Staff Report

For the fourth straight year, Hews Media Group-Los Cerritos Community News, and Publisher Brian Hews and staff garnered five Los Angeles Press Club finalist nominations to be awarded at the 58th Annual Southern California Journalism Awards, June 26, 2016 at the Millennium Biltmore in downtown Los Angeles.

And for the first time, HMG-CN Sports Editor Loren Kopff garnered three nominations.

There were over 1,000 entries for the event.

The nomination categories are Investigative Series and Sports articles.

"It is an honor to be nominated with such talented journalists," said Hews, "Loren and I are very fortunate just to be mentioned with them."

For the fourth year in a row, HMG-CN was nominated in the prestigious Investigative Series category for print newspapers for its hard-hitting story entitled, "Commerce Mayor Pro Tem Baca Del Rio Violating City's Vehicle Use Policy."

The investigation revealed that Commerce Mayor pro tem Tina Baca Del Rio repeatedly abused the city's Vehicle Use Policy (VUP) collecting a $500 monthly

CIF-SOUTHERN SECTION DIVISION III BOYS VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIP Valley Christian Claims Third Boys Volleyball Title

The Valley Christian High boys volleyball team celebrates the program's third California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section divisional championship after a grueling 19-25, 25-20, 17-25, 25-19, 15-12 victory over Cathedral High last Saturday afternoon at Cerritos College. The boys program also won championships in 2007 and in 2011. Photo by Armando Vargas.

By Loren Kopff

Jason Kwak, the head coach of the Valley Christian High boys volleyball team was feeling a little superstitious and nostalgic before, during and after the California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Division III championship match. Kwak was remembering when he was playing for Gahr High in 2000 when the Gladiators won the Division II title by upsetting Mater Dei High in five sets.

Now, he is a champion head coach as the Crusaders rallied in the final two sets and knocked off second ranked Cathedral High 19-25, 25-20, 17-25, 25-19, 15-12 last Saturday afternoon at Cerritos College. It's the third divisional championship for the boys program, having won it in 2007 and again in 2011.

"I know exactly what the guys are going through," Kwak said. "We had a same five-setter [in 2000] where it was a back and forth battle and we really needed to dig in deep. This team happened to be same. It was just funny this year. We were seeded fifth and I think we were seeded fifth when I was playing also. The pathway to the finals was kind of identical in the way everything played out, and I thought that was kind of fate."

"I'm lost for words; this is a dream come true," said junior outside hitter Miller Davis. "I'm so happy to pull that off and fulfill one of my dreams."

La Palma resident to head to UC Berkeley journalism grad school

Angeline Bernabe

Cal State LA student Angeline Bernabe to graduate during the June 11 Commencement ceremony for the University’s College of Arts and Letters Los Angeles, CA -- As a child, Angeline Bernabe developed a love for storytelling. That passion was fueled at Cal State LA and helped her become an accomplished student journalist and land prestigious internships.

In the fall, she’ll be attending one of the top journalism programs in the nation at the UC Berkeley Graduate School of Journalism.

The 22-year-old Bernabe says her parents always encouraged her to read newspapers and books and keep up with current events. She remembers her dad regularly watching television news, and recalls that she preferred watching news coverage over cartoons.

She arrived at Cal State LA in 2011 after graduating from John F. Kennedy High School in La Palma, Orange County. As she acclimated to college life, she quickly realized that her college experience would greatly improve if she became involved on campus. Bernabe started with a job in the University Writing Center her sophomore year.

“People don’t know how important writing is,” she says. “It really is important no matter what your major is. Working in the Writing Center was really humbling.”

From there, Bernabe became a staff reporter for the University Times for three years. “Having that byline in the newspaper every week made me feel really confident,” she says. “It felt like I could do anything.”

But she didn’t stop there. Bernabe also became involved in the student startup of Golden Eagle Radio, working her way up to take positions as both station manager and president. Proving to be a pioneer driven by her passion, she also started the first Cal State LA chapter of Her Campus, an online magazine for college women. Each of her experiences broke ground in a new way and left a lasting impression on Bernabe.

Her involvement on campus helped her win a 2016 Cal State LA Golden Eagle Award of Excellence, an honor presented by the Center for Student Involvement to recognize outstanding student achievement. Her experience as a student journalist helped her land internships at a local AM Christian talk radio station, and KCBS/KCAL as part of the station’s investigative unit. Bernabe also worked with Cal State LA’s EcoCar Team as the communications manager, traveling to Ohio with the team for the EcoCar3 competition. During her final quarter at Cal State LA, she worked on the reporting team for NBC’s Dateline where she has already gained two assistant producer credits.

Bernabe certainly takes to heart what her mom always told her: “If you’re passionate about something, be great at it.”

She is thankful for the support of her parents and the opportunities she found at Cal State LA. “I was actually really shy when I first started here,” she says. “What kept me going was this image of myself as a journalist. Cal State LA has been this awesome platform to do extraordinary things.”

At UC Berkeley, Bernabe plans to expand and refine her skills as a reporter and hopes to eventually become a news producer for long-form journalism pieces.

“It was important for me to tell myself every day, ‘You’re going to an awesome school, you’re going to do awesome things,’ ” says Bernabe. “Here [at Cal State LA] they give us the skills to succeed and this mentality to be determined and do something.”

Bernabe will graduate this spring with dual bachelor’s degrees from Cal State LA—one in communication with an option in public relations and another in TV, film and media studies with an option in broadcast journalism.

La Mirada Council Meeting Recordings to be on City Website

Staff Report

The City is moving forward with plans to record regular Council meetings. A contract was recently approved with Granicus for video recording and hosting services. Granicus provides similar services for many cities and provided a proposal that best met the City’s needs.

An item about video recording of City Council meetings was included in the community satisfaction survey conducted last September. The majority of respondents were supportive of the meetings being recorded and made available for viewing online.

"The video recording and displaying of Council meetings is part of a continuing effort to provide open governance to the residents of La Mirada," says City Manager Jeff Boynton. "Interested residents and businesses will be able to view Council meetings at their convenience."

Meetings will now be recorded and made available to view the following day on the City’s website. The meeting agenda will also link to the recorded video segment of each specific item. Regular City Council meetings are open to the public and held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of every month at 6:30 p.m. at La Mirada City Hall.

To view City Council meeting agendas and videos, visit www.cityoflamirada.org/agendas.

EDITORIAL/LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

May 28th 2010

“The death toll has now risen to 60 people, and gunmen are still inside the two mosques, carrying out continuous killings”, said the news anchor.

I was watching the television with horror along with my two younger sisters.

My mother called us from work telling us to stay calm and that everything would be alright.

What concerned me was that my father was inside one of the mosques where these attacks were taking place.

He was in the basement praying when he suddenly heard gun shots.

Gradually, the gunshots got louder and louder.

I found out later, that my father had called my mother and said he was not sure if he was even going to survive.

Thankfully, my father survived but when he came home his shirt was stained with blood and his face reflected what he had seen.

On that day, May 28th 2010 over 80 Ahmadi Muslims had been martyred because of their religion in what are referred to as the Lahore terrorist attacks.

My sisters and I hugged him like we had never hugged him before.

"My father was inside one of the mosques where the attacks were taking place, he was in the basement praying when he suddenly heard gun shots."

About every week, we hear about at least one Ahmadi being martyred.

Even in the media, anti-Ahmadi rhetoric is explicit as Muslim televangelists encourage the murder of Ahmadi’s.

I was not allowed to tell anyone that I was Ahmadi at my school. If I did, it was quite likely that I would have been victimized and discriminated against.

In 1974, the Pakistani government amended the constitution so that Ahmadis were declared Non-Muslims.

Ever since then, the innocent killings of Ahmadis has become normal in Pakistan.

The non-political Khilafat had been moved to London in 1984 because of the persecution.

Broadcasting his sermons to Pakistan, he would remind us over and over again to remain steadfast as he once did and never to resort to violence.

Since the 1960’s, much of my extended family had been moving to America to escape the persecution.

The long calls on Skype with my relatives made me hope that one day my family would go somewhere where we could experience the blessings of true freedom.

That day came.

We were granted a visa to the greatest country in the World, the United States of America on February 22nd 2013.

Coming to this beautiful nation, I finally tasted freedom. I was able to openly practice my religion and I did not fear for my family’s safety anymore.

Not to mention, I became a Lakers’ fan.

We must be grateful for the endless blessings that come with living in America.

I know I am.

His Holiness continues to be a beacon of light for me. Shortly after I came to America, he came to California for a tour.

He met with Ahmadi Muslims as well as various leaders around the country. Meeting him in person was one of the best experiences of my life.

His teachings are universal, peaceful, simple yet powerful.

Islam is not a monolithic force and my community’s experiences in Pakistan serve as an example.

Furthermore, many mullahs (religious clerics) in the country labeled Ahmadis not only as heretics but have continued over the decades to tell their followers that killing Ahmadi Muslims will lead them into heaven.

If we offended any Muslim in Pakistan for even the slightest reason, we could face a prison sentence.

But we had hope.

Every Friday, my family and I would gather in the drawing room to listen to the soothing words of his Holiness, Mirza Masroor Ahmad, the Khalifa of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community.

FARMERS MARKET OPENS IN LAKEWOOD

By Tammye McDuff

It was an absolutely beautiful Saturday morning after a spring rain and the perfect day for the City of Lakewood to officially launch their new open air Farmers Market.

Fresh herbs, flowers and plants bordered the corner market on Lakewood Boulevard and Candlewood Street. Shoppers were able to browse ripe fruits and vegetable and even purchase fresh seafood. Arising Dough offered homemade breads, Syds Yummy Stuff jams and jellies, natural beauty products and Cafecito organic coffee are just a few of the many vendors featured. If you were brave enough to wait in a very long line, attendees were able to receive a newly printed, one-of-a-kind kitchen apron.

Every Saturday from 8:00 a.m. to noon, the new Lakewood Farmers' Market will be open in the parking area to the west of Target in Lakewood Center.

Over 20 farms and 15 vendors will be featured, many of whom are regulars at the Santa Monica Farmers' Market where top-named chefs purchase products for their restaurants. Most of the farms are small, family-owned businesses in California.

The Farmers' Market is collaboration between Lakewood Center and So Cal Farmers' Markets. For more details, visit <http://www.shoplakewoodcenter.com/Events> stipend while continuing to use the city's vehicle for official and personal use.

HMG-CN was also nominated in the Investigative Series category for a controversial story entitled, "State Water Board Drought Restrictions Show Political Bias Favoring Governor Brown's Party."

The state-wide comprehensive investigation found that the California State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB), an unelected body made up of members appointed by Governor Brown and by Senate Pro Tem Kevin DeLeon, and stacked heavily with environmentalists and labor leaders, deliberately assigned higher levels of water conservation to water agencies located in districts with seats held by State Senate and Assembly Republican office holders as opposed to agencies in the districts of Democratic office holders.

Many prominent journalists called for an FBI investigation after the story was published.

HMG-CN Sports Editor Loren Kopff garnered three nominations, two for Sports Category and one for Entertainment News or Feature.

The two stories in the Sports category were entitled "Cerritos' Movchan Newest Member Of Small 1,000-Point Club," and "Former Cerritos Resident, Coach at University of Florida, Wins Second Straight College World Series."

Kopff's lone nomination in the Entertainment News or Feature category was entitled "Valley Christian Alumna Kenna on Verge of Debut Single, Album."

The story outlined how Kenna was primarily known for being a varsity member of the girl's basketball team at Valley Christian but then recorded her first self-titled album, "Kenna" coming less than a year after she graduated from V.C.

HMG-CN won six Press Club Awards in 2012, 2013, and 2014.

In 2012, HMG-CN won 1st place in the Investigative Series category for its exclusive expose on Assessor John Noguez in what turned out to be the "biggest financial scandal in Los Angeles history," according to then-Los Angeles District Attorney Steve Cooley.

As a result of the series, Noguez was arrested on bribery and corruption charges and is awaiting trial.

A number of other arrests were made, including Tax Agent Ramin Salari and Mark McNeil one of Noguez' deputies.

Noguez was charged with 30 felony counts, including four counts of accepting bribes; five counts of perjury; two counts of conspiracy; and 19 counts of misappropriation by a public officer. The complaint alleges the fraud and embezzlement exceeded $500,000.

If convicted as charged, Noguez faces up to 38 years in state prison.

Salari was charged with 59 felony counts, including 24 counts of bribing an executive officer; two counts of conspiracy; 19 counts of misappropriation; seven counts of embezzlement; and seven counts of grand theft.

If convicted, he faces up to 60 years in state prison.

McNeil was charged with 20 felony counts, including one count of conspiracy and 19 counts of misappropriation by a public officer.

If convicted, he faces up to 29 years in state prison.

Wholesale institutional changes were also made at the Assessor's office to eradicate future abuses of the system.

The series also garnered a Pulitzer Prize nomination for HMG-CN.

HMG-CN took home 1st place in 2013 for Best News Feature entitled "Undercover FBI Agent Rocky Patel Used Dal Rae in Pico Rivera to Stage Calderon Sting Operation."

HMG-CN also took home two 2nd place awards in 2013 for Investigative Series and Hard News category.

In 2014, HMG-CN won two awards including 1st place in the Investigative Series, beating out the venerable Los Angeles Times and other daily Los Angeles newspapers with a story about the La Mirada Football Booster Club entitled "La Mirada Football Booster Club Under Scrutiny by Attorney General."

This was the second time in three years that HMG-CN won one of the Los Angeles Press Club's most prestigious awards.

The investigation revealed that the Booster Club violated several California laws and had little or no oversight on where or how hundreds of thousands of dollars were spent every year.

Even more alarming, the Booster Club indicated on all donation documents that it was a registered 501c3 non-profit organization, going so far as using an inactive and non-existent identification number.

The investigation also revealed that the organization did not have a California Franchise Tax Board number, and therefore did not remit taxable sales from fundraisers to the state.

Finally, no year-end or internal financial statements have been generated since 2006, and sources told HMG-CN that there are no bank statements available from the organization.

HMG-CN won another award for second place in the News Feature category Under 1,000 words category for the riveting expose on former Central Basin Municipal Water District GM Art Aguilar and his expensive golf outings with top officials at Pacifica Services, Inc., including CEO Ernie Camacho and VP Mike Sisson, that Aguilar did not report on his Statement of Economic Interests Form 700.

After the story published, the California Fair Political Practices Commission investigated Aguilar and eventually fined him $30,000.

Prestigious Jack Kent Cooke Scholarship Goes to Cerritos College Student

Alejandra Carranza, a Cerritos College honors student, was named one of the nation's top scholars by the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship Program.

Alejandra of Huntington Park was among 75 students chosen from a competitive nationwide pool. The scholarship – one of the most competitive undergraduate transfer scholarships in the nation – will provide Alejandra with up to $40,000 per year to complete a bachelor's degree.

Alejandra discovered her interest in research last summer when she participated in the Bridges to Baccalaureate program at California State University, Long Beach, in which she investigated the effect of lead on the development of Drosophila melanogaster (fruit flies) and presented her research results at several national undergraduate research conferences. She plans to continue her undergraduate research at UCLA in neuroscience, and further her study to complete an MD/Ph. D. program to combine her passion for research and desire to work with patients as a physician or surgeon in the future.

"I have seen first-hand the dire need in the Hispanic community for physicians who are culturally sensitive and dedicated to serving underinsured and marginalized communities with the same standard of care provided elsewhere," said Alejandra.

The Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship is the largest private scholarship in the nation for students transferring from two-year community colleges to four-year institutions that award bachelor's degrees.

Gymnasium which will be completed this summer. Playgrounds are a great place for healthy development of a child's physical, motor, social, and cognitive skills. Plans are in progress to make similar improvements at Gardenhill and Windermere Parks next year.

"La Mirada provides a number of outstanding recreational opportunities for all ages and interests," says Community Services Director Lori Thompson. "The City is honored to receive this recognition."

Programs and services are offered at the La Mirada Resource Center, Splash!, the Activity Center, Community Gymnasium, and La Mirada's park system.

HMG-CN Staff Report

Ellis Hews, daughter of HMG-CN Publisher/Owners Brian and Cora Hews, graduated with honors from the University of San Francisco last Friday May 20.

Hews graduated Cum Laude Majoring in Sociology, with a Minor in Gerontology.

While at USF, she worked for the school as a Community Assistant at the Loyola Village housing complex and also worked for the Institute on Aging based in the City.

CIF-SOUTHERN SECTION DIVISION III SOFTBALL PLAYOFFS

NORWALK’S VASQUEZ IS BETTER THAN BEST IN FIRST ROUND WIN

By Loren Kopff
@LorenKopff on Twitter

PALOS VERDES ESTATES-Norwalk High sophomore pitcher Breanna Vasquez and Palos Verdes High’s Steffi Best were locked into a pitcher’s duel early in their California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Division III first round game last Thursday. But all of the important action came in the last inning when Best was tagged for three of the five hits Norwalk collected.

Meanwhile, Vasquez was throwing a no-hitter until Keziah Jones led off the bottom of the seventh inning with a home run. In the end, Vasquez was more dominating as she struck out the final two batters of the game to preserve a 2-1 victory. It’s the first time the Lady Lancer’s program has advanced beyond the first round since 2007. In that season, Norwalk edged Mira Costa High 2-1 in a wild card game, then blanked Atascadero High 3-0 on the road.

“It’s an exciting time for our players, school and community,” said Norwalk head coach Paulette Gasporra. “The Lady Lancers worked hard this season and they are excited to move on to the second round of the playoffs.”

The win snapped a stretch of eight straight playoff losses for the Lady Lancers. After six scoreless innings and just two hits off of Best, the Suburban League tri-champions began the top of the seventh with a leadoff single from senior left fielder Briana Lopez. On the next pitch, she raced all the way to third on a bunt from junior second baseman Samantha Navarrete. One pitch later, senior catcher Samantha Ontiveros singled to center to bring home Lopez.

Senior center fielder Serena Nicolas then stepped up and worked Best to a full count before depositing a base hit to the right field gap to plate junior courtesy runner Mercedes Orozco.

“We have been working on getting our bunts down and being aggressive runners, trying to get more than one base on a sacrifice bunt,” Gasporra said. “Briana is quick. She saw [third] base unattended and went for it.”

As far as the pitching went, it was just another spectacular outing for Vasquez, who gave up just the home run and struck out 16. She was perfect until she hit Al-lisa Beall to begin the sixth but Ontiveros threw her out at second. Following the home run, Claire Malit reached on an error and Vasquez walked Best.

A sacrifice from Katie Silvestri moved the runners over. But the 15th and 16th strikeouts ended further damage. Vasquez threw a first pitch strike to 18 of the 24 batters she faced and was ahead 0-2 11 times. In the other dugout, Best retired the first nine she faced and ended up with nine strikeouts.

“Coming into this game, we knew that it was going to be a good matchup,” Gasporra said. “The first three innings we struggled to get on base. Best is a good pitcher. She hit her corners and got a few of our hitters on her outside pitch and changeup. Breanna was solid for us in the circle this game and throughout our season.”

This past Tuesday, Norwalk continued its season in dramatic fashion as junior first baseman Ashley Ponce smacked a solo home run over the left center fence with one out in the bottom of the seventh to give her team a 2-1 win over Alemany High. The Lady Lancers improved to 15-9 and moved into the quarterfinals for the first time in school history. Norwalk (15-9 overall) hosted fourth-ranked Burroughs High out of Burbank on May 26.

Norwalk trailed Alemany 1-0 heading into the bottom of the fourth when Vasquez doubled to centerfield and scored on a two-out single from Nicolas. Vasquez was brilliant in the circle again, scattering five hits and striking out nine while yielding a home run to Savannah Pinedo.

Ex-Cerritos stars Cameron, Iseri close the book on their freshmen year of college

By Loren Kopff
@LorenKopff on Twitter

LONG BEACH-For four years, Heather Cameron and Jennifer Iseri were just two dominant fixtures that help resurrect the Cerritos High softball program to prominence. Now the two best friends, who first met 10 years ago, are back home after completing their freshmen campaigns at the University of Hawai’i.

Cameron and Iseri, who helped Cerritos to a 71-30 combined record from 2012-2015, the best four-year mark for the program since it went 85-38 from 1999-2002, had their shares of highs and lows this past season for the Rainbow Wahine. But they also agreed that it was a learning lesson, one that will help them as they move on in their college days.

“It was rough for me,” Cameron said. “Adjusting is a big deal for grades and for softball. But having Jen with me and always being there...she’s always been there since I was eight. Everything is great when she’s behind me and I made great friends and great teammates and they’ve always pushed me. I can’t complain.”

“I think I expected a little bit more, both offensively and defensively,” Iseri said. “Playing more in the outfield than pitching was a big step for me and a big change for me as well. But I love it. I’m willing to do anything that there is to benefit the team.”

UH ended its regular season against Long Beach State University on May 13 and 14, winning the first game 3-2 before dropping both games of a doubleheader, 1-0 and 4-2. Iseri didn’t play in any of the games but Cameron was behind the plate in the first two games and was hitless in four official at-bats. In the May 13 game, Cameron led off in the top of the third, fifth and seventh innings while she came up with the bases loaded in the second inning on May 14 and with a runner on base in the fourth.

Cameron and Iseri were first noticed by UH head coach Bob Coolen at a Junior Olympic Tournament in Las Vegas in June prior to setting foot at Cerritos High. It didn’t take Coolen, who has been on the islands for 25 seasons, long to take notice that he wanted Cameron and Iseri.

“It was their softball awareness,” Coolen remembered. “Both of them had a softball IQ; they knew the game. I could tell Cam was a student of the game as well as Jen, and it comes from having dads as coaches. That sort of translates to a little bit of IQ.

“Jen being a lefty, everyone wants lefties,” he continued. “So she translates for our team better. We can use her to pitch, we can put her in the outfield and get her from the left side. Cam’s been doing a very good job. She works very well with our pitching, especially Brittany [Hitchcock]. Brittany likes to throw to her.”

Cameron didn’t get her feet wet until the sixth game of the season, Feb. 15, when she started her first collegiate game against the University of Missouri, Kansas City. But in her fifth game, which was also her second start, she recorded her first hit on Feb. 26 against Utah Valley. Including her performance against LBSU, Cameron ended her freshman season with seven hits in 46 at-bats.

“I couldn’t stop shaking and I made a couple of errors,” Cameron recalled of the UMKC game. “But after that, I was comfortable with the pitchers and playing with the team and I felt a lot better after that first game.

She added that she really needed to work hard to adjust to the Hitchcock, a sophomore from Ocean View High School, and junior Kanani Aina Cabrales, a transfer from Georgia Tech University. But on Mar. 4 against Coastal Carolina University, and the 19th game of the season, Cameron caught Iseri, who was making her first start of the season. Iseri would pitch eight innings and give up two runs in a victory.

“I always have max confidence whenever [Jennifer and I] are the battery because we just click so well,” Cameron said “We kind of have the same brain in a way. We know what we’re going to call and we know how it’s going to go and if things go bad, we know how to fix it.”

“I think it’s easier for a catcher to adjust to pitchers just by catching them in practice,” Coolen said. “A pitcher adjusting to a new catcher has to learn their mentality with calling; how they frame the ball in a particular situation. I like to put Jen and Heather together because they do have knowledge of each other, and they work really well.”

Cameron would catch Iseri seven more times, the last coming on Apr. 30 at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

As for Iseri, she finished the season with a 3-4 record and an earned run average of 3.72 with four complete games. She would see time in the circle 14 times, starting eight games. With Cameron catching her, Iseri went 3-3. Her first time in the circle came seven games into the season against Brigham Young University on Feb. 18.

“I definitely had confidence in the two upperclassmen and I knew what my role was from the start,” Iseri said. “It was pretty laid out as to what my role was, which was to back them up.”

Between pitching and playing in left field, Iseri appeared in 22 games, starting 14 times, and batted .196. She scored nine times, drive in three runs and had two doubles.

“I have been told I have the No. 3 best left-handed hitter sitting on my bench out of the California coming out of high school,” Coolen said. “That has been thrown in my face.”

Coolen says that Cameron and Iseri are now going to be the cornerstone and foundation at the same time to help build the UH program and that the positive asset they possess is their atonement not to get down on themselves when they get in an unsuccessful situation

“Both of them are in a place right now where they can develop,” Coolen said. “Right now, they haven’t plateaued in regards to the athleticism in where we want them to go with that athleticism.”

“I didn’t think I was going to start as much as I did,” Cameron said. “But I knew that I would have to work hard like everyone else to get the starting spot. It was a great journey just working hard with everyone. I did progress and I know that I can [progress] more.”

While the sport of softball is played the same from recreation ball all the way to college and beyond, there are some differences between being a senior in high school and a freshman in college. Both Cameron and Iseri talked about self motivation because they are in now in a different setting, over 2,500 miles from home, and away from visual contact with their parents and childhood friends. They had to learn from, and listen to new coaches, new teammates, and of course, new teachers and counselors on the UH campus.

“I learned a lot,” Iseri said. “I learned that it is all the stories that I’ve been told. It’s pretty much your life. Being on the road and travelling all the time and being so consumed with the team...that’s such a big part of being successful. The biggest thing I learned is that your work ethic can never stop.”

“Self motivation is everything,” Cameron said. “My parents aren’t there to push me to study and they’re not there after the practices yelling at me and telling me, ‘you need to perform better’. That’s the coach’s job now. Just learning how to adjust to everything is a big learning curve.”

Cameron added the best part of her freshman season was simply learning the new personalities of the team and getting to know them, especially when the Rainbow Wahine would travel to Las Vegas for a tournament or to California four times for Big West Conference games. She said that travelling brought the team together.

Iseri added that even though she has known her teammates for less than a calendar year, she feels like she has known some of them her whole life.

“All of the fun that we had off the field and on the field...it just makes the experience very worthwhile and memorable,” Iseri said. “I know that some of the girls on the team are going to be my friends for the rest of my life.”

As far as what to expect next season, Cameron, who switched her major to Natural Resources and Environmental Management, is planning on starting more games behind the plate as this past season’s primary catcher, Rachel Lack (31 starts), is going to be on the Australian National Team.

“I’m planning on taking it and going all out with it,” Cameron said. “I’m planning on improving my hitting and every other aspect of my catching.”

Iseri, a business major, says she wants to improve on her confidence and her approach because she feels like those were her stronger assets in the past. She admitted that she didn’t do a great job of transferring that to the college life.

UH will return all three pitchers and Iseri knows what her role will be in the circle. But at the same time, she is willing to work in the outfield so she can get a starting spot there and still be in the pitching rotation if need be.

“I know there are plans of me possibly trying to work at first base as well,” Iseri said. “Whatever it takes for me to get into the starting lineup is what I’ll do. Overall, I want to work on my offense because ultimately that’s what gets you into the game.”

run in Division III action while Whitney High sophomore Angelina Crittenden finished in seventh place in the 100 meter dash with a time of 12.29 in Division IV action. She also had a time of 25.13 in the 200 meter dash.

SWIMMING AND DIVING
Whitney High sophomore Alyson Tam, who was seeded 12th, finished in fourth place in the CIF State Swimming and Diving Championships with 478 points.

BASEBALL

Gahr High, which was the second seeded team in Division II, was upset by Redlands east Valley High 1-0 this past Tuesday in a second round game. The Gladiators, who had won 16 of their last 17 games entering the game, conclude the season at 24-7.

SOFTBALL
Gahr High continued to roll as it smashed Summit High 15-3 this past Tuesday in a Division III second round game. Sophomores Dejanae Davis and Karrington Houshmandzadeh and freshman Paloma Usquiano all had three hits as the Lady Gladiators (24-5-2) pounded out 16 hits. Third seeded Gahr hosted sixth seeded Redondo High on May 26 in a quarterfinal game.

first two rounds and got past El Segundo High in five sets before sweeping top ranked Quartz Hill High in the semifinals. Kwak's 2000 championship team swept its first two opponents before eliminating fourth ranked Redondo High, top ranked Santa Barbara High and third ranked Mater Dei.

It wasn't looking too good for the Crusaders in the fourth set when the Phantoms raced out to an 8-3 lead. But Davis, who had been limited to eight kills up to this point, dominated the remainder of the set. Davis posted nine kills in the set and his ace tied the score at 12-12. Later, he had back to back kills to put the Crusaders up 18-16.

Then in the fifth set, it was senior middle blocker Giovanni Morandini's moment in the spotlight. He had four of V.C.'s first five points as the Crusaders got out to a 5-1 lead before Cathedral head coach Deon Jones called a timeout. The Phantoms took leads of 7-6, 10-9 and 11-10. But Davis and senior opposite hitter Spencer Fredrick combined for the final five points to seal the victory.

"It was awesome," Davis said. "We always get on Gio because he's a middle and we need him. He's a big player for us. As soon as we got out there on the floor, I told him, 'Gio, I need you this game. We're going to win it. It's going to be you. I know you're going to do it'. He comes up big whenever we need him, so it's awesome."

"I just had a lot of faith in the kid's teamwork," Kwak said. "We were pushed; Cathedral is a great team. I know Deon; I played with him in college. Credit to our guys, we told them, 'it's always we stay as a team. We fight as six, not as one'. We were kind of going that route and then in the fourth and fifth set is when we really cemented and we really stood down and got together."

The Crusaders (27-2) fell behind 6-2 in the first set and never led by more than a point, which occurred four times. They held a 15-14 advantage before a kill from Abraham Romero ignited a seven-point scoring spree for Cathedral. V.C. would have a hitting percentage of .139 in the set, and would see that number slip to .133 in the second set despite tying the match.

"There wasn't anything specific [I said] to be honest," Kwak said. "Our guys coming in were hyped and we knew what we wanted to do. But it's always hard when you're on the floor against a really powerful team."

V.C. was up 16-10 in the second set before Cathedral rallied to trail by two points twice. But Fredrick had a pair of kills around a block from junior outside hitter Kyle Anema to close out the set. The Phantoms then were in control most of the third set as V.C. led only three times early on, never by more than a point.

"We saw Quartz Hill as a really strong competitor and we went into that game knowing that," Davis said. "I think that's what made us play so well. In this game, we kind of underestimated them a little, I feel like. But it's hard to underestimate a team like that because they don't look that big. But they're scrappy, they know how to hit and they know how to play volleyball."

Kwak pointed out that his team was lacking in the middle during the first three sets and was having problems with serve receive.

"Cathedral has great ball control and they did a great way of funneling things," Kwak said. "And they made sure that we hit balls the way they were dictating. That was getting our players very frustrated. When they were trying to slow down Spencer, luckily we had Miller and Kyle that came on."

Davis led the Crusaders with 21 kills and 19 digs while Fredrick added 16 kills along with nine digs and five blocks. Anema pitched in with 11 kills and 15 digs while Morandini (nine blocks), senior libero Kyle Vander Meulen (12 digs) and senior setter John Fey (50 assists) also had big performances.

"It's good to have a team where we have so many weapons because the other team doesn't know how to stop it," Davis said. "The first game we had jitters and we really didn't know how to control them. We've never been in a scale that big."

tween Mayor Lilia Leon, Mayor pro tem Tina Baca Del Rio, and Councilmembers Ivan Altamirano and Oralia Reballo who voted 4-0 to use a little known law to initiate a lawsuit against the recently elected Argumedo.

The lawsuit was a culmination of several back room deals that included City Attorney Eduardo Olivo classifying a public letter, written by former Commerce Council candidate John Soria, as a closed session item to keep the lawsuit discussion away from public scrutiny and outside of the City Council chambers.

The letter basically asked for a change in the city’s theft and fraud policy. Olivo and Council applied their own interpretation to the letter, agreed the policy should be changed retroactively to include Argumedo, and initiated the “litigation.”

In doing so, the Council violated the Brown Act by not adequately describing the Argumedo closed session item contained in the Council Agenda that was posted online.

Soria was a bitter rival of Argumedo and came in last place in the Mar. 3 election. HMG-CN first reported that Soria lied on his campaign materials claiming he was a “law enforcement professional” when in reality he is a police dispatcher.

Soria had good reason to write the letter as sources are telling HMG-CN that if Argumedo loses the lawsuit, Soria would be endorsed by all City Councilmembers to take his place.

H M G - C N

requested the “report out” of the Apr. 21 closed session meeting that stated, “in regards to [the Argumedo issue], pursuant to the advice of the City Attorney [Olivo], Councilmember Argumedo recused himself from participating in the matter due to potential conflict of interest regarding the subject matter to be discussed and the potential initiation of litigation action by the City; Councilmember Argumedo left the room.”

The document went on to say, “Mayor Pro Tem Baca Del Rio moved, seconded by Mayor Leon, to direct City Attorney to initiate communication with the California Attorney General (AG) regarding the initiation of a “quo warranto” matter.

Councilmembers Altamirano, Reballo, Mayor Pro Tem Baca Del Rio and Mayor Leon all voted yes to initiate the costly litigation.

According to the AG’s website, the term “quo warranto” is Latin for “by what authority,” or “by what authority does this person hold this office?”

Quo warranto is a special form of legal action used to resolve a dispute over whether a specific person has the legal right to hold the public office that he or she occupies. For example, a quo warranto action may be brought to determine whether a public official satisfies a requirement that he or she resides in the district; or whether a public official is serving in two incompatible offices.

Interestingly and pertinent to Councilman Argumedo, quo warranto is not available to decide whether an official has committed misconduct in office.

The statement would be in direct opposition to the meaning of the Soria letter as interpreted by the City Attorney and Council, that is, to retroactively apply a fraud and theft policy so they can remove Argumedo.

Based on the vote, City Attorney Olivo will likely earn some hefty fees during litigation, as the process is very detailed.

Barela, at the May 19 hearing, was obviously angry saying, “this motion is misplaced there's no reason why I should be hearing anything here. I sentenced Mr. Argumedo to probation, it was clear that he could not hold office during the period of probation, which as far as I was concerned, meant that once he successfully completed probation, if he wanted to run for office that was his business.”

Barela then questioned the attorneys asking who was trying to keep Argumedo from holding the office.

“Was it the city?”
Argumedo's attorney Carlos Ramirez said yes was the city of Commerce
Barela then said, “everything is clear, probation was for three years, he finished the probation, as far as I'm concerned he properly ran, he won, he should be allowed to take the (Council) seat. You (Argumedo) should sue the City”

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING/PROPOSED ORDINANCE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Cerritos City Council will conduct a public hearing and consider a proposed ordinance at a regular meeting on June 9, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. on the following matter:

Review and consideration to waive full reading of and introduce AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF CERRITOS AMENDING CHAPTER 20.30 AND CHAPTER 22.40 OF THE CERRITOS MUNICIPAL CODE RELATING TO THE PROHIBITION OF SHORT-TERM RENTALS OF SINGLE-FAMILY RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES, HEREIN REFERENCED AS DEVELOPMENT CODE AMENDMENT 2016-3.*

City Attorney Summary: This development code amendment proposes to prohibit short-term rentals of single family residential properties in all residential zones throughout the City. Short-term rentals refer to the renting or leasing of a residential dwelling unit for transient use for a period of thirty-one (31) days or less, and include vacation rentals or home share rentals. Due to the increasing popularity of short-term rentals as a preferred type of transient housing accommodation, such rentals adversely impact the residential character of communities and expand the traditional uses of single-family homes, condos, and apartments into private and unregulated hotel rooms.

Pursuant to Section 15061(b)(3) of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), this project is categorically exempt from CEQA Review.

This public hearing will be conducted in the Council Chambers of the Cerritos City Hall, Cerritos Civic Center, Bloomfield Avenue and 183rd Street in Cerritos, California 90703. The meeting will also air live on Cerritos TV3 and will be streamed over the City of Cerritos website at www.cerritos.us. A copy of the related staff report will be available for download from the website by 6:00 p.m. on the Friday prior to the public hearing. In addition, full text of the proposed ordinance can be obtained at the City Clerk's Office, located at 18125 Bloomfield Avenue, Cerritos, CA 90703.

If you challenge the above mentioned item and related actions in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the Cerritos City Council at, or prior to, the public hearing.

Any person interested in this matter may contact the Department of Community Development at (562) 916-1201 for additional information and/or appear at the hearing in person or by agent and be heard.

“State Superintendent of Public Instruction Endorses Local Montebello Unified School Bond Measure GS”

“The real winners in passing of this bond are the children and students of Montebello Unified School District. With the passing of the bond, the district will also qualify for matching funds from the state. I am proud to support Montebello School Bond Measure GS,” said Tom Torlakson, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Why Support Montebello Schools?

IT'S AS SIMPLE AS A-B-C

A is for All - because we need to make sure that all of our children get the education they need to succeed.

B is for Best - because our kids deserve the best facilities, like modern computers, science labs, and libraries.

C is for Careers - because better education today will prepare kids for tomorrow's world-changing career opportunities.
