SANTA FE SPRINGS officials and Whole Child representatives, along with Supervisor Janice Hahn and Constanza Pachon, CEO of The Whole Child (center) break ground. The facility will be a three-story building fully developed and managed by The Whole Child. The site could provide interim housing for up to 40 homeless families at any time and is expected to serve over 150 families per year. It is a first of its kind in California.

Enjoy the Music: La Mirada's Stroll in the Park

By Tammy McDuff

Summertime in the Southland means city activities and family-friendly concerts in the park. The routine is fairly common, albeit a pleasure to sit in the park with friends and family and indulge in summertime cuisine.

La Mirada, however, has regular concerts in the park.

Each July, Creek Park is home to the popular "Stroll in the Park". This event features food booths and musical entertainment. Creek Park covers 26 acres along the La Mirada flood control channel. The eastern end of this creatively designed park features a fire ring, an amphitheater and a horse arena.

HMG-CN Investigation $150 Million in Out-of-State Money Funding Yes on 27 Online Gaming Proposition

By Brian Hews

Proponents of Proposition 27 claim the initiative "guarantees hundreds of millions of dollars every year ... eighty-five percent of all tax revenue goes to fund solutions to homelessness, mental health and addiction.."

Critics call the Corporate Online Gambling Act a deceptive proposition to legalize online sports gambling across California, turning virtually every cellphone, tablet and laptop into a gambling device.

They claim the fine print says 90% of the revenue will go to the online corporations and nothing will be earmarked for the homeless, no real jobs will be created, and the agreements between California and tribes will suffer, draining billions of dollars from the state.

They also claim out-of-state

Letter Recruiting CRT - Right-Wing ABCUSD Board Candidates Hits Cerritos Mailboxes

Letter comes just months after ABC VP Soo Yoo attended a right-wing CRT meeting at the Cerritos Library.

By Brian Hews

Hews Media Group-Community News has obtained a disturbing letter mailed to ABC Unified School District residents from Shawn Steel, an attorney who does not live in the district, and husband of Rep. Michelle Steel, attempting to recruit right-wing candidates for this year's ABCUSD board election.

Residents in ABCUSD Area 3 who received the letter might be interested to know Steel's extremely questionable history and his right-wing Critical Race Theory-type views.

ABCUSD Trustee Area 3 in red is entirely in Cerritos. South Street is on the bottom, Artesia Blvd. is on the top. The 91 freeway cuts through the area, the blank area above the TA3 is the Cerritos Towne Center.

Steel was linked in a Wall Street Journal report in 2020 to an effort by Chinese foreign nationals to influence the Trump administration.

In 2017 the Journal reported that donors with ties to the Chinese state gave Trump hundreds of thousands of dollars for his re-election campaign in exchange for access.

According to the Journal, some Chinese nationals were guests of Steel at an invitation-only meeting in San Diego in May 2017, where Republican leaders discussed campaign strategy.

Steel's guests included a Chinese Communist party leader, a government-connected Chinese businessman, a Chinese-born U.S. citizen working for a company that donated $300,000 and the founder of Chinese Americans for Trump, who, per the Journal, gave $150,000 to Trump's campaign.

Downey Honors a Hometown Hero Killed Abroad

By Tammy McDuff

Marine Lance Cpl. Joshua R. Whittle died June 6, 2009, serving during Operation Enduring Freedom. He graduated from Warren High School in Downey and was eventually assigned to 2nd Battalion, 3rd Marines, 3rd Marine Division, III Marine Expeditionary Force, Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii. He was killed while supporting combat operations in Now Zad, Afghanistan.

Although he was only 12 years old, the September 11 terrorist attacks profoundly changed Whittle and eventually sent him down a path from which he never wavered. Whittle wanted nothing more than to become a U.S. Marine.

them. Our communities' safety depends on law enforcement and the citizens they serve, and these events enhance that cooperation."

Downey held their ninth annual National Night Out, August 2nd sponsored in part with the Downey Police Department. It was a fun evening for the entire family with great music, amazing K-9 and Fire Department demonstrations, vendor booths and face painting for young Downey residents. This event started as part of the Healthy Downey initiative and continues to grow in popularity as a community favorite.

The City of Bellflower held its annual NNO event as part of the Streetfest. Public safety vehicles, such as patrol cars and motorcycles, were parked for up-close viewing and photo opportunities. Informational brochures and details were handed out regarding Neighborhood Watch involvement. Deputies and staff handed out giveaways and snacks.

It was a good turnout for Artesia's National Night Out. This year city council asked the different law enforcement and first responder agencies to come together to meet and speak with residents. "Thank you to the Parks and Recreation staff who did another wonderful job putting this event together. Thank you to our Lakewood Sheriff's Station Artesia Sergeant Ramos and deputies, Los Angeles County Fire Department Station 30, and for the first time, California Highway Patrol. Hopefully, we can get more agencies next time, but grateful either way for everyone that came out, especially our residents," added Mayor Melisa Ramoso.

Cerritos NNO was held Thursday, August 4, as part of the Heritage Park Island Concerts Under the Stars series. The City celebrated National Night Out while listening to top 40 classic rock sounds of Midnight Rid. In addition, a classic car show and Sheriff's Department personnel from the Cerritos Station presented crime prevention, safety, disaster preparedness and Homeland Security information. "Operation Kid Print" was available for parents wanting to maintain a fingerprint card on their child.

Multi-Hospital Active Shooter Drill at Fountain Valley

PARTICIPANTS in the drill. Active shooter events at a healthcare facility present unique challenges. Healthcare professionals can be faced with a decision about what to do with patients, visitors and staff may not be able to evacuate due to age, injury, illness; or a medical procedure in progress which cannot be stopped.

By Tammy McDuff

An Active Shooter Drill was held at Fountain Valley Regional Hospital on Warner Avenue the morning of Aug. 4.

Active shooter events at a health-care facility present unique challenges; healthcare professionals can be faced with a decision about what to do with patients; visitors and staff may not be able to evacuate due to age, injury, illness, or a medical procedure in progress.

There is no single method to respond to an active shooter event, but prior planning and training will allow healthcare professionals to choose the best option during an active shooter situation, with the goal of maximizing lives saved.

Questions arise: What does a health-care facility do when so many people can't evacuate? There is no way to "Lockdown" every room, how can a hospital "lockdown" or secure in place? Hospitals are limited on staff until help arrives, how would a limited staff counter?

SWAT, Law Enforcement, EMS Agencies and hospitals participated in a countywide active shooter drill. In the wake of recent mass shootings, Fountain Valley Regional Hospital played host to a large, multi-first responder and multi-hospital drill to help prepare for potential shooter situations.

Other hospitals participating are:

- Children's Hospital of Orange
- UCI Medical Center
- Martin Luther King Jr.
- Lakewood Regional
- Los Alamitos Medical Center
- Placentia-Linda Hospital
- Western Medical Center

First responders and/or allied agencies participating or being represented include:

- West County SWAT
- Fountain Valley PD
- Garden Grove Police Department
- Westminster Police Department
- San Bernardino School PD
- Fountain Valley Fire Department

If an active shooter incident occurs, hospitals must balance the need for safety and security while continuing to provide care in a therapeutic environment.

This means dealing with the risk associated with abandoning care versus continuing care under the stress of knowing that an active shooter has not been neutralized.

Unlike school shootings that involve lockdown and evacuation, hospitals must still deliver care and ensure patient safety. Operations cannot entirely cease if a shooter is located on one floor. ICU care and OR suites located in different hospital wings must still operate or suffer the risk of failing to provide necessary medical care.

LA MIRADA THEATRE NOTCHES RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

Staff Report

The Tony-nominated La Mirada Theatre For The Performing Arts announced that its recently-concluded 2021-2022 season of shows broke its box office records for attendance, single ticket sales & overall revenue -- the most ever in its 45-year history. The 2021-2022 season opened with the West Coast premiere of Clue, followed by Mamma Mia!, Million Dollar Quartet, The Sound of Music and recently closed with In the Heights.

Total season attendance (single tickets and subscribers) outpaced the previous record-holder, its 2018-2019 season, by almost 10%. Total revenues (single tickets and subscribers) outpaced the previous record-holder, its 2015-2016 season, by almost 15%.

BT McNicholl, the theatre's Producing Artistic Director, is encouraged. "It's a happy surprise, and it reflects well upon the entire theatre-going experience at La Mirada Theatre -- from box office reps to front-of-house, from backstage to onstage. We're grateful to the patrons for their loyalty and enthusiasm."

La Mirada Theatre is unique among U.S. regional houses: its shows are sponsored solely by a municipality, the City of La Mirada, which also owns and manages the theatre itself. It has engaged a co-producer for its Theatre series since opening in 1977 -- first Herb Rogers Prods. and, later, McCoy Rigby Entertainment.

"We are very pleased with the theatre's success this year in terms of record-breaking attendance and revenue," commented La Mirada City Manager Jeff Boynton, "especially given the challenges of navigating through the pandemic. These extraordinary results are reflective of the hard work of all the theatre staff, and our partners at McCoy Rigby Entertainment and Sweibel Arts Consulting."

"McCoy Rigby Entertainment loves producing the "Broadway Series" at the historic and beautiful La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts., said Tom McCoy, "I am so fortunate to have the best and most talented staff on the planet, who brings together theatre artists from around the country, creating excellence and true theatre magic over the course of a season. Live theatre is back and better than ever at La Mirada, and moving forward at light speed."

La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts & McCoy Rigby Entertainment's 2022-2023 season of shows promises to be another record-breaker with the Southern California premiere of legendary actress Sally Struthers ("All In The Family," "Gilmore Girls") starring as "Frau Blücher" in the newly-revised, London version of the monstrously hilarious musical hit, Mel Brooks' Young Frankenstein, which opens on Saturday, September 17, 2022. Aaron Sorkin's brilliant and riveting military drama, A Few Good Men, follows. Audiences will then be hand-jiving to the smash-hit grease and "whistling a happy tune" to Rodgers and Hammerstein's legendary the King and I. The season will close with Andrew Lloyd Webber's fan-favorite, family-friendly Joseph and The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat!

Subscriptions and single tickets to this extraordinary season are now available by calling the Box Office at 562-944-9801 or 714-994-6310 or online at www.lamiradatheatre.com.

Subscription prices range from $71.25 to $323.75 (La Mirada resident discount prices are $57.00 to $260.00).

The La Mirada Theatre is located at 14900 La Mirada Boulevard in La Mirada, near the intersection of Rosecrans Avenue where the 91 and 5 freeways meet. Parking is free.

Construction Delays in Lakewood

The current renovation work at San Martin and Rynerson parks have been slowed by supply chain problems according to the city.

San Martin Park's new picnic shelters and tot lot playground are being affected.

Rynerson Park is having new picnic shelters installed, restrooms renovated, and repairs made to hardscape and bridges over a flood control channel. The restroom renovations have been successfully completed, but the picnic shelters and repairs to the bridges and hardscape have been delayed because of a shortage in key construction materials.

"We're doing everything we can to find ways to speed the work along to completion," said Lakewood Public Works Director Kelli Pickler.

Another unexpected impact from the delays has been the growth of tall grass in hard-to-reach, fenced-in areas of the constructions sites.

"Usually, a project is completed before grass can grow that tall," said Pickler. "But with these delays, the grass has grown to unsightly levels, so we are working with our contractors to have them get into those tight, fenced-in areas and cut the grass down. Some degree of messiness is inevitable with a construction site, but we want to keep our city worksites as neat as possible for our residents."

ONE IMPACT from the delays has been the growth of tall grass in hard-to-reach, fenced-in areas of the construction sites.

Steel told the Journal it would be "false, defamatory and offensive" to suggest he helped the Chinese government's efforts, and he didn't respond to the O.C. Register's requests for comment at the time.

Steel's letter comes just ten months after a controversial meeting, organized by the Cerritos Republican Club, who invited Gracey Van Der Mark to speak at the Cerritos Library.

Van Der Mark is a highly controversial Huntington Beach resident who has been accused of being affiliated with the white supremacist Proud Boys while at the same time being accused of racist social media posts.

The flyer promoting Van Der Mark's appearance at the library was entitled "What are your kids learning? Join the non-partisan, educational conversation on our children's education. Critical Race Theory is being taught to our students without our consent and we must engage together for the future of our kids."

The meeting was attended by current ABC Board President and Assembly candidate Soo Yoo and Board Member Michael Eugenio. Yoo was VP at the time and was accused by parents of giving the impression that the ABCUSD was endorsing the Van Der Mark and the meeting.

Parents slammed both Yoo and Eugenio on social media and at the next board meeting for attending the meeting.

Education/Indoctrination; Critical Race Theory; Democrats Hurting Kids

The Steel letter, which also has the Republican National Committee seal, used familiar right-wing talking points starting, "we need our parent school board member candidates who will help change the culture of our public schools."

The ABCUSD is one of the state's top school districts, winning numerous awards annually; one of its high schools, Gretchen Whitney, is a perennial top 3 high school in California, garnering number one in the state several times.

The letter continued with a now-familiar mantra, "we need school board members who emphasize education not indoctrination."

Education-indoctrination advocates espouse the right-wing theory that classrooms have changed from teaching "I think I can" to teaching "the system is rigged." They say, without any evidence, that children are taught that America is an awful place instead of learning that the nation was founded on the highest of ideals.

A second recruitment point stated, "we need school board members who emphasize real American history, not Critical Race Theory."

That statement is precisely what Van Der Mark emphasized at her Cerritos Library meeting: "Critical Race Theory is being taught to our students without our consent, and we must engage together for the future of our kids."

are hurting our kids."

That statement is as offensive as it is entirely ignorant.

The ABC Board, which over the years has been called "All aBout Cerritos," consists of four Republicans and three Democrats; Cerritos is dominated by Republican voters.

HMG-CN, in reporting on the ABC, has seen the board always operate in a bi-partisan manner over the years.

That is until Soo Yoo, a Republican, became president.

In her time representing the ABC USD, she has called out Mexicans for wasting money holding Quinceneras, called out teachers for demanding pay raises, and attended the Van Der Mark meeting.

Just months after the Van Der Mark meeting, and after ABC VP Soo Yoo softened the beach for right-wingers to invade, Steel's letter is sent to ABCUSD residents. An email into Mr. Steel at shawnsteel@shawnsteel.com went unanswered.

Darlene Matson, Whittle's sister, stated the memorial was a beautiful and amazing thing the city did. "It's a huge ball of emotion positively," said Matson. "Even though my brother is buried at Riverside National Cemetery, I still live in Downey. The fact that I can come here on those is comforting."

As the bagpipes played Amazing Grace, the memorial at the Downey Veterans Memorial honoring Whittle was revealed.

"Words cannot express the enthusiasm that I have and the honor that I feel standing before this," said Matson. "

Father Christopher Smith Retires

THE CHRIST CATHEDRAL parish community celebrated the retirement of Fr. Christopher Smith, the cathedral’s rector and episcopal vicar since 2012, on Sunday, June 26 inside the campus’ Cultural Center. Fr. Christopher was presented with a special plaque honoring his contributions to the restoration of the Hazel Wright Organ and a quilt that looked like the cathedral’s quatrefoils.

By Brian Hews

The Christ Cathedral lost a great rector and episcopal vicar to retirement a few weeks ago, and this publisher and his co-publisher-wife can attest to that. We have known Fr. Christopher Smith since the 90's when he became the Pastor at St. Joseph's Church in Santa Ana. He was there until 2012 when he took his position at Christ Cathedral. He was instrumental in bringing several ministries to St. Joseph's, including one of the largest Samoan ministries in Orange County. Every month parishioners would enjoy a Samoan Mass, complete with Samoans regaled in island costumes adorning the altar with hand-made leis to the blowing of conch shells before the Gospel to a terrific Samoan choir. HMG-CN wishes Fr. Smith fun and relaxation during retirement, always hoping he will come and preside at St. Norbert's in Orange so we can hear one of his epic sermons.

An examination by HMG-CN of Yes on 27 campaign committee documents for 2022 shows a massive $150 million in donations, with 95% coming from companies outside of California.

The list includes Bally’s Interactive, BETMGM and WSI from Nevada; Draftkings from Massachusetts, Penn Interactive from Pennsylvania and FBG Enterprises from Florida.

Yes on 27 is a sponsored committee; initially, the companies did not donate the money, opting to give the $100 million in funds as a loan which will have to paid back.

From Jan 1-March 31, 2022, $17 million was spent, a majority on petition and professional services.

Nearly $1.1 million went to digital advertising, a good chunk to the major daily newspapers up and down the state who are reporting on the proposition.

$118,000 went to the Los Angeles Times; $50,000 to the McClatchy Group; $50,000 to the New York Times and $24,000 to La Opinion.

$530,000 went to Google; $202,000 to Facebook and $124,000 to POLITICO.

But a smaller donation in February of this year will have many scratching their heads; $20,000 came from the Los Angeles County Democratic Party.

perfect setting for a peaceful morning jog or a family picnic.

The event showcases three musical presentations – simultaneously. One would think this would be pure cacophony, but with the unusual design of the park each entertainment group acoustically presents to listening audiences without drowning out or overpowering the other two.

This year the island Caribbean sounds of the steel drum could be heard from ‘Upstream’; Motown performers were rocking mid-park with ‘Blue Breeze’ and bringing in some Hawaiian soul were the ‘Kalama Brothers.

Food and craft vendors sold their wares, while the La Mirada Parks and Recreation Department held games and activities for the kids.

Residents are encouraged to bring blankets or lawn chairs, picnic or purchase food fare at the event, sit or stroll in the park while enjoying friends, family and summer evenings.

Cerritos Adopts Resolution Implementing Emergency Water Conservation

The Cerritos City Council recently adopted a resolution outlining emergency water conservation regulations that are now in effect. The regulations enacted are in response to the State Water Resources Control Board's adoption of emergency water conservation regulations in June.

Except when necessary to address an immediate health and safety need or to comply with a term or condition in a permit issued by a state or federal agency, the following actions are prohibited: washing of walkways, driveways or parking areas with a hose; allowing a hose to run continuously while washing vehicles; allowing sprinklers to direct water to areas other than landscape, causing runoff; using water to clean, fill or maintain levels in decorative fountains unless a recycling system is used; serving drinking water to any customer in a restaurant or other public place where food is served, sold or offered for sale unless expressly requested by the customer; and failing to repair all water leaks as soon as possible.

Residential and commercial landscape areas shall be watered solely between the hours of 4 p.m. and 10 a.m. and for no more than 10 minutes. Watering shall be limited to three times per week during the months of June through September, and two times per week during the months of October through May. Landscape irrigation for commercial nurseries and growers, fire and erosion protection, the protection of endangered species, environmental mitigation projects and properties using reclaimed water are exempt from this provision. Watering using a handheld container, a hose equipped with a shut off nozzle or the use of an irrigation system for short durations to make repairs are also exempt from the provision.

In accordance with State regulations, drip irrigation systems and other similar low-water irrigation systems are exempt from limitations on watering duration.

Violation of the regulations is an infraction punishable by a fine of up to $500 per day. The emergency regulations will remain in effect until the State-mandated restrictions expire, at which time the City Council will review the water supply conditions to determine the need for continued mandatory conservation measures.

Following are additional water conservation tips: run only full loads in clothes washers and dishwashers; avoid flushing toilets unnecessarily; dispose of tissues, insects and other similar waste in the trash instead; don't leave the water running when washing dishes, brushing your teeth or shaving; wash your produce in the sink or a pan that is partially filled with water instead of running water from the tap; store drinking water in the refrigerator rather than letting the tap run to get a cold glass of water; for fish owners, when you clean your fish tank, use the water you've drained on your plants. The water is rich in nitrogen and phosphorus, providing you with a free and effective fertilizer.

For more information about the City's recycled water system or water conservation, call the Water Division at (562) 407-2674.

The city brought in a wide variety of musical performers, including Alejandro Gonzalez, aka El Ke-Chechente Fernandez; Anything for Salinas Band; The Wiseguys and jazz legend Poncho Sanchez.

Along with the music was a kid's zone with giant interactive inflatables, a beer garden for the over 21 crowd, food

The festival access and activities were free to the public, and residents were encouraged to BYOC - bring your own chair

"This is how Montebello celebrates summer," said Mayor Kimberly Cawthorne, "with great food, opportunities to shop local, a Grammy-winning headliner, and of course plenty of dancing, this day was one for the books. We loved seeing the community come together and connect."

Special Promotions for Pet Adoptions in L.A. County

Staff Report

The Los Angeles County Department of Animal Care & Control (DACC) is pleased to join NBC4 and Telemundo 52's annual Clear the Shelters™ pet adoption and donation campaign for the eighth consecutive year.

This year the event will take place from August 1- 31st. During the month-long initiative, DACC's seven (7) animal care centers are joining at least 70 other animal shelters and nonprofit rescue organizations to create awareness about pet adoptions and help raise funds to support animal welfare.

Since its inception in 2015, this unique initiative has harnessed the power of television and multiple digital platforms to help find homes for tens of thousands of animals nationwide.

For the entire month of August, adoption fees at DACC Animal Care Centers will be waived for cats and reduced to $20 for all dogs.

Both fees will include adoption, spay/neuter, vaccinations, and microchips, but not licenses or spay/neuter deposits if necessary.

"A huge thank you to NBC4 and Telemundo 52 for spreading the message that adoption is the best option to help homeless pets find forever homes," says Director Marcia Mayeda.

Kid Healthy Cooking up Change culinary contest - high schools compete and come up with ideas for food service at various local schools. Pictured is Paramount High's entry consisting of Demigod Chicken Delicacy, Jasmine Mystical Lamp of Greens and Enchanted Aples of Love.

ment created healthy, great-tasting meals to meet national school meal program requirements and is now a national program in Chicago.

Cooking up Change now engages schools throughout greater Orange County and includes schools from Paramount (Los Angeles County) and Norco (Riverside County) who typically participate in the program, according to Luna-Franks.

A year earlier, Kid Healthy entered as a regional competitor sending a team to the national competition held in Washington, DC, and won.

Each team partners with a professional chef mentor who cultivates the students' overall skill set. The winning team from Orange County will move on to compete against ten other cities at the national competition in Washington, DC.

Kid Healthy is proud to have hosted the local contest that has produced six National Championship teams.

In 2019, they broadened their reach to teams from the Inland Empire and South Los Angeles and included opportunities for students to meet with local legislators.

"We then grew our program to include more schools, hold a regional competition that determines the team from O.C. that moves on to compete nationally," she added. "The national competition is currently on hold due to administrative issues, but we hope it will start again soon."

Though significantly impacted by the pandemic, with school closures causing limited access to the students and parents, Kid Healthy held a full Cooking up Change program and event in April at Northgate Gonzalez Market headquarters.

The organization was forced to transition to online cooking classes and education and hope it will resume back into the schools this coming year, according to Luna-Franks.

At this year's competition, Autumn Scott, 17, was on the winning team from Bolsa Grande High School. She had first learned of the Cooking up Change competition in her freshman year while watching a team prepare for it as she helped.

"I learned to cook through watching my family and doing cooking classes of some form throughout the past five years," she explained. "When I was younger and mature enough, I was taught to hold knives safely to help my family cook and even be trusted to cook some dishes on my own. Though I did make a few bad dishes, they ate it all and continued to encourage me to keep trying."

The Korean fried chicken sandwich her team won 1st place with was inspired by Vietnamese banh mi sandwiches. They also had a Korean side dish called banchan, a roasted vegetable mashed potato normally served cold but served warmed by her team for better flavor. Additionally, they had an Asian-style pear salad with ginger as part of their winning entree.

"This dish is not very difficult to make as we are able to create 4-serving sizes in less than 45 minutes," Scott explained.

Though she currently does not do much cooking at home, she would love to study Culinary Arts and possibly become a professional chef.

"It has been a dream of mine since I was young to own my own diner or cafe and work there myself with my employees," she added. "I feel cooking will serve me in the future as it will hopefully become a career for me, as well as me being able to cook for myself as an adult and for friends and family at gatherings."

Scott has other interests she would like to incorporate into her love for cooking. She would like to introduce people to the idea of safe foraging and plant identification, and cuisines from other cultures. She feels healthy cooking incorporates a well-balanced diet with the creation of healthy dishes that people enjoy eating often.

What she enjoys most about cooking is being able to lose herself in the process.

"I just listen to my music and enjoy my time cooking alone," Scott said. "Having a helper to cut things or clean dishes sometimes is nice too, but I prefer to do the cooking part of it on my own."

Her greatest reward comes when she and others enjoy the fruits of her labor, enjoying what she has created while having big smiles on their faces, she added.

Kid Healthy has ten local high schools and 30 student competitors involved with Cooking up Change each year.

Recipes are shared with food service directors each year in the hope of being incorporated into school cafeteria lunch menus. The competition has produced six national winning teams from Orange County alone, provided more than 249 student-created cafeteria-ready recipes, and awarded more than $65,000 in scholarships, according to Luna-Franks.

"The students in Cooking up Change and the culinary instructors who guide them are provided with access to a unique skillset and knowledge of the national school meal program," she said. "Their experience through the competition opens their eyes to the diverse opportunities within the culinary field, it is not just about cooking."

"After working with them [the students] for months in preparation for the competition, it's a proud night for me to see them compete," said Luna-Franks. "They are so creative, and their presentations always blow me away."

Luna-Franks said she feels so grateful to serve the community with programming that teaches skills for long-term impact on families and students.

"Low income, under-resourced communities face many challenges, [and] health should not be one of them," she explained. "Simple tools, like access to healthy eating and spaces for kids and families to play along with understanding the importance of daily physical activity and healthy eating are what we focus on."

Kid Healthy was co-founded with ABC7 and launched in Orange County in 2003 through a partnership with a classroom-based health education program called Steps to Healthy Living.

It was a campaign developed by Network for a Healthy California – Children's Power Play Campaign, which became one of the largest obesity prevention campaigns in California.

For 10 years more than 95,000 students in 4th and 5th grade classes, parents, and teachers from four counties were successfully engaged.

While in place in schools, youth organizations and after school programs, it was Kid Healthy that developed their two outreach programs, Cooking up Change and Padres en Acción (Parents in Action).

In 2009, the Padres en Acción

(PEA - Parents in Action) began with a group of parents who knew of Steps to Healthy Living and desired to make an impact.

They wanted to get kids physically active during recess times, and as they became more organized it grew to more schools. By 2020 some 52 schools had parent led active recess, and monthly parent education classes were active.

Specifically, this involved schools in socio-economically disadvantaged communities throughout Orange County including Santa Ana Unified, Anaheim Elementary, Buena Park Unified, Fullerton, La Habra, Newport-Mesa Unified, Garden Grove Unified, Magnolia, Placentia-Yorba Linda, Saddleback Valley, and Tustin Unified School Districts. "What I see most often is when parents are offered the opportunity to attend classes at their child's school and to lead active recess, they become comfortable further engaging in their child's education and within the community," she explained. "It becomes a special group of parents, and we are privileged to work with them."

"Each year gets better and better!" Luna-Franks said. "Most meaningful to us is the relationships we develop with the schools we serve. PEA demonstrates that kids like playing with the parents on the playground, like having organized games with no bullying and a welcome atmosphere for all to play. Our observations indicate that on program days more kids engage in active play, at a higher intensity level than compared to when there is no activity led by parents."

"PEA is a proven model of success that is replicable at any elementary school," she added. "We serve 50 elementary schools annually in the program so about 22,000 kids are in the parent led active recess."

Volunteers for Padres en Acción (PEA) who are willing to follow school site safety protocols, and those who wish to help with coordination and development of the Cooking up Change program can contact Kid Healthy at info@mykidhealthy.org.

Donations with all funds directly supporting their programs are also welcome and accepted online at www.mykidhealthy.org/help-us-grow/donate/.

"Our future is to continue serving the community with relevant programs to build healthy communities," Luna-Franks said. "We aim to serve as many schools as possible, engage as many students and families as possible, and to keep the funding stream going in order to do so."

Kid Healthy is a 501c(3) nonprofit in collaboration with community partners including Orange County Health Care Agency and Orange County Department of Education, CalFresh Healthy Living, YMCA, school districts, schools, teachers, and parents. Its funding sponsors include Hoag Community Benefits Foundation, LA84 Foundation, Northgate Gonzalez Markets, Kaiser Permanente, O.C. United Way, and Sun Family Foundation.

Cerritos to be Tested Early in Preparation for Expected Third Straight League Title

In the 2020 shortened football season, which wasn't played until the spring of 2021, Cerritos High won the 605 League without much challenge from its opponents. Last season, in Brad Carter's first full season with the Dons, the head coach split his 10 regular season games before falling in the playoffs by less than a field goal. Now, Carter and the Dons are hungry for more.

"We took some lumps early in the season; we played some good teams," said Carter. "I know I learned a lot; our staff learned a lot. There were some low points, but I was happy how we finished, winning league, then playing a really tough game in the playoffs versus a team that won the CIF championship. I would say we were happy to be out there, and I know we learned a lot as a team from that first season."

Carter already has as many wins as the program had in the previous four seasons combined before his arrival and the Dons are seeking their first back to back playoff campaigns since 2000 and 2001. He said since he set foot on the campus a month before the pandemic began, the players, administration and community were all in on the culture change and in fact, were open to the coaching change and excited about getting some 'fresh air, fresh blood' to the program.

Cerritos is expected to begin the season with fewer seniors than that of 2021, thus putting the rest of the league on notice that the Dons are going to be a force for the next several seasons.

OFFENSE

The Dons were shutout in three of their first six games last season and after scoring 24 points in the season opener against Buena Park High, scored 26 over the next six games. But once Cerritos entered league action, they piled up 134 points in the final three regular season contests. Senior Dylan Burton, a backup quarterback last season to David Sagun, will assume the starting role. Burton completed 13 passes for 99 yards last season but also caught six passes for 50 yards.

"He has good experience; he got in some starts because David broke his finger," said Carter. "He has some experience starting, he has a really big arm, he loves the competition, and he likes the spotlight of being quarterback. When you're the ace pitcher [of the baseball team] and the starting quarterback, you have a lot of eyes on you. He seems to relish that."

Backing him up will be senior Alex Martinez, who completed a pair of passes in four attempts for 10 yards. He is also the leading returning wide receiver, catching 17 passes for 210 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2021, Cerritos had a lot of workhorses in the backfield and 14 players combined to rush the ball 332 times for 1,377 yards with 19 touchdowns. This season, sophomores Dikshanta Adhikari, who is more of a scatback, and Kalib Moran, who is a bruiser, according to Carter, will be the one-two punch in the backfield. Senior Quincy Monreal, who gained 274 yards last season, injured his knee and will not play this season. Also seeing some touches will be Jake Bautista and sophomore Ruben Castro.

Martinez will be the go-to receiver with Bautista and Castro expected to get a lot of action in the slot position.

Carter says his concerns on this side of the ball will be taking care of the ball, especially with the team being young and

Burton having the gunslinger mentality. Not trying to do too much will be a key if the Dons are to score more than 204 points.

DEFENSE

Junior Sam Marcroft and sophomore Josh Teshome will be the defensive ends with senior Eli Arreola, Diaz and Peterson being rotated in at nose guard. In the secondary, it will be senior Sebastian Pasillas at defensive back, Bautista at cornerback, junior Gabe Rojas at strong safety and Martinez at the safety position while the top linebackers will be junior Moises Mendoza, who had 38 tackles and three sacks last season and sophomores Devyn Chantha and Nathaniel Crawford. Senior Bhavandeep Singh and Luis Perez could also be rotated in at the position.

"We're younger, but I would say this [team] is more talented than the last two teams we've had," said Carter. "I think we're more talented, but the experience isn't there. It will be interesting to see how the beginning of the season shapes out; if we match what we think we could be."

SCHEDULE

One thing that immediately stands out when looking at the 2022 Cerritos schedule is the number of Thursday night games-six. All 605 League games will be on Thursday nights and in addition, the Dons will host Woodbridge High, Troy High and Gahr High on a Thursday.

The game with city rival Gahr will be played at Artesia High and will mark the first time since that the programs have faced each other since 2017 at which the Gladiators had won 13 in a row. That streak figures to end this season.

"I think everyone has that game circled," said Carter. "They're down the street and they're in different leagues now, but a lot of our kids know [their

Record last season

Valley Christian High's football program has always been rich in tradition, having posted 17 winning seasons since 1998 and missing the playoffs four times in that span. But the program is embarking on its fifth head coach since 2017 as Nick Walker takes over the top duties. Walker, who was hired on Apr. 10, spent the last two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Canyon High in Santa Clarita, but this will be his first head coaching gig anywhere.

"Man, it's a dream come true, and when you look at the trajectory of what's going on in high school football, you don't have continuity and coaches staying long," said Walker. "For me, it was more or less the tradition here and the winning percentage in the last 10 years, which gave me an idea that maybe the coach wasn't the continuity part, but the culture was, and the kids were. So, it really drew me to Valley Christian. As my first head coaching job, I don't think I could be in a better place anywhere."

Walker added that he knew about V.C. just by asking around, especially with head coach Richard Broussard of league rival Village Christian High. In fact, Walker was about to take the defensive coordinator position at Heritage Christian High, another league rival before Valley Christian hired him a week later.

The immediate reaction of the players was that they wanted someone who cared, according to Walker, and someone who just wasn't about teaching football, but was about someone who was going to be at V.C. and see them through the process.

kids] and I think it should be a great game. I'm looking forward to having a great atmosphere and a good crowd."

Cerritos will face several teams that specialize in running the ball and it will get a taste of that when the Dons visit former Suburban League foe Norwalk High in a scrimmage on Aug. 12. Chino High, Gahr and Woodbridge replace Banning High, St. Pius X-St. Matthias Academy and Segerstrom High as non-league opponents.

"We like the idea of Norwalk being local and it's a comparable matchup to maybe where we think we could be this year," said Carter. "We thought it would

New Coach, Attitude & League Await Valley Christian as Team Faces Daunting Schedule

"When I met with them for the first time, it was like, we want coaching and we want guys who want to be here long term and understand us and get to know our families and be a part of us," said Walker. "The rumor was head coaches come at 4:30 and practice started at 3:00. For me, I can be here at 1:00."

Discipline is huge for Walker because if you have it, he says you're going to run the play correctly, you're going to work hard and make sure you get the job done. In fact, the motto this season for the Defenders is refuse to lose and his expectations are to at least get to the third round of the CIF-Southern Section playoffs, which would be the semifinals.

One of the early noticeable points for the Defenders is that they are young and built for the future. There are only 10 seniors on a squad of 36. And, on a personal note, Walker is dedicating this season to his 16-year old nephew who has Hodgkin lymphoma.

"For me it's going to be a dream come true to be a head coach; to walk out on that field and lead these young Christian men and teach them the game of football through Christ," said Walker. "It's all going to be different for me. My excitement is up there, and I don't want to outcoach myself and lose the game. But I am going to be fired up and ready to go."

OFFENSE

The program has shown more times than not in the past that it can pile up the points. The Defenders scored at least 35 points in every game in between their opening-season loss and their playoff loss. However, they had to forfeit a 45-0 win against Santa Rosa High in their second contest.

There is a competition going on for the starting quarterback position between sophomore Keiran Edmundson, a transfer from Cypress High, and senior Kaden Struiksma. Both present different qualities as Struiksma is a mobile quarterback while Edmundson is a pocket passer, according to Walker. Both are sharing the reps and both have had their share of ups and downs over the past few months.

The backfield will be very experienced with the explosiveness of senior running back Major Brown (49 carries, 485 yards, five touchdowns in six games last season) and sophomore running back Josiah Apisala (16 carries, 134 yards). Also in the backfield will be junior Dylan Sawai, who will be the H-back.

"He creates a dynamic that we can have a two-headed monster," said Walker of Brown. "[Apisala] will carry the load with Brown being the change of pace."

According to Walker, one of the most dynamic wide receivers who will cause a lot of problems this year will be senior

Nick Bozanic, who led the Defenders with 27 receptions for 333 yards and scored six times. Three other top wide receivers along with Bozanic will be seniors Casey Bouma (six receptions, 199 yards, three touchdowns), whom Walker has tagged the X-factor, Micah Maurer and freshman Jaden Hernandez.

Playing left tackle will be sophomore Tupu Toloai while there is a battle at left guard between junior Tyler Hayes and sophomore Noah Klistoff. Junior Jack Van Hofwegen will be the center with the right side of the offensive line held down by either Hayes or Klistoff at guard and junior Grant Hefner, coming off a knee surgery after playing last season with a torn ACL, at tackle.

"We have the opportunity to be successful," said Walker. "It can go one or two ways, but we have the opportunity to be successful. With our schedule strengthening this year from last year, we need to be able to block. Whichever quarterback we have, we need to be able to get the two reads at least. If we don't get that, we're in trouble."

"I don't know what the outcomes will be; I have no predictions at this point," he continued. "But I do know that we can go 1-9, or we can go 9-1."

DEFENSE

The Defenders did not allow two opponents to score on them last season and allowed single digits in two other games. Only St. Paul High in the first game and Ramona High in the playoff game scored more than 26 points against V.C. On the right end of the line will be Toloai with senior Johnny Miller or Sawai situated on the left end. Right now, Hayes and Van Hofwegen are projected to be in the middle. One possibility could be moving Maurer at one of the ends and moving Miller to the inside.

Brown and Bozanic will be the starting cornerbacks with senior Ryan Bouma being the strong safety on the right side and Hernandez the strong safety on the left side with Casey Bouma locking down the safety position. Apisala and Maurer are slated to be the lone linebackers as Walker will run a 4-2-5 defense.

"We're nasty, I'm telling you," Walker said of his defense. "I'm a defensive guy, so I'm going to preach up my defense. But my offense is awesome, too. Don't get me wrong. Do we have some kinks to work out offensively? Yeah. Are we ready defensively? Yeah. With the returning secondary, that's probably the hugest thing that's going to help us. Because I can stop the run, but I need to be able to know I can stop the pass, too. Our defense is going to win us some games this year and may even shock some people because of it."

SCHEDULE

V.C.'s defense will be put to the test in the first game as it hosts El Dorado High, a new opponent for the program and a playoff team from 2021. The game against Gahr would have been on the other side of the 605 Freeway, but a new field turf surface is being added to Gahr's playing facility. Following the road contest at Artesia High, the Defenders will take a week off before entering action in the new Ironwood League as the Olympic League is no more for football purposes with the five members were placed into other leagues.

"I can see us going 1-4 in the preseason, and I can see us going 4-1 or 5-0," said Walker. "I can see that legitimately. El Dorado is good team, Gahr is on the up and up and they're moving in the right direction. Alison Niguel...they can get it too and I know they can go."

While Heritage Christian and Village Christian are old Olympic League rivals whom the Defenders easily handled by 36 and 41 points respectively last season, the Defenders will find a tougher task with defending CIF-SS Division 7 champion Aquinas High and Big Bear High. Aquinas, which scored 532 points last season, also went to the state playoffs where the Falcons lost to Vanden High 14-13.

"I know Aquinas is going to be tough, definitely," said Walker. "I'm not even going to sugarcoat that. When you look at the trajectory, they're just going to reload. They're going to be stronger than ever. You just have to understand what their game plan is and how to stop it. Can you stop it? I don't know; I don't know if you can stop it. But we're going to darn sure try. We're going to put our best foot forward. We are going to hang with them."

HOMECOMING

V.C.'s longest running rivalry has been Ontario Christian High and now, the rivalry has been amped up even more because the two schools are in the Ironwood League. It owns a 13-6 record against the Knights since 1998 and faced Ontario Christian for its 2009 homecoming game, a 35-24 victory. The Defenders knocked off the Knights 35-21 last season and in homecoming games over the past 22 seasons, V.C. is 20-2 on the big night, scoring over 30 points 15 times, over 40 points 10 times, over 50 points five times, over 60 points four times and over 70 points once.

Napolitano Pushing $1.3B in Water Recycling, Wildfire and Drought Response

Last week, Rep. Grace F. Napolitano (D-El Monte) voted for H.R. 5118, the Wildfire Response and Drought Resiliency Act (WRDR Act), in which she championed $1.3 billion in new Title XVI and Large-Scale water recycling investments.
The WRDR Act, which passed by a vote of 218 to 199, is a package of 48 bills that will provide much-needed investments to improve fire-adapted ecosystems, protect communities against catastrophic wildfires, enhance drought resiliency, expand science programs, modernize data and technology, and ensure a whole of government approach to wildfire and drought issues. It now goes to the Senate for consideration.
"We need greater investments in water recycling now to address water supply concerns in the arid West and particularly in my region of Southern California, and that's precisely what several provisions in this legislation do. I urge the Senate to take up this legislation and pass it without delay."

Key provisions for Western Water and Wildfire Response include:
Salton Sea Project Improvements: $250,000,000
Colorado River (Lake Mead and Powell): $500,000,000
Bureau of Reclamation Water Settlements Fund: $120,000,000 per year
Bureau of Reclamation Tribal Clean Water Assistance: $1,000,000,000
Water Efficiency, Conservation, and Sustainability: $50,000,000 for water efficiency incentive programs, $40,000,000 for assisting in detecting/addressing water loss in water systems
Establishes new hiring authorities and a minimum basic pay rate (approximately $20/hour) for wildland firefighters, as well as mental health leave and hazard pay.
Authorizes a 10-Year National Wildfire Response Plan for landscape-scale projects across the country.
Provides tools and resources to assist communities' wildfire activities, including prescribed fires, and supports opportunities for Tribes and Conservation Corps in wildfire activities.
