win. The Dons (5-2) visited Sunny Hills High on Sept. 1 and will host Millikan High on Tuesday.

Gahr High also went the distance in its last match as it beat Bellflower High 26-28, 25-19, 25-19, 19-25, 15-12 this past Tuesday. The Gladiators (2-3) went to Norwalk High on Sept. 1 and will travel to La Serna High, Pacifica High and Kennedy High Tuesday through Thursday.

John Glenn High also knocked off Bellflower in five, 25-13, 23-25, 17-25, 26-24, 15-8 last Friday and will be on the road against South El Monte High today, Lynwood High on Tuesday and Norwalk on Thursday.

Staying with the theme of five-set matches, La Mirada High defeated Paramount High 25-17, 20-25, 16-25, 25-19, 15-6 this past Tuesday to improve to 3-2. The Matadores will next be in action on Thursday when they host California High.

Norwalk swept Bell Gardens High 25-16, 28-26, 25-8 this past Wednesday to move to 2-3 ahead of its contests against Gahr and Glenn while Valley Christian High dropped a 23-25, 19-25, 25-19, 21-25 decision to Wiseburn-Da-Vinci this past Tuesday. The Defenders (7-4) are the only area team to have played a league match as they defeated Heritage Christian High 16-25, 25-18, 25-14, 25-19 this past Monday in the Olympic League opener. V.C. was home to Warren on Sept. 1 and will visit St. Joseph and St. Anthony on Tuesday and Thursday respectively.

FOOTBALL

Artesia (0-1) @ Santa Paula High (2-0)-The Pioneers were blasted by Garden Grove High 61-6 last Friday night as the Argonauts gained close to 300 yards on the ground. Artesia will try to rebound on the road against a tough Santa Paula squad that has averaged 30 points a game in its two wins. Cardinals quarterback Marcus Castaneda has completed 31 of 56 passes for 446 yards and has thrown the same number of touchdowns and interceptions-four. Of running back Bryce Zavala's nine carries, four have found the endzone. Last season, Artesia fell to the Cardinals 40-7.

Prediction: Santa Paula 45, Artesia 10.

Cerritos (0-2) @ Portola (0-2)-See Cerritos game story against Woodbridge High. The Dons lost to the Bulldogs 46-24 in 2019 and 35-0 last season.

Prediction: Cerritos 28, Portola 24.

Heritage Christian High (2-0) @ Gahr (0-1)-See Gahr game story against Valley Christian.

Prediction: H. Christian 41, Gahr 7.

John Glenn High (1-1) @ Long Beach Cabrillo High (2-0)-A week after falling to Rowland High 34-7, Glenn rebounded in fine fashion, routing Firebaugh High 49-8 last Friday night. But the Eagles will be tested against a tough Cabrillo team that has outscored a pair of CIF-L.A. City Section teams 75-6. The Eagles will be going for three in a row against the Jaguars, having won last season's contest 22-6.

Prediction: Glenn 31, Cabrillo 27.

Servite High (0-2) vs. La Mirada High @ Excelsior Stadium (1-1)-This will be La Mirada's first game wearing its home blues and yet another test as the first of consecutive games against Trinity League opponents awaits the Matadores. La Mirada fell to Yorba Linda High 28-13 last Friday night as senior quarterback Nehuel Garcia completed 24 of 31 passes for 248 yards and a pair of touchdowns, one to senior Xavier Hicks (seven receptions for 74 yards) and the other to senior Brody Roberts for 13 yards.

This is the third time the teams have met since at least 2002 with the Friars winning 38-14 in 2013 and 56-14 in 2014.

Prediction: La Mirada 35, Servite 30.

Norwalk High (2-0) @ El Monte High (0-2)-The Lancers won another high-scoring affair, defeating La Canada High 49-28 last Thursday night as they have now scored 104 points. Senior running back Michael Mueller, who scored five times, leads Norwalk with 388 yards on 33 carries while senior David Herrera is right behind him with 317 yards on 30 touches.

The Lions have been outscored 55-19 in their two games and have gained 647 offensive yards. Former Norwalk head coach Jessie Cenicerros had been at El Monte the past five seasons, compiling a 42-18 record and winning the CIF-Southern Section Division 12 and CIF Division 5AA state championship in 2019, capping off a remarkable 16-0 season.

Prediction: Norwalk 42, El Monte 14.

Aliso Niguel High (1-1) @ Valley Christian (1-1)-See V.C.'s game story against Gahr.

Prediction: V.C. 31, Alison Niguel 28.

cumbent, etc.

Mendoza, who is a painter employed by L.A. Sanitation and works at the Hyperion Water Reclamation Plant described himself as a "Water Advocate," writing, "I work at the Hyperion Reclamation Water Plant in El Segundo. I spent [sic] my free time advocating of [sic] the importance of recyclin [sic] our water."

But Mendoza has never advocated for water and worked as a contract painter since 2019; before that he worked as a lead painter for the city of Commerce and was fired for "systematic abuse of his employees."

Central Basin President Art Chacon was incensed when he saw the designation, knowing Mendoza was lying on the form, so Chacon hired attorney Anthony Willoughby to file an injunction on Mendoza to remove the ballot designation.

Days later, Mendoza got a call from L.A. County Counsel, who was using information from Willoughby's brief, questioning him on the ballot designation description.

The hearing was yesterday, Thursday, Sept. 1, and as of press time, HMG-CN could not confirm the ruling.

In a strange coincidence, in June 2012, Leticia Vasquez-Wilson described herself as a Water Advocate-at the time she was a professor-in her run against Ed Vasquez, but Ed Vasquez did not file an injunction against her and lost in a special election that garnered a 15% turnout.

In 2016 former Lynwood Councilwoman Maria Santillan-Beas filed to run against Vasquez Santillan-Beas, designating herself as a Water Advocate.

Ignoring the hypocrisy, Vasquez-Wilson filed a lawsuit, likely using California Elections Code 13107, arguing Santillan-Beas was not a water advocate; the lawsuit was successful, with Vasquez winning a motion for attorney's fees, ruthlessly taking $30,000 from Santillan-Beas.

After discovering Mendoza was running, HMG CN sent several emails, copying HMG-CN's attorney Scott Talkov in the emails, asking both Wilson's if they were behind Mendoza campaign; neither responded.
